- DIOCESE OF NESQUALY.—Page 166—Catholic population—read 8,000, instead of "600."

ENTERED, according to the act of Congress, in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, by JOHN MURPHY & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Maryland.

PREFACE.

In presenting to the public the second number, New Series, of the METROPOLITAN CATHOLIC ALMANAC AND LAITY'S DIRECTORY FOR THE UNITED STATES, the Publishers feel great pleasure in stating that official Reports have been received from nearly every Diocese in the Union. The promptness and unanimity with which these reports have been furnished by the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Prelates, is a gratifying evidence that the work has merited their approbation.

The general arrangement of the last number has been preserved, and the contents of the work confined mainly to such details as exhibit the actual condition of the Church in the United States. We have, however, made such changes and additions as we believed would give increased interest to the work. The civil department has been enlarged by the addition of several pages of useful information, while all the details usually found in an annual of this kind, have been carefully supplied.

With a view of rendering the Almanac a manual of more general information, an Appendix has been added, exhibiting the condition of Catholicity in Canada and the British Provinces.

Such items of information as were received too late for insertion in their proper places, have been carefully noted under the head of "Additions and Changes."

We do not, however, flatter ourselves that perfect accuracy has been obtained. We are conscious that some errors will appear, especially in regard to the proper location of some of the Clergy. In some instances the name of the same Clergyman appears in several localities, leaving us entirely uninformed as to his particular place of residence, or his post office address.

We trust, however, that the general details and the accuracy of the Almanac for 1860, will be found such as to merit a continuance of that confidence reposed in us by the illustrious Prelates at whose request we undertook its publication, and, at the same time, merit a continuance of the patronage and support of the Catholic public.

We return our grateful acknowledgments to the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Prelates, to the Rev. Clergy and others, who have kindly supplied us with materials for its compilation.

We thank, in a special manner, the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Prelates of Canada, for the ample statistics which they so promptly furnished.

J. MURPHY & CO., PUBLISHERS.

ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1860.

There will be four Eclipses this year, two of the Sun, and two of the Moon, as follows:

I. An annular Eclipse of the Sun, January 22, invisible in America. Visible at and about the South Pole.

II. A partial Eclipse of the Moon, February 6, in the evening. Visible in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Charleston.

III. A total Eclipse of the Sun, July 18th, in the morning. In the United States this will only be a partial eclipse, except at Astoria, and the north-western part of Washington Territory, where it will be total. It will be visible in the following places:

IV. A partial Eclipse of the Moon, August 1st, at 17 min. past 12 noon, Washington time; hence invisible in America, but visible to our antipodes.

VENUS.—Venus will be Morning Star until the 18th of October, then Evening Star the remainder of the year. It will be brightest January 18th, visible in the East in the morning.

LEAP-YEAR.—Every year divisible by four without a remainder, is a leap-year. Hence 1860 is a leap-year.

MERCURY.—This planet will be brightest about March 31st, July 29th, and Nov. 23d, at which time it will be quite likely to be visible, being then in the West immediately after Sun set. It will again be brightest about Jan. 24, May 23d, and Sept. 17th, when it will be in the East just before Sun rise.

SEASONS.—Sun enters Aries, March 20th, at 10 h. 19 m. p. m.; when spring commences, and the days and nights are equal.

Sun enters Cancer, June 21st, at 6 h. 57 m. p. m.; when summer commences, and the longest day occurs.

Sun enters Libra, September 23d, at 9 h. 9 m. a. m.; when autumn commences, and the days and nights are again equal.

Sun enters Capricornus, December 22d, at 3 h. 2 m. a. m.; when winter commences, and the shortest day occurs.

THE GREGORIAN CALENDAR, &c.—Calendar is a word formed from the Latin signifying “an account of the days of each month.” The first day of every Roman month was called its “Calends,” and all the days in the latter division of each month were numbered according to their distance from the “Calends” of the succeeding months.

The Year is a very ancient division of time, being the number of days occupied by the sun in its apparent course through the heavens. In the circular line traced by the sun’s course, are twelve clusters of stars, which severally have received the names of animals, and mark the division of the year into months. The circular line itself is called the Zodiac, from a Greek word, signifying animals, and the twelve clusters of stars are called the twelve signs of the Zodiac.

The Natural or Solar year is the time during which the sun is passing through the twelve signs of the Zodiac, and consists of 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, and 48 seconds.

The Common or Civil year contains 365 days, and being shorter than the natural year, confusion would ensue, if the matter were not regularly set right, which is done by adding a day to every fourth year. This fourth year is called Leap-year; the day is added to the end of February, making 29 days, instead of, as usual, 28. Leap-year is sometimes called Bissextile. Julius Cæsar having ordered the day in question to be added to the 24th of February, which was the sixth day (Sextile) before the Calends (or 1st) of March, the 24th of February was counted twice (Bis-sextile). The Common or Civil year is sometimes called the Julian year, because Julius Cæsar made this arrangement 47 years before the birth of Our Lord.

Still this order was not perfect, as the year was found to be eleven minutes longer than the Natural or Solar year, which, in the course of time, prevented the months falling rightly with the Seasons, and with the moveable Feasts of the Christian Church. Then was introduced, in some places, the Gregorian Calendar, so called from Pope Gregory the XIII, who in 1582 ordered that after the 4th of October ten days should be left out, so that the day following the 4th was called the 15th, instead of the 5th. To prevent similar error in future, he directed that after the year 1600 every hundredth year, which ought to have been Leap-year, according to the Julian reckoning, should be a common year for three successive centuries, but that every fourth hundredth year should remain a Leap-year. Thus the years 1700, 1800, and 1900, would have the usual number of days; but it is designed that the year 2000, and every fourth hundred year afterwards, should have an additional day.

JOHN BARRY, an Irishman and a Catholic, was the first Commodore in the United States' service, and the "Father of the American Navy." He was commissioned by Congress in April, 1776, and served gallantly through the struggle for Independence. He died in Philadelphia in 1803, bequeathing a large portion of his fortune to the Catholic Orphan Asylum of that city.

GENERAL STEPHEN MOYLAN, the first Quartermaster in the American army during the war of the revolution, was a Catholic.

CATHOLICS not only shed their blood in the cause of American liberty, but also contributed freely towards the support of the army. During the severe winter of 1777-78, four Catholic merchants of Philadelphia, Messrs. Delany and Shea, and John and James Mease, contributed jointly £11,000, or over $50,000, for the support of the troops encamped at Valley Forge.

FIFTY-TWO Catholic Missionaries, Priests and Religious, have been put to death for the faith within the present limits of the United States, since the discovery of the country.

"I PRESUME that your fellow-citizens will not forget the patriotic part you took in the accomplishment of their Revolution and the establishment of their government, or the important assistance they received from a nation in which the Roman Catholic Faith is professed."—Washington's Reply to the Address of the Roman Catholics.

IN 1683 Mass was first offered in Philadelphia in a log or wooden chapel, at the corner of Front and Walnut streets, according to Watson's Annals.

In 1733 St. Joseph's chapel was erected on Fourth street, Philadelphia, by Father Greacon, a Jesuit missionary, who had three years before entered the city disguised as a Quaker. The authorities took umbrage at this, and Governor Gordon reported to the Council that the Catholics had erected a Roman Mass House, contrary to the statutes.

THERE are in the United States 55 different Religious Orders belonging to the Catholic Church—24 of men, and 31 of women.

In 1790 the first edition of the Catholic version of the Bible was printed in the United States by Matthew Carey in Philadelphia. Prior to this only one complete edition of the Protestant version had been issued in this country. In 1805 the first edition of the Catholic Testament was printed, also by Matthew Carey.

In 1782, at the close of the Revolution, the number of priests in the United States was only 24; and at the beginning of 1859 the number was 2,324.

In 1639 the famous Toleration act was passed in Catholic Maryland, securing to all denominations of Christians the right to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences; and in 1704 Catholics were deprived of all civil rights by the passage of the "act to prevent the growth of Popery in this (Maryland) province."

In 1763 the Cross was raised on St. Mary's Church, Philadelphia; and in 1770, St. Peter's, the first Catholic Church in Baltimore, was opened.

WILLIAM PENN AND TOLERATION.—In 1703 he wrote from England to James Logan, his Governor in Philadelphia, in these words: "There is a complaint against your government that you suffer public Mass in a scandalous manner. Pray send the matter of fact, for ill use is made of it here." And in a subsequent letter, he wrote: "It has become a reproach to me here with the officers of the Crown, that you have suffered the scandal of Mass to be publicly celebrated."

In 1808, the first Catholic Church was built in Pittsburg, by Father O'Brien.

IN VIRGINIA, previous to the Declaration of Independence, Catholics were not allowed by law to hold office under the government, to vote at elections, to keep arms, to own a horse worth five pounds, or to be witnesses in civil or criminal cases.

NEW HAMPSHIRE is the only State in the Union in which Catholics are still proscribed by law. Her Constitution to the present day requires a profession of the Protestant religion as a qualification for holding office.

IN 1782 when peace was proclaimed and American liberty achieved, the Te Deum was chanted in St. Joseph's Church, Philadelphia, at the request of the Marquis de la Luzerne, the French minister. General Washington was present on the occasion, with Lafayette, and the other principal Generals, members of Congress, and of the State Legislature.

THE Most Rev. Archbishop Carroll, was consecrated bishop by the Right Rev. Bishop Walmesley, in the Chapel of Lutworth Castle, England, on the 16th of August, 1790.

THE Order of the Society of Jesus was founded by St. Ignatius Loyola, in 1534, the very year that England under Henry VIII separated from the See of Rome. The Order was approved by Pope Paul III; was introduced into the United States in 1566; was suppressed by Pope Clement XIV in 1773, and restored by Pope Pius VII in 1814.

MR. FITZSIMMONS, a distinguished Catholic of Philadelphia, was a prominent member of Congress during the Revolutionary war.

In 1641 over 50,000 Irish Catholics were transported by Cromwell to America. The majority of the men were sent to the West Indies, but a great number of the women and children were sold as slaves in Virginia; and in 1652 the Commissaries of the Commonwealth of England ordered Irish women to be sold to merchants and shipped to Virginia.

IRISH REMITTANCES HOME.—It is authoritatively stated that the amount of money remitted home by Irishmen resident in America in 1858, for the purpose of assisting their friends to emigrate, was $2,360,000. The ten preceding years the amount remitted was $19,600,000.

"While we would avoid all invidious contrasts, and forget the stern spirit of the Puritan, we can turn with exultation to the Pilgrims of Maryland as the founders of religious liberty in the New World. They erected the first altar to it on this continent, and the fires first kindled on it ascended to heaven amid the blessings of the savage."—McMahon's History of Maryland.

In 1822 the Association for the Propagation of the Faith was founded at Lyons, in France, chiefly through the exertions of the Right Rev. Dr. Dubourg, then Bishop of New Orleans. Its first year's receipts amounted to only about $5,000, while in 1858 they reached over $1,400,000

THE CABINET.—The Cabinet consists of seven members; viz: the Secretary of State; Secretary of the Treasury; Secretary of War; Secretary of the Navy; Secretary of the Interior; and the Attorney-General, and Postmaster-General, who are the special advisers of the President.

THE CONGRESS of the United States consists of a Senate and House of Representatives, and must assemble at least once a year, on the first Monday of December, unless otherwise directed by law.

THE SENATE is composed of two members from each State. They are chosen by the Legislatures of the several states for the term of six years, one-third being elected biennially. The Vice President of the United States is President of the Senate, having the casting vote when the votes of the Senators are equally divided. In case of his absence or death, a President pro tempore is chosen by the Senators from their own body. The Senate at Present consists of 66 members.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES is composed of members from the several states, elected by the people for the term of two years, and apportioned to the population in the following manner. After each decennial census, the Secretary of the Interior is to add to the whole number of free persons—including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding the Indians not taxed—three-fifths of all other persons. This aggregate is to be divided by 233, and the quotient, rejecting fractions, is to be the ratio of apportionment to the several states. The representative population of each state, ascertained in the same manner and divided by the above-named ratio, will give a quotient which is the apportionment for that state. Any loss by fractions is to be made up by assigning to as many states having the largest fractions, as may be necessary to make the whole number of representatives 233, one additional member each. And if, after the apportionment, new states are admitted, representatives are assigned to such states on the above basis in addition to the limited number of 233; but such excess is to continue only till the next apportionment under the succeeding census. Besides the representatives from the states there is a delegate from each territory, who has a right to speak, but not to vote. The compensation of the members is $3,000 per annum, and that of the Speaker $6,000, and $8 for every twenty miles travel in going and returning. The House of Representatives is composed at present of 237 members, besides seven additional from the organized territories.

THE SUPREME COURT.—Chief Justice, Roger B. Taney, of Maryland, salary $6,500. Associate Justices, John McLean, Ohio; James M. Wayne, Georgia; John Catron, Tennessee; Peter V. Daniel, Virginia; Samuel Nelson, New York; Robert C. Grier, Pennsylvania; John A. Campbell, Alabama; Nathan Clifford, Maine; salary $6,000. This Court is held in Washington, and has but one session annually, commencing on the first Monday in December.

CIRCUIT COURTS.—The United States are divided into ten judicial circuits, in each of which a Circuit Court is held at least twice a year for each state within the circuit, by a Justice of the Supreme Court, and the District Judge of the state or district in which the court sits.

DISTRICT COURTS.—The United States are also divided into fifty-one districts, in which District Courts are held by forty-two district judges. And in each of the territories there is also a Judge and two Associate Judges, appointed by the Executive of the United States.

INTERCOURSE WITH FOREIGN NATIONS.—The pay of Envoys Extraordinary, and Ministers Plenipotentiary, and so of Chargés, Secretaries of Legation, and of Ministers Resident, varies with the country to which they are commissioned. The United States are represented by Ministers Plenipotentiary at the courts of Great Britain, France, Spain, Russia, Prussia, Mexico, Brazil, Chili, Peru, and China; and by Chargés d'Affaires or Ministers Resident, at the courts of most of the other foreign powers with which this country is connected by commercial intercourse. There were also, in November, 1858, 206 consuls and commercial agents from the U States residing in foreign countries: and 23 ministers and chargés, and 497 consuls and commercial agents from foreign countries in the U. States.

THE ARMY.—The authorized strength of the United States army is 18,165, officers and men; the actual strength, 17,498. This force is divided into 19 regiments, garrisoning 68 permanent forts, and 70 military posts in different parts of the country. The whole territory of the United States is divided into six great departments, in which there are 25 arsenals and armories, besides the camps and forts above mentioned.

THE NAVY.—The navy of the United States has, (1859,) captains—active list 81, reserved list 20; commanders—active list 116, reserved list 17; lieutenants—active list 340, reserved list 36; surgeons of various grades, 147; pursers, 64; midshipmen, and other officers down to assistant engineers, 529. Ten ships of the line, 10 frigates, 21 sloops of war; 3 brigs, 25 screw steamers and tenders, 8 side-wheel steamers, 3 store-vessels, 5 permanent store and receiving ships, a naval asylum, a naval academy, and 8 navy-yards.

THE MARINE CORPS.—The Marine Corps has the organization of a brigade, and consists, (1859,) besides staff officers, of 1 lieutenant-colonel, 7 majors, 14 captains, 20 first and 19 second lieutenants, and about 1,894 non-commissioned officers, musicians, men, etc.

QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS.

The following are the qualifications of Voters in the Several States.

MAINE.—Citizenship of the United States, and a residence in the State of three months.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Citizenship of the United States, and six months residence in the State.

VERMONT.—Citizenship of the United States, and one year's residence in the State.

Voters are also required to have paid taxes, and to be able to read and write the English language. And by a recent amendment to the Constitution of the State, foreigners are obliged to remain two years in the State after naturalization, before they are allowed to vote.

RHODE ISLAND.—Male citizens of the United States, owning a freehold of $134; a native born citizen of the United States, who pays taxes can vote without property qualification. A residence of one year in the State, and six months in the ward, or district, are required in all cases.

CONNECTICUT.—White male citizens of the United States, who have resided in the State one year, and six months in the voting district, and who are able to read, are entitled to vote.

NEW YORK.—Citizenship of the United States, one year State, and four months county residence, the last thirty days of which must be in the voting district. Colored persons must reside in the State three years, and have paid a tax on a freehold estate of the value of $250.

NEW JERSEY.—White male citizens of the United States, who have resided in the State one year, and five months in the election district.

PENNSYLVANIA.—White male citizens of the United States, one year in the State, and ten days in the election district.

DELAWARE.—White male citizens of the United States; one year's residence in the State, the last month of which must be in the election district, and payment of taxes within two years.

MARYLAND.—Free white citizens of the United States, one year in the State, and six months in the voting district.

VIRGINIA.—White male citizens of the United States, a residence in the State of two years, and one year in the election district.

NORTH CAROLINA.—White freemen, one year State, and six months local residence, and payment of taxes.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—White male citizens of the United States, a residence of two years in the State, and a freehold of fifty acres of land, or a town lot; those who have no freehold, require a residence of two years and six months.

GEORGIA.—Must be a citizen, and a resident of the State six months, and have paid all the taxes required by law.

OHIO.—White male citizens of the United States; one year's residence in the State, thirty days in the county, and twenty days actual residence in the ward or election district next preceding the election.

KENTUCKY.—White male citizens of the United States; two years State, and one year's district residence.

TENNESSEE.—White male citizens of the United States, who have resided six months in the election district, are entitled to vote.

MISSISSIPPI.—White male citizens of the United States; one year in the State, and four months in the election district.

ALABAMA.—White male citizens of the United States; one year in the State, and three months in the election district.

LOUISIANA.—White male citizens of the United States; one year State residence,—the last six months must be in the election district.

INDIANA.—White male citizens of the United States, (including persons not more than one-eighth African blood,) and six months State residence; foreigners, who have declared their intention of becoming citizens, and who have resided in the State one year, can vote.

ILLINOIS.—White male citizens of the United States; one year in the State, and actual residence in the voting district.

MISSOURI.—White citizens of the United States; one year in the State; the last six months in the election district.

FLORIDA.—The same as Missouri.

MICHIGAN.—White male citizens of the United States; three months State, and ten days local residence. Persons of Indian descent, not members of any tribe, have the right of suffrage.

ARKANSAS.—White male citizens of the United States, and six months residence in the State.

TEXAS.—Citizenship of the United States; one year in the State; the last six months of which must be in the election district.

IOWA.—White male citizens of the United States; one year's residence in the State. Foreigners, who have declared their intention to become citizens, have the right of suffrage; also persons of Indian blood, not members of any tribe.

CALIFORNIA.—White male citizens of the United States, who have resided in the State six months, and thirty days in the election district.

MINNESOTA.—White male citizen of U. S., one year in the U. S., 4 months in the State, and ten days in election district. This includes persons of foreign birth who have declared their intentions to become citizens.

OREGON.—Citizenship of the United States, and six months residence in the State immediately preceding the election. Foreigners, one year in the United States, and six months in the State, and who have declared their intention of becoming citizens of the United States, are entitled to vote.

COLORED PERSONS are allowed to vote in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and New York, under the presumption that they are citizens of the United States, a question which was never raised until after the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the Dred Scott case.

ELECTORS.—The President and Vice President of the United States are chosen by Electors, and not directly by the suffrages of the people. Each State is entitled to as many Electors as it has senators and representatives in Congress. Electors are chosen every four years by the votes of the people, and meet in the capitals of the respective States; and vote for a President and Vice President of the United States, and transmit the result, sealed, to the President of the Senate, when Congress meets.

SLAVERY.—Slavery was a colonial institution, and prevailed generally in the States at the time of the adoption of the Federal Constitution. It began gradually to be abolished in the Eastern States, and exists at present in New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, Missouri, Louisiana and Texas. These are called "Slave States." No slaves can be born in New Jersey, but a few of the old stock still remain.

NOTE.—In all the States except South Carolina the Governor is voted for by the people; and if no one has a majority of all the votes in the States in which such a majority is required, the Legislature elects to the office of Governor one of the candidates voted for by the people.

ESTIMATED REVENUE AND EXPENSES OF THE GOVERNMENT FOR 1860.—The Secretary of the Treasury, on estimating the revenue for the fiscal year of 1860, ending June 30th next, claims that his customs will yield at least $62,400,000 instead of $58,000,000, as before estimated, and that, with the other resources, he will be able to reimburse or purchase the public debt, to the extent of $7,751,000, without reducing his working balance below $6,000,000 at the end of the year. He has already determined that no treasury bills, falling due after the 30th of June last, will be re-issued, or in any way renewed. The amount then subject to renewal was less $5,000,000. Since then the sub-treasurer in New York, and other parties for the Government, have disposed of about $2,000,000. His revised budget for 1860 is thus presented: To provide for all wants of the year, $63,321,000; with cash balance, June 30th, 1859, $4,339,000; treasury bills, $4,953,000; loan of January 24th, $138,000—together with $10,672,000 customs of the year, $62,400,000; land and miscellaneous, $4,000,000. Total, $77,072,000; leaving a surplus June, 1860, of $12,651,000.

LIMITS OF MOVEABLE FEASTS.

1. The earliest day on which Septuagesima Sunday can fall is the 18th of January; the latest is the 21st of February.
2. The earliest day for Ash-Wednesday is Feb. 4th; the latest is Mar. 10th.
3. The earliest day for EASTER is March 22d; the latest is April 25th.
4. The earliest day for first Sunday of Advent is November 27th; the latest is December 3d.

NOTES.

1. On the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop the solemn Votive Mass of Consecration should be celebrated in the Cathedral Church. If the Anniversary fall on a Sunday of 1st Class, within Holy Week, on Easter, Pentecost, Christmas, &c., the Anniversary Mass should (for that year) be omitted. Should it occur upon a Sunday in Lent, the prayer for the Bishop must be said in the “Mass of the time.” Throughout the diocese, the commemoration of the same anniversary must be made by every priest with the prayer “Deus omnium fidelium” in the Votive Mass of the Anniversary of the Consecration of a Bishop. This commemoration, however, should be omitted when the Anniversary occurs on Festivals of 1st Class, Holy Thursday, Holy Saturday, or on any of the Sundays which admit only one prayer at Mass. But on Sundays and Feasts of 2d Class the commemoration is made with one ending.

2. The Mass for the Transfer of a Bishop must be celebrated in the Church over which he is last placed; and throughout the diocese, the commemoration must be on the anniversary of the Transfer.

3. By an Apostolic Indult dated 7 February, 1847, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the B. V. M., unless it fall on a Sunday, is to be transferred to the following Sunday, on which the private as well as the solemn Masses are celebrated of the feast. It is also made the Patronal Feast of the United States. The commemorations proper to the day are to be observed according to the Rubrica.

COMMANDMENTS.

The Ten Commandments.

1. "I am the Lord thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt not have strange gods before me. Thou shalt not make to thyself a graven thing, nor the likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or in the earth beneath, nor of those things that are in the waters under the earth. Thou shalt not adore them, nor serve them."

2. "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain."

3. "Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day."

4. "Honor thy father and thy mother."

5. "Thou shalt not kill."

6. "Thou shalt not commit adultery."

7. "Thou shalt not steal."

8. "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."

9. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife."

10. "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods."

Commandments of the Church.

1. The Catholic Church commands her children, on Sundays and holy-days of obligation, to be present at the holy sacrifice of Mass, to rest from servile works on those days, and to keep them holy.

2. She commands them to abstain from flesh on all days of fasting and abstinence; and on fast days to eat but one meal.

3. She commands them to confess their sins to their pastor at least once a year.

4. She commands them to receive the Blessed Sacrament at least once a year, and that at Easter, or during the paschal time.

5. To contribute to the support of their pastor.

6. Not to marry within the fourth degree of kindred, nor privately without witnesses; nor to solemnize marriage at certain prohibited times.

N. B. 1. The fourth council of Lateran, Can. 21, ordains that "every one of the faithful, of both sexes, after they come to the years of discretion, shall in private faithfully confess all their sins, at least once a year, to their own pastor; and take care to fulfil, to the best of their power, the penance enjoined them; receiving reverently, at least at Easter, the sacrament of the Eucharist, unless perhaps by the counsel of their own pastor, for some reasonable cause, they judge proper to abstain from it for a time; otherwise let them be excluded out of the Church whilst living; and when they die, be deprived of Christian burial."

2. The time for the performance of the Easter duty, may be extended within the United States, from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday, both inclusively.

3. The solemnizing of marriage, that is, the celebration of the rite during the Mass pro sponso et sponsa, or with a display of festivity, is prohibited from the first Sunday of Advent till after Epiphany, and from the beginning of Lent till after Low Sunday.

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent. Every day in Lent, Sundays excepted. The Ember-Days (see below.) The Vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All-Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B. 1. When a fasting day falls upon a Sunday, it is kept on the Saturday preceding that Sunday. To fast, consists in abstaining from flesh-meat, and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock, m. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their 21st year are obliged to observe the fasts of the church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember-days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide, that the feast of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States, on the Sunday immediately after the 29th of June, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the Right Rev. Bishops exhort the faithful under their charge, to keep fast on the Saturday preceding that solemn celebration.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with, for the faithful of the United States, for the space of twenty years, from the year 1840, except when a fast falls on that day. On the petition of the Ninth Provincial Council of Baltimore, the Holy See has continued this dispensation for 20 years, from the year 1860, for this Province.

Ember Days.

The Ember-Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the 3d Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the 1st Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 10th of September. They are days of fasting and are of great antiquity in the church. The object of their observance is, to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year, by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on the Ember-Days.

Holydays of Obligation.

1. The Circumcision of our Lord—The Epiphany—The Annunciation of the B. V. Mary—The Ascension of our Lord—Corpus Christi—The Assumption of the B. V. Mary—All Saints—Nativity of our Lord or Christmas.

N. B. Sundays and the feasts which fall on them, are not included in this enumeration.

(In some Dioceses the Circumcision, Epiphany, Annunciation, and Corpus Christi, are not holydays of obligation.)

2. The sanctification of Sundays and holydays of obligation consists, 1st, in abstaining from servile work, from all commerce and manual labor, which is not necessary for the worship of God and the support of life; 2d, in returning to God by penance, cleansing our conscience, receiving the Sacraments, and performing other duties of religion. Among these duties, that of assisting at the holy sacrifice of Mass is the principal, and is binding under pain of mortal sin, unless sickness or some other important reason dispense us from this obligation. Though a person may be said to obey to the letter the precept of the Church, by hearing Mass, it is certainly a great abuse to restrict to this point only, the whole sanctification which the law of God prescribes. To be satisfied with assisting at Low Mass, without performing any other act of religion, as many Christians do, is to go against the spirit of the Church in that particular commandment, to disobey other commandments she has imposed, and not to satisfy the commandments of God.

Liturgical Instruction.

Explanation of the Ornaments and Ceremonies used in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

All the external rites used in the celebration of the holy mysteries are intended for the instruction of the faithful. The chief design of these rites is to commemorate and to represent the passion and death of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. This is plainly to be observed in the altar and its ornaments, as also in the vestments which are worn by the priest.

As to the color of the ornaments with which the priest celebrates the holy mysteries, the White is used on the festivals of our Lord, of the B. Virgin Mary, and of all the saints who are not martyrs.

The Red is used on Pentecost, on the Finding and Exaltation of the Cross, and on the Feasts of the Apostles and Martyrs.

The Purple or Violet, which is the penitential color, is used on all the Sundays and Ferias of Advent, and during the whole of the penitential time from Septuagesima Sunday till Easter; as also on all Vigils, Ember-Days, and Rogation Days, when the office is of them.

The Green is used on all Sundays and Ferias from Trinity Sunday to Advent exclusively, and from the octave of the Epiphany to Septuagesima Sunday exclusively, when the office is of the Sunday. In the Paschal time, the White is used.

The Black is used on Good Friday, and in Masses of Requiem for the dead; which may be said on any day that is not a Sunday or a double, except from Palm Sunday to Low Sunday, and during the Octaves of Christmas, of the Epiphany, of Pentecost, and of Corpus Christi.

Explanation of the Calendar.

Ap. signifies Apostle—App. Apostles—M. Martyr—MM. Martyrs—P. Pope—B. Bishop—C. Confessor—D. Doctor—Ab. Abbot—V. Virgin—Wid. Widow—SS. Saints—D. M. Days of the Month—D. W. Days of the Week—† marks the days of indulgence—hy. ch. means the change in the hymn Iste Confessor.

The prayers and portions of the Holy Scriptures of which the Mass is composed, are in part the same, and partly different every day. Those fixed are contained in the Ordinary of the Mass, at the beginning of the Missal. The parts changeable or proper are—the Introit, Collect, Gradual, Tract, Epistle, Gospel, Offertory, Secret, Communion, and Post-communions—and form the subsequent contents of the book. As the Prefaces are not so frequently subject to change, they follow each other in regular succession in the Ordinary of the Mass.

If a double fall on a Sunday, then the Mass of the double is said instead of that of the Sunday, unless it be a privileged Sunday, such as the first Sunday of Advent or Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Pentecost, and Trinity Sundays, which are never superseded. The Sundays of the second class, which cannot be superseded except by doubles of the first class, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent, Septuagesima, Sexagesima, and Quinquagesima; as also the second, third, and fourth of Lent. It must, however, be remarked that the gospels of Sundays thus superseded by doubles are never omitted, but are recited at the end of the Mass, instead of St. John's gospel; and also that a commemoration of the Sunday, by its proper collect, secret, and post-communion, is always made immediately after the collect, &c., of the festival.

As it sometimes happens that a double is transferred to some future vacant day, on account of the octave of some festival of higher rank intervening, then the difficulty of finding out the day on which such transferred festival is celebrated, as well as the other principal difficulties regarding the service, may be easily removed by consulting the following DIRECTORY, as a guide to the morning as well as the evening service of the Church:

1. The office of every day is either double, semi-double, simple, or feria.

Of doubles (so called because the anthems are repeated entire, both before and after the psalms) some are of the first class, marked thus in the calendar: 1st cl.; others of the second class, and are marked thus: 2d cl.; others are greater doubles, marked gr. d.; others common doubles, marked d.

2. Doubles are kept on the day marked in the calendar, unless they fall on some Sunday of the first or second class, some privileged feria, or with certain octaves which take the place of the festivals; in which case they are transferred to the first day not marked either as a double or a semi-double.

Doub. 1st cl. denotes a great solemnity; doub. 2d cl. a less solemnity; greater double marks the feast to be of higher rite than a common double; double is the common and general rank of saints; semi-double is less than a double; simple shows the feast to be of the lowest rite; feria, is a week day having no feast; great fer. are weeks in Lent, Advent, &c.; Vig. vigil, is the eve of a great solemnity.

The Sundays of the 1st class which take place of all doubles are—

The first Sunday of Advent, first Sunday of Lent, Passion, Palm, Easter, Low, Whit and Trinity Sundays.

The Sundays of the second class which take place, also, of all doubles except those of the first class, and of which, in that case, a commemoration is made at Mass and in both Vespers, are the second, third, and fourth of Advent; sexagesima, and quinquagesima, the second, third, and fourth of Lent.

The ferias, which enjoy the same privileges as Sundays of the first class, are Ash-Wednesday, All Holy Week, Whitsun Eve, the whole octaves of Easter and Whitsuntide.

In like manner within the octave of Epiphany, no feast less than a first class can be kept.

On all other Sundays of the year, if a double occur, it is kept with a commemoration of the Sunday at Mass, and at Vespers also, except the following day be a feast of the first class.

3. A semi-double (so called because only a part of the anthem is said before each psalm) is marked in the calendar thus: d., and occurring on any Sunday whatsoever, is put off to the first vacant day that is, the first day on which there is neither double nor semi-double marked in the calendar. The same is to be observed of all semi-doubles occurring within the octave of Corpus Christi.

4. Simples are never transferred; but if they fall on Sunday, or on any other day when the office cannot be said of them, a commemoration is made of the first vespers, and at Mass; unless it be a feast of the first class, (on which no notice is taken of simples,) or of the second class, in which case a commemoration of them is made in the Lauds, and at a low private Mass only.

5. The following ferias, called greater ferias, take place of all simples of which there is only a commemoration made at Mass, viz: the ferias of Advent and of Lent, the Ember-Days, and Tuesdays in Rogation Week. A commemoration is also made of the ferias of Advent, Lent, at Vespers and Mass, whatever feast happens; but of the Ember-Days and Tuesday in Rogation Week, only at Mass.

6. If a vigil occur on a feast of the first class, there is no commemoration made of it.

If a festival, that has a vigil, fall on a Monday, the Mass of the vigil is said on the foregoing Saturday, except the vigil of Christmas and of Epiphany.

If a vigil happen in Advent, the Mass is of the vigil, with a commemoration of the feria, except the vigil of Christmas.

If a vigil happen in Lent, or on an ember-day, the Mass is of the feria, with a commemoration of the vigil.

In the paschal time there is no office of vigil, except that of Ascension Eve, which, however, is no fast.

7. When several festivals have been translated from their proper days, they are afterwards to be kept in this order: first, those that are doubles, and then those that are semi-doubles; and among the doubles or semi-doubles, those whose proper days first occurred are to be kept first.

8. Coll. or Collect, signifies the oration or prayer. Upon all doubles one collect, secret or post-communion, only, is said; except they fall on a Sunday, or within the same octave, or upon some vigil, or in the time of Lent or Advent, or except it occurs with some simple; in all such cases, two collects, &c., are said; one of the double, the other of the Sunday, octave, &c.

Upon Sundays, and all semi-doubles, are said three collects, secrets or post-communions; excepting Sundays which occur within an octave, on which are said two collects, &c., one of the Sunday, the other of the octave.

The second and third collects, secrets, and post-communions, to be said on Sundays and semi-doubles in the different seasons of the year, are specified in their proper places.

Upon semi-doubles occurring within octaves, or on vigils, &c., the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are a commemoration of the octave or vigil; and the third of the B. V. M., but within the octaves of the Blessed Virgin, the third is of the Holy Ghost.

On semi-doubles in Advent, the second collect, secret, and post-communion, are the collect, &c., of the foregoing Sunday; the third of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Upon simples and ferias three collects, &c., are said; but if the priest please he may say in addition others, to be taken out of the divers prayers in the common.

9. When the bishop of a diocese appoints a collect to be said at Mass, it is to be placed after the collects of the day, and cannot be substituted for the collect which is marked ad lib. This prayer prescribed by the bishop, is said at all Masses, except that of the first class, and conventual and high Mass of second class; at low Mass of 2 cl. it may be said or omitted. It is omitted also on Christmas Eve, Vigil of Pentecost, Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and Holy Saturday.

10. Upon week days which have no proper office, nor any saint's day occurring thereon, the Mass is of the foregoing Sundays.

11. Upon days within octaves, when no proper Mass is assigned, the Mass is said as on the feast, with three collects, &c. N. B.—The days within octaves are kept as semi-doubles only.

12. The collect of the B. V. M., within octaves on vigils and on semi-doubles within paschal time, is found in the votive Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from Advent to Christmas the collect of the B. V. M. is read in the Mass of first Sunday of Advent, from Christmas to Candlemas the collect of the Blessed Virgin, as in the Mass of the Circumcision.

13. The Collects for Church and Pope are seen in the Mass of the first Sunday of Advent. One only of them is recited at the choice of the priest, generally they are said in turn, when mentioned in the Directory. The Collect of the Pope is said on the anniversary days of his creation and coronation; the creation here signifies his election to the sovereign Pontificate.

14. The words ad lib. signify that one is at liberty to recite any of the occasional collects or prayers, found towards the end of the missal.

15. The Gospels assigned to Sundays are never omitted. Wherefore if a double be kept on a Sunday, at the end of Mass is read the gospel of the Sunday, instead of that of St. John; and the same is observed when a double or semi-double is kept on any day in Lent, or on a vigil or ember-day.

16. The Gloria in excelsis is said at Mass, whenever the Te Deum has been said after Matins; except at Mass on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday, when the Gloria is said though the Te Deum is omitted in the office. The Gloria is omitted in Masses for the dead, in votive Masses, even during the Paschal time or an octave, except in the Mass de B. Maria in Sabbato, or de Angelis, or when the votive Mass is said for an important object or some public affair of the Church, and without the purple vestments.

17. Low Masses votive or of requiem for the dead, cannot be celebrated on Sunday or on a double feast. They are also prohibited from the Vigil of Christmas to the octave-day of the Epiphany inclusively, and on Ash-Wednesday; also, from Palm-Sunday to Low-Sunday inclusively; moreover, from the Vigil of Pentecost to Trinity Sunday included, and during the octave of Corpus Christi.

18. High Masses of requiem for the dead, where the body is not present, are forbidden on double feasts; but where the body is present, they may be celebrated on Sundays (provided the parochial Mass be not omitted) and on doubles, even of the first class, which are not festivals of obligation. But these Masses, even when the body is present, are prohibited on the Nativity, Epiphany, and Ascension of our Lord, Easter-day, Pentecost, Corpus Christi, Assumption of the B. V. Mary, All-Saints, and the three days before Easter; also, on the feast of the principal patron, that of the titular saint, and such festivals as are celebrated with much solemnity.

19. The offices of the Sacred Passion, which are marked for the different Fridays of Lent, are ad libitum; that is, they may be recited by those who wish, but there is no obligation to do so. The same is to be said of the office of the M. Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the Imm. Conception of the B. V. Mary on Saturday, during the year. But if any one of these offices be omitted, the office occurring on the day according to the rubrics, should be recited.

20. In the office of the B. V. Mary and during the octave, the hymns conclude with the strophe, Jesu tibi sit gloria, Qui natus es, &c.; and in the Respons. at Prime, is said Qui natus es, &c., unless otherwise marked. Also, from the first vespers of Christmas to the first vespers of Epiphany, on the feast of the Holy Name of Jesus, and during the octave Corpus Christi. The same is observed in the office of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays, and that of the B. V. Mary on Saturdays, from Complin of the preceding day (if even a commemoration of these offices be made) until None inclusively.

21. The Litany of the Saints, prescribed in the Office, is to be said on the Rogation days, and on the 25th of April, (St. Mark's day,) even though an extraordinary festival occur on any of these days. The usual privilege of anticipating the Lauds does not apply to the recitation of the Litany of the Saints, which must be said on the day for which it is appointed.

ROGATION DAYS.—When the Diocese of Vienne, in the fifth century, had been dreadfully afflicted by incessant earthquakes, incursions of wild beasts, &c., &c., St. Mamertus, its bishop, experienced such happy effects from the public supplications he had appointed for the ceasing of these terrible calamities, that the same pious custom extended itself gradually over the whole Western Church; and hence it is, that on the three days preceding the Feast of the Ascension, the Litanies are sung in solemn procession in Catholic countries, that the wrath of God being appeased by the prayers of his Church, we may avert those punishments which are justly due to our sins.

ST. MARK'S DAY.—A dreadful plague having broken out at Rome, anno 539, which carried off a great number of the people, and among the rest Pope Pelagius, who then sat in St. Peter's Chair, St. Gregory, his successor, appointed public prayers for appeasing the anger of God, the happy effects of which became so evident, by the immediate cessation thereof, that the same pious custom has been ever since continued.

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY INSTITUTIONS.

Residence of the Franciscan Fathers. A community of Reformed Franciscans of the stricter observance have lately established a residence at Teutopolis, Effingham Co., Illinois. They form a branch of the Westphalian Province of this Order. The community consists of three fathers, Very Rev. Damian Hennewig, O.S.F., Sup.; Rev. Servatius Altmicks, O.S.F., Rev. Capistran Zwinge, O.S.F., and four lay brothers.

St. Joseph's Ursuline Convent and Young Ladies' Academy, 6th street, Springfield, Illinois. This house was established 22d August, 1857, by a colony from the well known institute of the Ursuline Nuns, near Fayetteville, Brown Co., Ohio. The community consists of 3 choir, 3 lay sisters, 4 novices, 1 postulant, Mother Mary Joseph Woulfe, Superior. The course of instruction embraces all the branches usually taught in such institutes. Connected with the Academy is a Day and Free School.

Ursuline Convent, Female Academy, Day and Boarding School, Alton, Ill. This institute was founded by a colony from the Ursuline Convent, at St. Louis, and the schools were opened since April last. There are in the community 4 choir sisters, 1 novice, and 4 lay sisters. Mother Josephine Bruiding, Superior. Besides their Academy and Boarding School, in which the higher branches of a finished education are taught, the nuns conduct the parish schools of the congregations at Alton.

Young Ladies' Academy of the Immaculate Conception, Belleville, St. Clair Co., Ill. This new institution under the direction of the poor School Sisters of Notre Dame from Milwaukee was opened on the 5th of October. The community consists of 10 sisters; Sister Jerome, Superior.

Parochial Schools of the Diocese.—There are three schools in Alton, one attached to the Cathedral, and one to St. Mary's Church, and one pay and free school for girls at the convent. In Springfield and Belleville, the schools are conducted in the same manner. Besides these there are catholic schools at Quincy, Teutopolis, Hanover, St. Liborius, St. Marie, Waterloo, Highland, Shoal Creek, Broughtown, Green Creek, Centreville, Columbia, Maskoutah, Fayetteville, and Praire du Long.

Clerical Students.—There are students for the Diocese of Alton, at All Hallows, Ireland; Mt. St. Mary's of the West, Cincinnati; Cape Girardeau, Mo.; Francis of Sales, Milwaukee; St. Thomas, Kentucky. Total number of students, 12.

Religious and Pious Associations.—The Archconfraternity of the Most Holy and Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the conversion of sinners, has been established at SS. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, Alton. It is the wish of the Rt. Rev. Bishop that this confraternity, which since its existence has proved itself so beneficial for the spiritual welfare of congregations, should be organized at all the churches throughout the diocese. Application for faculties could be made to the Rt. Rev. Bishop, who obtained, at his visit to Paris, all the necessary privileges from the venerable founder of the Confraternity. There are also Confraternities of the Holy Rosary, and the Scapular formed in several congregations of this diocese. Besides these, societies for embellishing and furnishing the churches, and for paying the church debts, have been established at many churches in the diocese.

Charitable and Benevolent Societies.—Temperance and Benevolent Society, Alton; Catholic Institute, Springfield; Irish Benevolent Society, Quincy; St. Boniface's Benevolent Society, Quincy; St. Aloysius' Orphan Society, Quincy, etc.

INDIAN MISSIONS.

Rev. F. Pierz is now engaged in establishing some missions amongst the Chippeway Indians, near Mille Lake, Sandy Lake, Beech Lake, etc. These missions promise to be very successful, on account of the good dispositions of these Indians, who have several times expressed their wishes to have some black gowns among them. The same success could be expected among the Sioux, the Assinibaines and the other tribes of this diocese, should some other clergymen come to devote themselves to such missions, and should also any pecuniary means be granted to support them.

INSTITUTIONS.

Order of St. Benedict.—This Order was established in the State of Minnesota, in the year 1856, and chartered by the Legislature in the year 1857; it numbers now seven Fathers, who are all engaged in missions. Very Rev. Benedict Haindl, Prior; Rev. Clement Staub, Rev. Demetrius Marogna, Rev. Cornelius Wittman, Rev. Bruno Riss, Rev. Eberhard Gahr, Rev. Anschar. Frauendorfer. Besides, there are eight lay brothers and two aspirants. The same Fathers also conduct a Preparatory Seminary to train youth for the Priesthood.

Brothers of the Holy Family.—Some brothers of this religious institution, approved by the Holy See, came to St. Paul five years ago, to take charge of the boys' schools, and also to establish a noviciate of their Order, which is calculated to be very useful for these new missions, as according to their constitutions, a single member can be sent alone with a clergyman, as teacher, sacristan and catechist. They have the charge of a numerous free school, and of two select schools in the city of St. Paul. Brother Cyril, Director.

Sisters of St. Joseph.—These Sisters, who are established in this diocese since 1851, number now 18 members and several candidates. They have the charge of an hospital, two academies, and a free school for girls in the city of St. Paul.

St. Joseph's Hospital, at St. Paul, Ramsey Co., 9th street; Sister Seraphine, Superior. This hospital is a four-story stone building, situated on a fine location, given by the Hon. H. M. Rice. It affords room enough for a noviciate for the sisters, and for many patients who are taken care of, at low charges.

St. Joseph's Female Academy, Bench street, St. Paul, Ramsey Co., Sister Blanche, Directress.

St. Mary's Female Academy, at St. Anthony Falls, Hennepin Co., Sister Xavier, Directress.

Convent and Academy of the Benedictine Nuns, at St. Cloud, Stearns Co., Sister Willibalda, Directress. 8 sisters and 3 candidates.

Several pious and charitable associations have been organized in the diocese; amongst them, the Association for the Propagation of the Faith; the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, for the temporal and spiritual relief of the poor; and the Ladies of the Holy Rosary, who endeavor to relieve the poor widows and destitute orphans.

REPORT OF RT. REV. FATHER MARIA EUTRAPIUS, OF LA TRAPPE.

ABBE OF OUR LADY OF LA TRAPPE, OF GETHSEMANI, Near New Haven, Nelson Co., Kentucky.

This community is a branch of Melleray, near Nantes (Loire Inferieure), France, established in 1848, at Gethsemani, 15 miles from Bardstown, and one mile from the railroad between Louisville and Lebanon.

The Trappists Fathers have a free school, where all male children who present themselves are received and instructed without charge.

They are also building a church and monastery, which are far from completion, and are now delayed from want of means.

Notwithstanding their great poverty, they annually support and attend to the spiritual and physical needs of about 20 poor and sick laborers from the public works in the neighborhood.

There are in the Community 62 members; 18 of whom, including 10 priests, belong to the choir; the remaining 44 are lay brothers.

Rt. Rev. Father Maria Eutrapius, Abbot.

Obituary.

"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins."—2 MACCAB. xii, 46.

PRELATES.

May 14th, 1859.—The Right Rev. MICHAEL PORTIER, D. D., Bishop of Mobile, departed this life, after a protracted illness of the dropsy, in the 64th year of his age.

The venerable prelate was born at Montbrison, Department of La Loire, France, in the year 1795. At an early age he emigrated to this country, and was consecrated Bishop of Mobile, at St. Louis, on 5th of November, 1826, and during the December following took charge of his extensive diocese, comprising at that time the States of Alabama and Florida. During the long period of his episcopacy, his labors were unceasing and his zeal unabating in the propagation of our holy faith, especially in that section of the country committed to his spiritual jurisdiction. Not only did he labor to supply the spiritual wants of his flock, but he also labored zealously and successfully in the cause of education. To his untiring exertions the Catholics of Alabama are indebted for the foundation of Spring Hill College, the Convent and Academy of the Visitation at Mobile, and the establishment of the Schools of the Brothers of the Christian Instruction.

The purity of his life, the charity and kindness which he manifested on all occasions, gained him the affection and esteem of both Catholics and Protestants, and caused his death to be regretted by all classes of his fellow citizens, with feelings of profound sorrow and regret.—May he rest in peace.

Oct. 7. Rev. Patrick Kelly, of the Diocese of Detroit, in the 66th year of his age. The venerable deceased was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland, and came to this country at an early age. He labored long and zealously on the mission, first in New York, and afterwards in Michigan, entering at a time when Catholics were few and the duties of the pioneer Priest arduous in the extreme.

Oct. 27. Rev. James Reynolds, at Stanford, Connecticut, of the Diocese of Hartford, aged 46 years.

Nov. 7. Rev. Constantine Piatoni, of the Diocese of Natchez, aged 33 years. The deceased was a native of Lombardy, studied at the Missionary College, at Genoa; and after his ordination, was assigned to the mission of Natchez, where he died eight days after his arrival.

Dec. 3. Rev. John T. Roddan, at the residence of the Bishop of Boston, aged 42 years. The deceased was ordained in Rome in the year 1848, and on his return to America took charge of the church at Quincy. In 1855 he was appointed pastor of St. Vincent's church, in Boston, and in this position he remained until his death. He was remarkable through life for an unvarying cheerfulness of disposition, a kindly manner, which no offence could change; a childlike docility towards superiors, an humble opinion of his own worth, a fund of faith and hope, which upheld him in many a trying hour, and became his solace and strength as he felt the approach of death.

Dec. 17. Rev. M. Dillon, of the Diocese of Chicago, at Peoria, Illinois.

Dec. 17. Rev. Lawrence Lautishar, of the Diocese of St. Paul. The lamented deceased was frozen to death on Red Lake, while going to discharge his missionary labors.

Dec. 20. Rev. Miles McEnteer, of the Diocese of Albany.

Jan. 2. Rev. Patrick Hooke, of the Diocese of Savannah, in 25th year of his age.

Jan. 9. Rev. Peter McCarron, of the Diocese of New York, in the 34th year of his age.

Jan. 13. Rev. John C. Flanigan, of the Diocese of Philadelphia, at Colrane, Ireland, in the 54th year of his age.

Jan. —. Rev. J. J. Buyseh, at Jefferson city, Diocese of New Orleans.

February 11. Rev. P. D. Noon, at St. Joseph's College, Perry Co., Ohio, Diocese of Cincinnati.

Feb. 19. Rev. Austin F. Grogan, at Urbana, Ohio, Diocese of Cincinnati, aged 46 years.

March 8. Rev. Henry Turpin, of the Diocese of Boston.

March 25. Rev. John Reis, of Collinsville, Illinois, in the 30th year of his age. He was a native of the Grand Duchy of Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, and ordained by the Most Rev. Archbishop of St. Louis. He exercised the ministry first at Merrimac River, Missouri, and afterwards had charge, for a time, of St. Boniface's congregation, Quincy, from whence he was removed to Collinsville, Madison Co.

April 17. Rev. Peter De Vas, of the Diocese of San Francisco, aged 62 years. The deceased was a native of Belgium, and was distinguished for his great zeal and purity of life.

April 24. Rev. Michael Heas, of the Diocese of Albany.

May 8. Rev. E. Dupuy, of the Diocese of New Orleans, aged 58 years.

May 10. Rev. Thomas Martin, pastor of St. James' church, N. York city.

May 14. Rev. Chas. McEnroe, of the Diocese of Philadelphia, aged 31 yrs.

May 28. Rev. Rudolphus Follenies, of the Diocese of Buffalo.

June 4. Rev. Francis X. Treier, of the Diocese of Philadelphia, in the 55th year of his age.

June 6. Rev. Hippolyte De Neckere, S.J., of the Diocese of Baltimore, in the 41st year of his age.

June 20. Rev. Thos. McCullough, of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

June 29. Rev. P. Mange, of Washington, Iowa. The lamented deceased was drowned in crossing Crooked Creek, while going to Mt. Pleasant, in the discharge of his missionary duties.

July 4. Rev. J. M. Lefranc, of the Diocese of New Orleans, aged 55 yrs.

July 10. Rev. F. Grummer, of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

July 14. Rev. C. D. Bache, of the Diocese of Milwaukee, aged 37 years.

July 22. Rev. Ulrich Spottl, at the Benedictine Monastery, Butler Co. Pa., in the 27th year of his age.

July 25. Rev. C. H. Schultes, pastor of St. Ann's church, Jennings Co. Indiana, in the 40th year of his age.

Aug. 6. Rev. Father Gleizal, at the University of St. Louis, Mo.

Aug. 15. Rev. Stanislaus Maragliano, of the Diocese of New Orleans, aged 42 years.

Sept. 1. Rev. John B. Menaner, at Rochester, New York, in the 66th year of his age.

Sept. 21. Rev. Henry E. S. Henniss, pastor of St. Mary's church, New Bedford, at his residence in that city, aged 37 years. Rev. Mr. Henniss, after a course of classical studies in St. Mary's College, Baltimore, finished his theological studies at the Sulpician Seminary, in Montreal.—Ordained in December, 1852, for the diocese of Boston, he was for two years the assistant of the late Rev. James Conway, of Salem. For the last five years of his life he was pastor of New Bedford, where his virtue and talents endeared him not only to his own flock but to citizens of all classes. His death was a cause of sorrow to all but himself. His last moments were such as might be expected from a life well spent.

Sept. 25. Rev. Edward Purcell, of the Diocese of Milwaukee, in the 40th year of his age.

Sept. 27. Rev. Constance Weber, of the Diocese of Albany.

Oct. 3. Rev. V. da Ormea, of the Diocese of Buffalo, aged 40 years.

Oct. 5. Rev. Nicholas Perrin, in the 61st year of his age. He was a native of Loraine, France, and had been for several years pastor of Kaskaskia, where, after receiving all the consolations of our holy religion, he departed this life.

Oct. 15. Rev. M. Gabriel Lockhart, at Bethlehem, Stock Co., Ohio. The deceased was a native of Alsac, and had not yet completed his first year in America.

Oct. —. Rev. John McGuigan, S. J., at Worcester, Mass., Diocese of Boston.

Oct. —. Rev. P. Grace, of the Diocese of St. Louis.

Oct. —. Rev. P. Behan, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Diocese of Little Rock.

— Rev. Matthew Dillon, of the Chicago Diocese.

— Rev. Patrick Gaffney, " "

— Rev. James Moran, " "

— Rev. John Ingoldsby, " "

— Rev. Joseph Patschowski, S. J., of the St. Louis Diocese.

May they rest in peace.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

Churches.—From the foregoing Summary, which we have compiled from the Reports received from the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Bishops, it appears that there are at present in the United States 2,385 Churches, and 1,128 Stations and Chapels, making an aggregate of 3,513 places of Catholic worship.

Priests.—There are 2,235 Priests, according to the reports of the present year, showing an increase of 127 over the number of last year.

Colleges and Academies.—There are 89 Colleges and Male Academies, and 202 Female Academies and Boarding Schools, making an aggregate of 291 Educational Institutions of the higher class, and conducted, for the most part, by members of the various religious orders. We regret that the average number of pupils in each has not been generally furnished, an omission which prevents us from giving the aggregate of the whole number of pupils taught. If, however, we may judge from the average number in attendance at those Institutions which have supplied us with accurate information on this point, we may safely conclude that the above 291 Institutions impart instruction to an aggregate of at least 30,000 pupils. In this enumeration of institutions is not included a large class of Colleges and Academies under Catholic patronage, but not under the management of the Clergy or the members of Religious Orders.

Parochial Schools.—There are in the several Dioceses 472 Parish Schools, mostly free, which impart instruction to upwards of 86,000 pupils. The number of schools, as well as the number of pupils, is far short of the proper estimate. In many instances these schools are alluded to in general terms, without giving any data from which we might arrive at the number of the schools, or the aggregate number of pupils.

Libraries.—It is a source of much regret that we have received so little information on this subject. The Reports from the Literary Institutions, with few exceptions, are silent on this point, although we are well aware that in most of the male institutions there is either a "College" or "Students" Library. How far this extends to female institutions we are unable to say, but we believe that nearly all are supplied with libraries. Had we been furnished with the number, together with the number of volumes in each, it would supply information of deep interest as connected with the patronage which Catholics of this country extend to literature. We respectfully invite attention to this subject in future.

The number of Libraries reported is less than ten, and in these few there are upwards of 27,000 volumes.

Orphan Asylums.—It will be seen, by examining the several reports, that there are 102 Orphan Asylums, containing 8,339 orphans. This vast number of destitute children are not only provided with food and clothing, but also instructed in all the more useful branches of an English education, thus adding materially to the number of those who receive the bounty of gratuitous instruction from the hand of Catholic charity.

Other Charitable Institutions.—In addition to the Orphan Asylums, there are 81 other Charitable Institutions, among which are 25 Hospitals, 10 Houses of Industry, or Industrial Schools, 5 Houses of the Good Shepherd, or Magdalen Asylums, and 3 Widows' Homes. We are unable to give the aggregate number of the inmates of these Institutions, as we have not been furnished with them, except in a few instances.

Catholic Population.—In regard to the Catholic Population, we are unable to furnish any thing satisfactorily. Twenty-six of the Dioceses have supplied us with an estimate of the Catholic Population, giving an aggregate of 1,540,000. There are twenty-one Dioceses from which no information on the subject has been received, and among these are several of the largest in point of population. A work recently published in Philadelphia, under the title of "Religious Denominations of the United States," places the Catholic Population in 1858 at 3,177,140. This estimate, though liberal, we believe to be considerably short of the real number. The question, however, must be left in uncertainty, until some general system for gaining the desirable information is adopted. The various methods of arriving at this have been so fully discussed on former occasions, that we deem it unnecessary to say more on the subject than respectfully to invite to it the attention of the Most Rev. and Right Rev. Bishops and Clergy, especially at this time, when the general census of the United States is about to be taken.

AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS ABROAD.

THE AMERICAN COLLEGE, AT ROME.

His present Holiness has purchased a large and convenient house and Church, lately occupied by the Nuns of the Visitation, and presented it to the Bishops of the United States for the Education of Ecclesiastical Students from America. To defray the expenses of fitting up this Institution, and supplying it with the men and the means of success, contributions are now solicited from the Catholics of the United States. Those who can appreciate the importance of this Institution, and who are blessed with the ability to aid its advancement, should communicate immediately with their respective Bishops, so that the American College at Rome may be opened at as early a period as possible.

COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION,

LOUVAIN, BELGIUM.

Continental Students intended for missions in this country, here receive ecclesiastical training.

The Association for the Propagation of the Faith.

ITS ORIGIN AND PLAN OF OPERATION.—This noble Association, so extensive in the sphere of its operation and so serviceable to the cause of religion, was founded at Lyons, in France, so late as the year 1822. Some years previous to this, the Right Rev. Dr. Du Bourg, Bishop of New Orleans, visited his native country to seek assistance for his extensive diocese. There were not, however, any longer in France a wealthy clergy, or a generous nobility to whom the missionary could appeal for aid. Bishop Du Bourg appealed to the poor. A society was formed by a virtuous lady at Lyons, to aid the cause of Catholicity in Louisiana. At first a franc, a little less than twenty cents of our money, was the yearly contribution of its members. The Association gained favor, and rapidly increased. Encouraged by the success that attended the Louisiana society, the same lady founded a similar society in aid of the missions in Asia, and the receipts the first year amounted to 2,000 francs. The experiment having been so successful, it was resolved to extend the original plan, and make the funds of the society applicable, not to a single mission, but the missions of all nations. Accordingly, on the 3d of May, 1822, a few of the most zealous in the cause of the missions met at Lyons, and formed the present association, which is universal in its character, appealing to the charity of the faithful of all countries in behalf of the zealous heralds of the cross, wherever they require the means of continuing or extending their labors.

Scarcely was it established, when it received the approbation and encouragement of the Sovereign Pontiff. Pius VII, as well as his successors, not only encouraged it, but enriched it with many indulgencies. The mandates of upwards of three hundred bishops have exhorted the faithful to contribute to it; by his Encyclical Letter of the 15th of August, 1840, His Holiness Gregory XVI solemnly recommended it to the whole Catholic world; and by his Encyclical Letter of the 21st of November, 1851, the present Sovereign Pontiff, Pius IX, placed it under the special protection of the bishops of Christendom, and made the giving of alms towards the object of the association, one of the special conditions for gaining the privileges of the Jubilee.

To become a member of the Association two conditions only are required;—1st. To recite daily, for the object of the Association, the Our Father and Hail Mary of the morning, or evening prayers, and add on each occasion the following invocation: "ST. FRANCIS XAVIER, PRAY FOR US." 2d. To contribute to the cause of the missions one cent per week. To pray for the conversion of the heathen and those who are strangers to our holy faith is within the power of all, and surely there are few, very few, who cannot comply with the second requisition. It only wants the will. So few and so light are the conditions required by this Association, that it is a matter of surprise that any Catholic could be found whose name is not enrolled among its members.

ITS PLAN OF OPERATION.—The decimal system is adopted in collecting the contributions; that is, one person in every ten receives the contributions of the others, and remits them, together with his own, to another member of the Association, who has ten similar collections to receive, or the alms of one hundred persons. The latter collector, in his turn, hands over these collections to a third, who receives ten contributions of the same value, that is, the alms of one thousand persons. There is thus no need of any assembly of the members. Two councils, one at Lyons, the other at Paris, divide the sums collected among the different missions; the functions of the members of these Councils are exercised gratuitously. An account of the receipts and disbursements is published every year, in which a statement is made of the sums sent to each mission, and the name of the bishop given by whom they have been received; no other good work can, therefore, offer more perfect security. The letters of the Missioners are collected in a pamphlet, a copy of which is distributed monthly to every collector of ten contributions, and he is expected to lend it in succession to each of the other members, after which it becomes his property. The number of the Annals printed in all the languages of Europe, and thus distributed monthly, amounts, on every occasion, to upwards of 204,950, as follows:—French 127,000; English 20,000; German 20,500; Spanish 1,750; Flemish 500; Italian 25,000; Portuguese 2,500; Dutch 2,000; Polish 500.

Colleges and Academies.

St. Charles's College,

(PETIT-SEMINAIRE OF ST. SULPICE,)

NEAR ELLICOTT'S MILLS, MARYLAND.

This Institution, pleasantly situated in a retired and healthy part of Howard County, Md., and founded by the venerable Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, is intended to give a Religious and Clerical Education to that class of youth, exclusively, whose inclination, talents and piety, give sufficient indications of a vocation to the ecclesiastical state. These indications are left to the decision of their Confessor, whose recommendation is required before they can be received. No one admitted under 14 years of age.

STUDIES.—The course of Instruction is a full classical one, embracing all the branches preparatory to the higher ecclesiastical studies, including Church and Bible Histories, Christian Doctrine, Plain chant, and Religious Ceremonies; also, French and German.

TERMS, &c.—The terms for Board, Tuition, Bed and Bedding, Washing and Mending, and Stationery, per year, $100, payable invariably half-yearly in advance.

The scholastic year begins on the first Monday in September. All applications should be in writing, or otherwise, to the President of St. Charles's College. Number of students 104.

Preparatory Seminary of St. Thomas,

NEAR BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY.

The object of this Institution, conducted by clergymen of the Diocese of Louisville, is to afford to such youths as feel inclined for the Ecclesiastical State, an opportunity to ascertain and pursue their vocation. The Most Rev. Archbishop, and the Right Rev. Bishop of the Province of Cincinnati, when assembled in Council, in May, 1854, adopted it as the Preparatory Seminary for the whole Province. It is therefore under their special patronage.

The Course of Studies embraces Latin, Greek, English, German, French, Mathematics, Mental and Natural Philosophy.

TERMS.—Board and Tuition, including Books, Stationery, &c., per session of 10 months, payable in advance..... $85 00

Applicants received from any part of the Union No. of Students, 52.

F. CHAMBIGE, Superior.

Ecclesiastical Seminary of Our Lady of Angels,

NIAGARA COUNTY, NEW YORK.

Conducted by the Priests of the Mission of St. Vincent de Paul.

This Institution is situated in one of the most healthy and delightful locations in this country. It stands on an eminence over the Niagara river, and enjoys a sublime view of the varied scenery of its rapids—its mountain banks—Brock's monument on Queenstown heights—Lewistown Suspension Bridge—Lake Ontario, and the surrounding country. It is about one mile and a half from the great Suspension Bridge, and three miles from Niagara Falls, which are heard in the distance.

The Seminary possesses three hundred acres of valuable land, irrigated with several springs, which also, afford a bathing pond of the purest water. The studies pursued at the Seminary are Ecclesiastical, Classical, Scientific, and Commercial. Age of the admittance into the Ecclesiastical department, over fourteen years. Younger boys of good Catholic parents are received, and trained amongst the ecclesiastical students. A matron is charged with the care of their clothes, &c.

St. Mary's Seminary, Perryville, Perry Co., Mo.

This institution under the charge of the Fathers of the Congregation of the Mission, is situated twelve miles from the Mississippi river, and intended for the education of aspirants to the Ecclesiastical State. The course of studies is thorough and extensive in the classical, commercial and scientific departments, designed to prepare the pupils for the higher branches of Ecclesiastical studies, also qualify them for secular pursuits, should such afterwards be deemed their calling. Age of admittance 14 years. Every student is required to have a letter of recommendation from the Most Rev. Archbishop of the Diocese, his own Bishop or pastor, unless personally known to the Superior or Directors.

Terms.—For board, tuition, washing and mending, bed and bedding and medical attendance, $125 per scholastic year, half-yearly payments invariably in advance. No student received for less than half a year, and no deduction made for removal except in cases of protracted sickness or dismissal.

A select number of Catholic boys under the age of 14 years, who exhibit good tractable dispositions, are admitted and trained as Ecclesiastical Students, their studies being adapted to their age, their peculiar wants and the desire of parents and guardians receiving special attention. Terms for these, $150 per scholastic year. Clothing, books and stationary in all cases form an extra charge.

St. Vincent's Ecclesiastical College,

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MISSOURI.

This institution, chartered by the Legislature of the State of Missouri, in the year 1843, and since in successful operation as a secular college, is now under the auspices, with the entire approval and liberal patronage of our Most Rev. Archbishop and the Rt. Rev. Suffragans of the archdiocese of St. Louis, appropriated to the education of Ecclesiastical Students. The establishment in the West of a college in which candidates for the sacred ministry may receive a suitable priestly training, and pursue a course of studies at once solid, practical, and sufficiently comprehensive, undertaken at the express wish of the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy, cannot fail to enlist the sympathies of the Catholic public, and meet with encouragement and support from all, both Clergy and Laity, who have the interests of our holy religion at heart. The full course of studies embraces six years—the two first years devoted to English Rhetoric, the higher Classical authors, Mathematics and Physics; one year of Logic and Metaphysics and three years of Theology.

Applicants for admission must on examination, prove themselves capable of entering on the studies appointed for the first year, and may be promoted to the second or third year's course, according as found qualified.

TERMS.—For board and tuition in all the branches, stationery, washing and mending of things washed, medicines and medical attendance, payable half-yearly in advance. $125 per annum.

St. Stanislas' Preparatory College,

WHITE SULPHUR P. O., SCOTT COUNTY, KY.

This Institution, beautifully situated on a farm of 200 acres, is destined for the training and education of Catholic Boys, from the age of eight to twelve. Experience has shown that the mixture in our Colleges, of boys of every age and size, is more or less injurious to the younger portion. The Directors of St. Stanislas' College are not ambitious of having a crowded house—they do not wish to receive boys who are incorrigible at home—they wish to have good children, and they pledge themselves to return them to their parents improved in virtue and learning.

All the branches of a thorough English and classical education will be taught, so far as the age and capacity of the boys require.

Terms.—Board and tuition, in all the branches taught, including

French and German, per session of 10½ months. $100 00

Washing and mending of articles washed. 20 00

An additional charge for those who stay at the College during vacation. 20 00

In all cases payments are made semi-annually or quarterly in advance.

The Scholastic year consists of one session, which commences on the first Monday of September, and ends on or about the 15th of July. No student will be admitted for a less time than a full session.

Georgetown College, D. C.

In the year 1785, several gentlemen—the principal of whom was Rev. Jno. Carroll, afterwards the first Archbishop of Baltimore—formed a design of building “An academy at Georgetown, Potomac River, Maryland.” In 1789 the first house was built; in 1792 the schools commenced; and in 1798 we find it styled “The College of Georgetown, Potomac River, State of Maryland.” In 1815 Congress raised it to the rank of an University.

In May, 1851, “The Medical department of Georgetown College” was opened in Washington city, D. C.

The College is situated on the northern bank of the Potomac, and commands a full view of Georgetown, Washington, the Potomac, and a great part of the District of Columbia. Its situation is peculiarly healthy.

The Academic year commences on the first Monday of September, and ends about the middle of July. The Collegiate course of studies occupies, generally, seven years, inclusive of the preparatory classes, which last three years, unless the proficiency of the student authorize an abbreviation of the term.

Preparatory Department.—A large and spacious building has been erected for the accommodation of the younger students. Their dormitory, playgrounds, study-hall, class rooms, &c. &c., are entirely distinct, and officers are especially assigned, to attend them in their pastimes and preside over their studies.

Loyola College,

CALVERT STREET, NEAR MADISON, BALTIMORE, MD.

The course of studies in this Institution is that pursued in other Colleges of the Society of Jesus; and embraces History, Geography, Book-Keeping, the English, French, Latin and Greek Languages and Literature, Rhetoric, Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Logic, Metaphysics and Ethics. During the last year of the course, which is devoted exclusively to Philosophy, none but the Latin Language is spoken in the class of Logic, Metaphysics, and Ethics; the daily Lectures, Recitations, and Discussions, private and public, being in that language.

Catholic Students are carefully and frequently instructed in their holy religion, and are required to practise it. Those who are not Catholics are exempted from attendance at public worship and instruction. The most solicitous attention is paid to the morals of all; and whilst within the College enclosure they are constantly under the watchful eye of one of their Teachers or Prefects. Perfect discipline is strictly but kindly enforced.

Boarders are not received. Students residing in distant parts of the city or its suburbs, may dine at the college, either bringing their dinner, or having it supplied by the College, at an expense of $50 per annum for each student.

The Scholastic year commences on the first Monday of September and ends in July.

TERMS.—Tuition per annum, $60, payable quarterly, the quarter being eleven weeks. Stationary $5 per annum. Fuel during the winter season, $2.

This literary Institution, the oldest establishment of the kind in the State, was founded by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus in 1829, and chartered by an act of the State Legislature in 1832. Favored from its beginning with an extensive patronage from the Western and Southern States and from the West Indies and Mexico, it has progressively improved so as to offer new advantages not surpassed by any Institution of the kind in the West. It is located in a central and airy part of the city of St. Louis. The Mississippi with its tributaries and a system of Railroads diverging from the city in all directions, offer every facility of communication at all seasons of the year.

The Institution possesses a valuable Museum and a complete Philosophical and Chemical apparatus. The library belonging to the institution numbers over 14,000 volumes; whilst the select libraries open to the students, form a collection of over 7,000 volumes.

The scholastic year or session commences on the last Monday in August and ends about the 4th of July.

Mount St. Mary's College,

NEAR EMMITSBURG, MARYLAND.

Mount St. Mary's College is situated at the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains, in Frederick county, Maryland. The site is peculiarly beautiful, healthy and far removed from the distractions and moral dangers of a city.

The Institution was founded by the Rev. John Dubois, afterwards Bishop of New York, and for many years conducted by him and the Rev. Simon Gabriel Bruté, subsequently the First Bishop of Vincennes. It was raised to the rank and invested with the powers and privileges of a College, by the Legislature of Maryland, in the year 1830, under the Presidency of the Rev. John B. Purcel, the present Archbishop of Cincinnati.

Studies commence on the 24th of August, and end on the last Wednesday of June. The studies are divided into two departments; the preparatory lasting from two to three years; and the collegiate, requiring four years. The commencement is held on the last Wednesday in June. Degrees are then conferred and premiums and honors publicly assigned. All who enter the College are required to follow its prescribed course of studies.

During the two last years of the Collegiate course, in addition to Classics, Belles Lettres, Chemistry and the higher Mathematics, particular attention is given to Logic and Metaphysics, and to the study of Ethics, including the fundamental principles of civil, political and international law. Book-keeping may be studied by young men preparing for business; also Civil Engineering, Agricultural and Medical Chemistry, Geology, &c.

St Mary's College, founded by the Rev. Wm. Byrne, under the patronage of the Rt. R.-v. Bishop Flaget and which has been in operation for more than a third of a century, is situated half a mile from St. Mary's Station, on the Lebanon Branch of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. Its location possesses eminently all the advantages that can be desired for an educational institution.

The course of instruction embraces all the branches of a thorough English and commercial education, with the Latin, French and German languages, when required. Particular care will be bestowed on the religious culture of Catholic pupils; and no pains will be spared to prepare Catholic boys for their first Communion, and to train them up to the practices of piety. The studies are conducted in a systematic manner. Strict order and discipline are enforced in every department; and proper means are constantly taken to inspire the students with Christian self-respect, and praiseworthy emulation for their own good standing and success. The Collegiate session is of ten months, from the first Monday in September to the beginning of July. Students can be received for a half session of five months.

Congregation of the Holy Cross.

This new religious order was approved by the Holy See in 1856. It consists of three branches—the Priests, Brothers and Sisters, who were all originally united in one congregation on the model of several other religious communities, and remained so, until the approbation of the church was obtained, when the Holy See directed the two first branches to a more complete fusion: separating at the same time the third branch, which now forms a community distinct in all temporal interests, but where Colleges of the Society are established, the Sisters of the Holy Cross, reside in separate and detached houses, and have the care of the culinary, wardrobe, and infirmary departments.

The Fathers of the congregation are especially consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus—they are exclusively devoted to missions and the education of youth. The brothers consecrated to the Holy Heart of St. Joseph are devoted to manual labor and teaching. They have charge of schools, principally composed of the children of the poor, of Orphan Asylums, and manual labor schools. The congregation have schools, parochial and manual labor, asylums and colleges in various parts of the Union—chiefly in Chicago, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Columbus, O., Toledo, O., Fort Wayne, Michigan city, Baltimore, Washington, &c.

Number of priests, 13; seminarians, 9; brothers professed, 42; novices, 69; postulants, 14.

The provincial establishment at Notre Dame is composed of the University of Notre Dame, and the novitiates of the brothers and priests. The province of Notre Dame comprises all the establishments of the order in the United States, excepting those of Louisiana.

VERY REV. E. SORIN, Provincial.

University of Notre Dame, Chartered, 1844.

The University of Notre Dame, situated in the love'y valley of the St. Joseph's, one mile from South Bend, on the Michigan S. R. R., is easy of access from every part of the Union. The plan of studies embraces a thorough collegiate course; besides advantages for the acquisition of modern languages and music not usually offered in American colleges. A separate course is opened for students destined for commercial or mechanical pursuits.

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Pupils under ten years of age, are placed under the care of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, being in every respect separate from the others.

There are in the college various societies of students, formed for different objects—the St. Aloysius, a literary society; St. Cecilia, a musical association; the Confraternity of the Nocturnal Adoration, and the Arch-Confraternity. There is also a military company, composed of the seniors, who have their regular parades, the arms being furnished by the State.

REV. P. REILLY, President.

St. John's Academy, Alexandria, Va.

This institution, established in 1833, offers peculiar advantages to the Catholics of the Potomac counties of Maryland and Virginia, for the education of their sons and wards, on account of the accessibility and healthfulness of its location. The course of study is that of a high school; lectures on scientific subjects being delivered weekly, and those who are not disposed to send their sons to College, until they can enter a higher department than the Preparatory, will find it adapted to their wants.

The session commences on the first Monday of September, and ends on the first of July.

Board and Tuition, per session, (including extras), $150
 For Circulars apply to RICHARD L. CARNE, JR., Principal.

College of St. Andrew, near Ft. Smith, Ark.

This Institution is under the charge of the clergymen of St. Patrick.—The terms are moderate for boarders and day scholars, and made known by application to the Rev. Thomas Donovan, Vice President and Chaplain. A Society of Christian Brothers has been recently formed on the College grounds, under the direction of a Clergyman.

St. Mary's Boarding School for Boys.

CLEVELAND, (WEST SIDE,) OHIO.

Under the Direction of the Brothers of Mary.

The design of this Institution is to supply a want long felt by the Catholic population of the country, especially those of moderate means. It gives them an opportunity to procure for their sons, at a comparatively trifling expense, a solid moral and intellectual education, such as will fit them for commercial pursuits.

To place the benefits of the Institution within the reach of the greater number, the charge will be only $80 00 per session of ten months, for boarding and tuition, payable in advance; $4 00 for bed and bedding, if furnished by the Institution. Washing, mending and stationeries form extra charges.

The Brothers will take from farmers, in payment for their boys, such product of the farm as can be used in the house.

The first session will commence on the first Monday of September.

REV. L. D WILLIE, President.

House of the Angel Guardian, Boston,

REV. GEO. F. HASKINS, FOUNDER AND RECTOR.

Founded in 1851. Incorporated in 1853.

This Institution is designed as a House for homeless boys, an Asylum for Orphans, a refuge for the well disposed, a Reformatory for the stubborn and vicious, and as a Christian School for all. The present number of boys is 150. Whole number received 1,500. Average age, 12 years.

Attached to the Institution is a boarding house for apprentices and other boys who work for their living. They are also subject to a rule of life, and are obliged to pay all their wages to the Rector, who lays it by for their benefit, charging them $5 00 a month for their Board, lodging, washing, &c.

This is, we believe, the only Institution of the kind upon the Continent of America.

N. B. A house is now in process of erection with ample grounds, which will be capable of receiving and instructing five hundred boys.

COPE'S LINE OF Philadelphia and Liverpool PACKETS,

Sailing from Philadelphia the 25th, and from Liverpool the 12th of every Month,

CONSISTING OF THE SHIPS

TUSCARORA,Capt. Dunlevy.
TONAWANDA,Capt. Julius.
SARANAK,Capt. Rowland.
WYOMING,Capt. Burton.

These Ships were built in Philadelphia for this Line, in the most substantial manner, no expense having been spared to render them unsurpassed as safe, fast sailing, and comfortable conveyances for Passengers.

The forward cabins are handsome and commodious, having private state rooms for families. The between decks, for Steerage Passengers, are large, airy, and well lighted.

The Captains are experienced navigators, kind and attentive to the comfort of their passengers, and skilful Surgeons are engaged to accompany the ships.

Passengers are supplied daily with three quarts of water, and weekly with the following cooked provisions, all of the best quality : 1½ pounds of beef, 1 pound of pork, 3½ pounds of bread, 1 pound of flour, 1½ pounds of oatmeal, 2 pounds of potatoes, 1½ pounds of peas, 1½ pounds of rice, 1 pound of sugar, 2 ounces of tea, 2 ounces of salt, 1 gill of vinegar, ½ ounce of mustard, and ¼ ounce of pepper. Children receive half the above.

This Line of Packets has been maintained regularly for nearly forty years, during which time but one passenger has been lost from accidents of the sea.

Applications by letter will be promptly attended to. Persons at a distance remitting money to pay for passage, will receive the ticket by return mail.

Engagements of passage can be made with the owners,

Hover's First Premium Writing Ink.

MANUFACTURED AND FOR SALE AT THE MANUFACTORY

No. 416 RACE-ST.

PHILADELPHIA,

By JOSEPH E. HOVER, Manufacturer.

As some evidence of the claim to superiority, it is only necessary to state that the American Institute of New York awarded the Manufacturer, for seven successive years the First Premium; and as an evidence of the high estimate in which they held this Ink, a Silver Medal was also awarded.

The Ink has received the high approbation and testimonials of the President of the United States, and heads of the Public Departments, including the Congress of the United States, Patent Office, &c.

The faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, as well as those of many of the Medical and Scientific Institutions of the country, also, have given it their certified sanction.

Those eminent chemists and philosophers, Dr. Hare, of Philadelphia, Dr. Locke, of Cincinnati, and Dr. Jones, of the Patent Office, Washington City, have freely testified to its merits.

Public and private Institutions of learning will find this Ink well adapted to their wants, possessing the qualities of limpidity, durability, and unusual freedom from the tendency to corrode metallic pens.

A trial is only necessary to insure its adoption and use.

LIGHTNING RODS.

To all who intend protecting their property From LIGHTNING, a few facts may not be unwelcome.

THE ELECTRO MAGNET LIGHTNING ROD has been before the public for twenty years; has been the means of saving a vast deal of property and many lives, and has never in a single instance failed to meet the highest expectations of its value. Hundreds of our own citizens can testify from their own knowledge of its ability to protect property in safety; who have been eye witnesses where buildings public and private, churches and school houses, have been saved from destruction—the rod receiving and carrying harmless to the ground, strokes which but for them would have caused the total ruin of the building and all within it.

The superiority of these rods over any others in use, has been testified to by men who have no superiors in general science or in this department. Recommendations to the number of six thousand can be seen at the factory. The United States Patent Office is protected by my Rods, having been selected from all others in use as the best and most reliable. Considering the character and position of the men who have charge of that institution, no higher testimony could be desired.

Persons residing at a distance should be on their guard against a class of swindlers, who by false representations of every description, seek to mislead the purchaser. Where my agents are not personally known as such, the only safe plan is to apply, by letter or otherwise, at the Factory.

Weather Vanes, Cardinal Points, Spire Rods, and all manner of SCROLL and FANCY IRON WORK, to suit all characters of Architecture, got up in the neatest and most durable manner at the lowest cost prices.

VERY INTERESTING TO HOUSEKEEPERS.Warranted a Sure Remedy against putting out the Fire if the Water be Stopped.JAMES INGRAM'S
either WITH or WITHOUT WATER.*

The Subscribers, being for many years much interested in the Range business, have observed that although many improvements have been made in the baking, heating and cooking apartments, (none of which can be made too perfect) no one has ever yet attempted to alter the old style of Water-Back, from which comes most of the evils connected with the Cooking Range.

It is well known, that with the old arrangement, if the water be stopped for any cause, the fire has to be put out, thus causing much trouble, making the Range unfit for use and preventing all cooking, baking, &c.

It may be said, in order to misrepresent it in its baking and cooking arrangements that it is a new device and not tried, but we state it is no new article, only differing from the best Cooking Ranges now in use, in a very simple arrangement to prevent the troubles of breakage and leakage, and especially if the water be stopped for any cause, instead of putting out the fire, any person can move the Water-Back, pipes and connections out of the way, in a moment, (without letting the fire down,) put in a Fire Brick, and use the Range without water.

The Cooking Range ought to be constructed on such a simple and perfect plan that it could be used at all times, and not be dependent for its use for culinary purposes on a supply of water to the Water-Back, because it often occurs that there is not a supply of water, which may be caused by breakage, frost, deficiency of water in the country, repairing the pipes, &c.; and the consequence is well known, that if the range be used without water the water-back is either split or burned out, and a new one has to be put in.

Therefore, after mature deliberation, I have invented—and for which received Letters Patent—a Movable Water-Back, which is a simple and effectual remedy for the evils complained of and allows the Range to be used in a moment with or without water.

We would therefore invite your attention to our Patent Movable Water-Back Cooking Range, which we have got up with a view to durability, to bake and cook in the best manner, to economize in fuel and to remedy all the evils mentioned above, for proof of which we refer to our Circulars for certificates, which might be increased to a large number.

*Circulars will be sent upon application.—EDManufactured and for Sale by J. INGRAM & SON,*334 Fourth Avenue, Cor. of 25th St., NEW YORK.

"WITHOUT SUCTION—WITHOUT PACKING."

This is a new invention, patented 1859. It is a Double acting Force Pump, with but one bore and one piston, working by lever power, and warranted to raise water by one man, 100 feet; and by any ten year old boy, 50 feet; or the money in every case will be refunded. It is the cheapest, the strongest, and the easiest working Pump, in all depths, ever yet invented. Five sizes are made, raising from 6 to 60 gallons per minute. It works by hand, wind, water, or steam, and will not rust nor freeze; iron, rubber or lead pipe can be used.

It also throws water by hose from 30 to 50 feet; forces it up inclined planes or perpendicular heights, to great distances, and by a simple water wheel, horse or wind power, makes a first-rate pump for machinery or irrigation. The prices vary from $15 to $60. The whole construction is very simple, easily understood and can be put in taken out and repaired, by any ordinary laborer. It is now in successful operation in twenty-four States, from Maine to Texas. Every part can be galvanized, including pipe and rods, removing all possibility of rust, or bad taste of water; it is adapted to cisterns, wells, tanks, distilleries, engines, rail roads, machinery &c., &c.—A few notices are appended:

EDNEY'S NEW AMERICAN PUMP.

In our advertising sheet will be found a drawing of this Pump, with Mr. Edney's advertisement. We got one of them from him, which we have put into operation on our farm, and like it so far very much. It brings up a continuous stream of water, with little or no labor to the person working it. If it shall prove durable, (and we see no apparent cause why it should not) it must meet with a ready sale, and speedily grow very popular. The Southern Planter, Richmond, Va.

It appears to possess certain important advantages, particularly in the simplicity of its construction, by which the friction in working and the liability to get out of repair seem to be reduced to a minimum. There are no suction valves nor complicated fittings: neither chains, pulleys, nor guide rods. It is easily arranged for any motive power, and lifts water to any desirable height, without any waste of force. A woman or boy can work it with ease to raise water 60 feet, and a man can raise it 100 feet all day. The curiosity of it is the absence of all contrivances which waste power by increasing friction—the motion going directly from the handle to the valve by simple leverage.—New York Independent.

It is very simple in its construction, and consequently not liable to get out of repair; a boy of ten years of age can work it at 60 feet, and a man at 100 feet. We have seen one in operation, and consequently speak from personal knowledge. They are adapted to almost every purpose where a pump is required, and can be made to flow from five to sixty gallons of water per minute.—New York Day Book.

So easy can it be worked, that any girl or boy ten years old can manage it without the least trouble at 60 or 70 feet, and under 30 feet the working power is scarcely perceptible. At the discharge pipe is a screw to which a hose pipe can be attached, and water can be thrown to a height of from 30 to 40 feet. It does not lose a drop of water, and has no extra appliances from one foot to one hundred feet.—N. Y. Express.

The pump we personally tested, was connected with a pipe 65 feet high, and it required but a very slight exertion with one hand to deliver a stream of water at this height at the rate of eight or ten gallons per minute. A small boy could have done it with ease. In raising water by the same pump to a height of twenty feet, the power required was scarcely appreciable.—Am. Mining Chronicle.

It is easily put up; not liable to get out of repair; and receives the approbation of all who witness its operations. One of these pumps now in use in this vicinity, enables us to state that full confidence can be placed in the statement contained in the advertisement.—Presbyterian Banner and Advocate, Pittsburg, Pa.

Dobb's Ferry, May 7, 1859.

J. M. EDNEY, Esq.—Having had one of your newly invented No. 1 Pumps erected on my employers' grounds at Nints, near Dobb's Ferry, in a well of 67 feet, and having given it several trials of near an hour each, I find it to raise from 8 to 10 gallons per minute, with ease, and to my satisfaction.

These Articles are claimed to be  the BEST MADE, on the following grounds:

- 1st.—That the Maker of them is the only thoroughly Practical Chemist in the Trade, and stands alone as the only Improver of Inks. See London Banker's Magazine for April, 1853, and the GILBERT Prize Essay on Banking, by Granville Sharp.
- 2d.—That he has devoted his exclusive attention to these improvements for upwards of twenty-five years.
- 3d.—That he has made all the valuable improvements in Ink that have been effected during that period, including the invention of Writing Fluids, and the discovery of the solubility of the durable pigment, Prussian Blue.
- 4th.—That his Writing Fluids, and Inks have attained a higher and more widely circulated reputation throughout the commercial world than any others.

WARRANTED PERFECT!!

Single Pens sent by mail, free of postage, with full directions, on receipt of $4 or $5, which write from 6 to 10 hours continuously, according to size. To use as the ordinary pen for dipping—say nothing of the fountain qualities—it is vastly superior. The Trade supplied at a liberal discount.

T. G. STEARNS, Agent, No. 267 Broadway, N. Y.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

It is now nearly four years since I have used the Prince's Protean Fountain Pen, and none other during that time. I have more than once written a page of the Tribune without re-filling my pen. To me it has become one of the necessities of life.—New York, March 14, 1859.

CHAS. E. WILBOUR, Reporter N. Y. Tribune.

I have constantly used Prince's Protean Fountain Pen for upwards of two years, and it has been to me an indispensable article, both at the office desk and during travelling, for the whole of my correspondence.

CALVIN BROWN, U. S. Civil Engineer.

Gosport Navy Yard, Sept. 1857.

I have just returned from a trip of over four months' duration, during which I used no other pen than Prince's Protean Fountain Pen, with which this is written. It answered all the purpose of an inkstand and pen, and was a very great convenience, fully answering my expectations, and I can recommend it to the writing public.—New York, March 4, 1859.

E. C. ESTES, Merchant, 56 Pine st. .

P. H. WATSON, Attorney at Law, Washington, D. C., says they are the best pens he ever used, saving time and giving clearness of manuscript.

I have used Prince's Fountain Pen since early in the year 1855 and take pleasure in certifying to its unrivalled excellence. The purpose of the inventor is answered, enabling me to write for hours without dipping in the ink. The principle is perfect. I use no other pen.

HOWE'S PATENT ELLIPTIC SPRING BED BOTTOM.

Patented 1855.—Improved 1858.

Probably no invention ever before brought to public notice has met with such unbounded success, or been more universally approved and commended, than HOWE'S ELLIPTIC SPRING BED BOTTOM. Its SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, and absolute ECONOMY, to say nothing of the comfort and luxury afforded by its use, renders its adoption by EVERY FAMILY only a question of TIME. But, without further comment of our own, we append extracts from a few of the numerous expressions which the invention is daily eliciting.

It is truly a luxurious article.—U. S. Journal.
Has accomplished the object desired.—Home Journal.
Excels every thing else in that line.—Daily News.
A most invaluable invention.—Times and Messenger.
We have no hesitation in recommending it.—Merchants' Magazine.
It is easy, luxurious, cheap. We speak advisedly.—Atlas.
We know them to be just the thing.—Ohio Farmer.
It is universally admired and applauded.—Commercial Advertiser.
The public are unanimous in its praise.—Baltimore Despatch.
The most meritorious invention ever introduced.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
For sickness it must be invaluable.—Hartford Press.
Economical, and will not get out of repair.—Chicago Journal.
Ranks foremost among modern inventions.—Intelligencer.
Yields to every part of the body.—Valley Farmer.
Commends itself to every lover of easy repose.—N. Y. Evangelist.
Must secure for itself a universal demand.—New-Yorker.
Truly, it is an ease to the weary limb.—Putnam's Magazine.
Can be fitted to any ordinary bedstead.—Spiritual Telegraph.
The greatest of luxuries.—Ladies' Newspaper.

The ELLIPTIC SPRING BED is for sale by all first-class dealers throughout the United States and Canadas, or may be procured direct from the manufacturers in the City of New York. In the latter case, give width of bedstead, and inclose the price of the Springs ($5 for a single bed, and $6 for a double bed), and the order will receive prompt attention. "The fullest confidence may be placed on his representations."—N. Y. Tablet.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS RECEIVED.

From the Mother Superior of the Sienna Convent, Drogheda, Ireland.

"The Piano has given universal satisfaction, the beauty and finish of the workmanship added much value to its fine tone, which some preferred to that of any made in this country (Great Britain and Ireland.) The tone improved daily," &c., &c.

From the Sisters of the Visitation, Brooklyn.

"They keep in tune, and are good toned. We are happy to recommend them as having given us entire satisfaction."

From the Sisters of Charity, Academy of the Holy Cross.

"We take great pleasure in recommending them as equal, if not superior, to those of any other manufacture."

From Hon. I. Sumner, Great Barrington, Mass.

"The Piano purchased of you is adjudged by those who have played upon it as being a good instrument."

From the Hon. W. W. Kingsbury, Towanda, Pa.

VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOKS,

Published by H. COWPERTHWAIT & CO.

PHILADELPHIA,

AND SOLD BY BOOKSELLERS GENERALLY

Warren's Series of School Geographies.

This popular series forms a complete Geographical Course adapted to all grades of schools, and comprises the following three books, namely:

WARREN'S PRIMARY GEOGRAPHY.

Small quarto; 92 pages. Illustrated by 19 colored electrotyped maps, and numerous fine engravings. Retail price 50 cts.

WARREN'S COMMON-SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY.

REVISED EDITION. Royal quarto; 100 pages. Illustrated by 27 colored copper-plate and electrotyped maps, and by many wood engravings. Retail price $1 00.

WARREN'S PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

REVISED EDITION. Royal quarto; 92 Pages. Illustrated by 20 copper-plate maps and charts, and by many fine engravings. Retail price $1 25.

All of the above geographies have recently been thoroughly and carefully revised and corrected up to the present time; and all late important geographical discoveries and changes will be found appropriately noted in the descriptive text, and represented on the accompanying maps.

The success of this series of geographies is believed to be without a parallel in the history of School Book publishing. The Physical Geography was first published in the summer of 1856, the Common School Geography in the autumn of 1857, and the primary in the winter of 1858. Between these dates and the present time, (June, 1859,) more than 130,000 copies of the different numbers have been printed and sold. And this, too, in a period of unexampled business depression, and without any especial effort on the part of the Publishers to bring them to the attention of the public.

The publishers invite attention to the superior manner in which Warren's Geographies are manufactured, a matter of no little importance to the purchaser. The maps and engravings are of the highest order of excellence. The paper on which they are printed is of a very superior quality, and the new method of binding which we have adopted is so strong, that however roughly the book may be handled, great difficulty will be found in pulling it to pieces.

➡ A full description of the series will be forwarded, free of charge, to any teacher or school officer who may favor us with his address.

Copies of either of the Geographies forwarded for examination, by mail, postage paid, on receipt of half the retail price.

➡ Favorable terms given for a first introduction. Please address the Publishers,

Just Issued,
FAMILIAR COMPEND OF GEOLOGY,
With Questions and Answers.

BY MRS. A. M. HILLSIDE.

This valuable TEXT BOOK is intended as an Elementary Work for the FAMILY and RECITATION ROOM. No book in our language is so simple and comprehensive in its design, and occupies so large a share in so small a compass. It makes this beautiful study a pleasure and delight for the young.

The MOST REV. FRANCIS PATRICK KENRICK, Archbishop of Baltimore, Md., thus notices the work :

"The mechanical execution corresponds to the excellence of the plan and details. I have glanced over the whole, and am satisfied that the results of much scientific observation are presented in a manner to attract the attention of the young."

"I have read your work on Geology, and take great pleasure in saying that I regard it as a work of great merit, and admirably adapted for the purposes to which it is designed. It is clear, concise, and in a form at once agreeable and easy of comprehension."

"Being much pleased with the work, we intend introducing it in our Academy."—Academy of Mt. St. Vincent.

This work has been approved and adopted by a large number of Catholic Institutions, and the Publishers are desirous of introducing it in every Institution in this country.

 The most favorable terms given for introduction.

CORNELL'S FIRST STEPS IN GEOGRAPHY.

Child's quarto, with numerous Maps and illustrations; price 25 cents.

THE SERIES CONSISTS OF

THE PRIMARY GEOGRAPHY.

Small 4to. 96 pages; 12 Maps. Price 50 cents.

THE GRAMMAR-SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY.

Large 4to. With numerous Maps and Illustrations. 108 pages. It includes Physical and Descriptive Geography. Price 90 cents.

This work is intended to follow the Primary.

THE HIGH-SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY AND ATLAS.

Geography, large 12mo., 405 pages. Richly Illustrated. Price 75 cents. Atlas, very large 4to. Containing a complete set of Maps for study; also, a set of Reference Maps for family use. Price $1. These volumes are intended for High Schools, Academies, and Seminaries. They cover the whole ground of Mathematical, Physical and Descriptive Geography

(From the Metropolitan, October, 1856.)

"The Geography (High School) possesses many features that must render it popular. It is replete with numerous and very superior wood-cut illustrations, minute and accurate in its details, and free from everything that could give offence to the most sensitive mind. The author seems to have been actuated by a spirit of candor and impartiality, seldom met with in works of this kind.

"The Atlas is superior to any that has fallen under our notice. The mechanical execution is excellent; the delineation of views, lakes, cities, towns, &c., is beautiful and distinct; and what is peculiar to itself, it has two sets of maps, the one for reference, and the other for study. They both seem to have been prepared with the utmost care and based upon the latest and most reliable authorities."

NOW READY,

QUACKENBOS' NATURAL PHILOSOPHY,

For Schools and Academies. 12mo. 456 pages. $1.

The attention of Instructors is asked to this new School Philosophy, by G. P. QUACKENBOS "First Lessons in Composition," "Advanced Composition and Rhetoric," and "Illustrated History of the United States."

It is Illustrated in the most liberal manner, is equally adapted to use with or without apparatus, and is believed to possess superior claims to consideration in point of arrangement, accuracy, elegance of style, general interest and adaptation to the wants of schools. Numerous errors current in the School Philosophies of the day are here corrected, and all recent discoveries in the various branches of the subject are embodied.

 A copy of any of the above works for examination, will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any Teacher or School Officer remitting one half its price.

SPIERS'S

French and English Dictionaries.

Jewett's Spiers's French and English Dictionary, Unabridged,
1002 pages, 8vo. Price $2.50

Jewett's Spiers's French and English Dictionary, School Edition,
716 pages, 12mo. Price $1.50.

By A. SPIERS, Professor of English at the Imperial College of Bonaparte, (Paris,) at the Imperial School of Civil Engineers, &c. Edited and adapted to American use, with the addition of several thousand new words and phrases, by J. L. JEWETT, Editor of Ollendorf's New Method, &c.

Extract from Letter from the Author, dated Paris, Jan., 1857.

"I willingly admit that your editions of both these works are bona fide what they profess to be. * * * In the book entitled 'Spiers's and Surennes's French School Dictionary,' I can see nothing of mine but my name."
(Signed,) A. SPIERS.

In addition to this guaranty of authenticity, which Dr. Spiers gives to these reprints alone, the publishers claim for their editions a fullness, accuracy and completeness not attained in any similar works. By superior typographical arrangement a great increase of matter is afforded in smaller space and at cheaper prices than can be found elsewhere; while by laborious revision and large additions, the English-French part is made of peculiar value.

These Dictionaries are highly ornamented by eminent French Professors and Teachers, among whom are Prof. Louis Fasquelle, Prof. James Ferner, LL.D., University of Toronto; H. B. Verrean, Normal School, Montreal; Prof. Brunner, Cincinnati; Prof. Griennard, do.; Prof. Francois Turner, late of Yale College; and by Instructors in prominent Seminaries and Schools throughout the United States.

Prof. Fasquelle, author of the popular series of text-books bearing his name, says:—

"UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, Feb. 6, 1858.

It gives me great pleasure to see the excellent Dictionaries of Prof. Spiers republished in this country with their original correctness. The American editor, Mr. Jewett, has accomplished his task ably and conscientiously, and the books are truly what the author named them, after old Dr. Montaigne, 'des livres de bonne foi.' The figurative pronunciation added to the School Dictionary is very correct. * * * The additions made in the larger Dictionary are decidedly improvements, which is more than can be said of the changes made in some other French works reproduced in this country. I do not, therefore, hesitate in recommending these books as, in my opinion, the best French and English Dictionaries published in the United States
LOUIS FASQUELLE."

Circulars containing descriptions and further recommendations will be furnished by the publishers.

NEW PUBLISHING ARRANGEMENT.

W. I. POOLEY &amp; CO.,

Having become the New York publishers of

SARGENT'S STANDARD READERS, SPELLERS, &c.

By EPES SARGENT,

Author of "The Standard Speaker," &amp;c.,

Respectfully announce to Booksellers, School Committees, Teachers, &c., that they will furnish the books, in any quantity desired, upon the most reasonable terms. The terms are especially favorable to School Committees for the first introduction of the series.

These new and celebrated Readers are now very generally admitted to be superior to all others in practical value and adaptedness to schools; and they are so well and widely known in almost every town in the Eastern, and to a large extent in the Western and Southern States, that the publishers believe this simple announcement will be sufficient for their purpose.

The series consists of the following books, the three smallest of which are very beautifully illustrated:

The Standard Fifth Reader, 12mo., 480 pages; The Standard Fourth Reader, 12mo., 336 pages; The Standard Third Reader, 12mo., 216 pages; The Standard Second Reader, 16mo., 216 pages; The Standard First Reader, 16mo., 120 pages; The Standard Speller, 12mo., 168 pages; The Smaller Speller, 16mo., 72 pages.

Copies of the Readers will be furnished gratis to School Committees and Teachers, who are desirous of examining the same with a view to introduction into schools, on application to the publisher; or they will be sent to them by mail, prepaid, when the amount of postage is sent in stamps. The postage rates are: On the Fifth Reader, 24 cents; the Fourth, 18 cents; the Third, 15 cents; the Second, 12 cents; and on the First, 9 cents; Standard Speller, 12 cents; Standard Primer, 6 cents; Smaller Standard Speller, 6 cents.

S. S. RANDALL,

Superintendent Public Schools, New York.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Superintendent's Office, No. 146 Grant street, New York.

Sept. 30, 1859.

I have examined Sargent's Series of School Readers, and commend them to the favorable regard of the officers and teachers of schools and seminaries for instruction of every grade. The selections are judicious, and such as are calculated to enlist an interest on the part of the pupils; and they afford some of the finest and most beautiful specimens of elocution in the language.

STANDARD CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS.

The following Prayer Books are printed on good paper, and bound in the most durable and elegant styles:

- St. Joseph's Manual.* Printed with large type, on fine paper, containing 696 pages, 18mo. The merits of this book, among the many which have been published as well in Europe as America, are its peculiar adaptation to the wants of families, or of individuals, for public as well as private devotion; for those who live remote from churches, and cannot be present at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Sundays and Holidays, as for those who enjoy greater privileges. It may be styled a volume of prayer and religious instruction, since it not only contains devotions, public and private, adapted to the wants of the many, and for all seasons and occasions of the ecclesiastical year, but is also explanatory and instructive upon many points where information is frequently sought after. The care and attention which have been given to the distribution of its varied contents, will be equally appreciated by those who have felt the importance of system and arrangement in this particular.....Prices from 50 cts. to $10 00
 Morocco cases, each.....1 00

ANCIENT AND MODERN MUSIC, for the Use of the CATHOLIC CHURCH, arranged for a full Choir, with Organ Accompaniment.

WALTER. $4 00

This popular work, which has run through a great many editions, and has had a more extensive sale than any other collection in the country, contains four grand Masses, of the best authors, besides a large number of other pieces belonging to the Service of the Church. No Choir should be without this valuable work.

THREE AVE MARIAS, for SOPRANO and ALTO.

Composed by.....H. SCHWING. 50

These are beautiful compositions of the Classic School, and will be found highly effective.

AVE VERUM CORPUS, for FOUR VOICES.

Composed at Baden, 1791, by.....MOZART. 30

This popular composition is too well known to require particular description.

AVE VERUM CORPUS, SOPRANO SOLO.....DIELMAN. 15

One of the happiest efforts of Dr. Dielman.

|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|--------------------------|

These are classic compositions by the Chevalier Neukomm, and are among the best of that school. They are adapted to certain of the Holy Days, and should be in the possession of every Choir capable of rendering the higher order of music.

MASS IN C, for FOUR VOICES.....SAM'L WEBBE, SEN. 1 00

One of the most solid compositions of this great old Master.

MASS, for THREE VOICES, by Joachim de Natividad, with an Accompaniment, by.....VINCENT NOVELLO. 1 00

Composed in good style and full of pleasing variety.

MASS, for THREE VOICES, with an Accompaniment by V. Novello.

CASSALI. 100

Well arranged and abounding in good effects.

MASS IN D, for THREE VOICES.....W. C. PETERS. 2 00

The demand for this Mass has been unprecedented, which is a sufficient testimony of its excellence. It combines pleasing melody, correct harmony and easiness of execution, and will be found extremely useful in small Choirs.

MASS, for THREE VOICES.

By DR. HENRY DIELMAN, of Mt. St. Mary's College.....1 50

A capital composition, which has obtained a high degree of favor.

MASS, for THREE VOICES, with an Accompaniment for the Organ, by.....KIENZL. 75

This Mass, originally published under the patronage of the Right Rev. Bishop of Strasbourg, is calculated to supply a great want now felt in Catholic Choirs. It has received the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and is most favorably reported by some of our most eminent Professors of Music as a scientific Mass, very easy of execution.

THE ROMAN VESPERAL, containing the Complete Vespers for the whole year, with Gregorian Chants in Modern Notation. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Various bindings, from.....75 cts. to 3 00

Just published, in a neat 12mo. volume, upwards of 100 pages, price in paper, 25 cents, flexible cloth, 38 cts., full cloth, 50 cents.

The First Book, in Gregorian, or Square Notes, ever printed or published in the United States.

KYRIALE; or, ORDINARY OF MASS; a Complete Liturgical Manual, with Gregorian Chants. For the use of Catholic Choirs and Congregations. Containing the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, etc., according to the different Feasts and Sundays of the year. With an Appendix, including the Hymns, Psalms, Anthems, Litanies and Prayers, for the Exposition, during the Exposition and the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

 The Publishers desire to invite particular attention to this little Work, published at the special request of many of the Rt. Rev. Bishops, and the Rev. Clergy, Superiors of Seminaries, &c.

The Kyriale is intended to provide a complete Liturgical Manual of Gregorian Chants for the Churches, Choirs, and Congregations. It contains all the Chants known as the Ordinary of Mass,—viz: Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, Ite Missa Est, and Benedicamus, Domino. An Appendix has been added, including the Hymns, Psalms, Anthems, Litanies, Prayers for the Exposition, during the Exposition, and at the Benediction of the Most B. S. S.,—that is to say, all the Liturgical prayers which are to be sung during these two great parts of the Divine Service, the Holy Sacrifice of Mass, and the Benediction of the B. S. S. A perusal of the work, and the daily use of it, will give the best idea of the treasures it contains and of the end for which it was composed. Children in the school will find in it the A B C of the ritual sung and the first principles of Gregorian Notation, and by its aid may be easily trained up to Church singing. Members of the Choirs will be enabled to sing according to the rules the Liturgical prayers of the Mass to the sacred tunes of the Catholic Church, &c. It has also the merit of being the first book in square notation, ever printed or published in this country.

Just published, uniform in style and price, with the above. A new revised and enlarged edition of the KYRIALE, &c., (uniform with the above,) with Gregorian Chants in Modern Notation.

 Those remitting the marked price of any piece of Music in the above catalogue, will receive the same free of postage.

Universally esteemed the best collection of Sermons in the English language.

“We know of no language sufficiently forcible in which to urge upon our readers the excellence of ‘The Catholic Pulpit.’ The Sermons contained in it may well compete with the most elaborate productions of Fenelon or Bossuet. Though no Anglo-Saxon, we feel a kind of pride in contemplating the gorgeous form in which the English language can clothe ideas of which the work before us is a standing testimony.”—Toronto Mirror

FATHER FABER'S WORKS—UNIFORM SERIES.

IN 6 VOLS. DEMI 8VO. Cloth, 75—cloth, gilt edges, $1 25 per volume.

Upwards of 30,000 copies of Father Faber's Works have already been sold in this country, and the demand is constantly increasing. Nearly 4,000 copies of his last work, (Spiritual Conferences,) were sold in a few months after publication.

Spiritual Conferences. (Recently Published.)

The Foot of the Cross; or, The Sorrows of Mary.

The Creator and the Creature; or, The Wonders of Divine Love.

Growth in Holiness; or, The Progress of the Spiritual Life.

The Blessed Sacrament; or, The Works and Ways of God.

All for Jesus; or, The Easy Ways of Divine Love.

A New Work by Father Faber will be issued early in 1860.

Few authors in our day have acquired so distinguished a reputation as Father Faber. His works are every where read, and every where admired. In England, the home of the author, it would seem that the old trite saying, "a prophet is not without praise except in his own country," does not hold good in regard to the illustrious Oratorian and his writings. The September number of the Liverpool Catholic Institute Magazine speaks of his works in the following terms:—"It is no slight proof of the correctness of Father Faber's system to find that beyond all question he creates a sensation and a movement among the people, and among all classes of the people. The Oratorian services are thronged, and the earliest masses and the latest confessionals are alike peopled. The works of Father Faber are found where Catholic works never made their way before. You find the blue cover of 'All for Jesus' on every drawing-room table, at the desk of the missionary priest, in the enclosed convent. We have seen it on the shelf of a confectioner's shop; it is known in the workman's cottage. No Young Men's Society is without it. And it is a very suggestive fact, that in one of our principal ecclesiastical seminaries, whose president is much looked up to as a skilled master in spiritual things, there were no fewer than 200 copies of this work to be found."

The distinguishing feature of this New Book of Devotion is, that its forms of Prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction and approval of the Church; which is more than abundantly vouched for, by the Approval and Recommendation with which it has been honored by the learned and venerable Archbishop of Baltimore, whose exactness in such matters is universally known.

A NEW and COMPLETE PRAYER BOOK.

A MANUAL OF CATHOLIC DEVOTIONS, for the Use of the Faithful, who desire to Live Piously and Die Happily.

Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Great care has been taken in the compilation and arrangement of this book, with the view of adapting it to the wants of the faithful, in every condition of life. The Prayers at Mass, Morning and Evening Prayers, &c., are set in a large and distinct type. In the Indulged Prayers, the Authorised English Version of the Racolta, has been strictly followed. The book has been issued in two different sizes, one in 24mo. and one in 18mo.; it is printed on fine paper, and bound in the most substantial and attractive manner, embellished with Fine Engravings, in every variety of Plain, Substantial and Elegant Bindings. This is decidedly the best and cheapest Prayer Book published.

MANUAL OF CATHOLIC DEVOTIONS, a new and beautiful 18mo., of nearly 800 Pages:

This book forms a complete compendium of Catholic Devotion, containing prayers for every state and condition of life, admirably adapted to create and foster a spirit of true piety. The selections are admirable, and while nothing essential has been omitted, everything unsanctioned by the Church has been excluded from its pages. Its intrinsic merits are still further enhanced by the manner in which it is got up and the method observable in its arrangement.—N. Y. Metropolitan Record.

This is an excellent Manual of Devotions.—New York Tablet.

This Manual purports to be an Improvement upon St. Vincent's Manual, more copies of which have been sold than any other prayer book published. The additions place it among the best prayer books in the country.—Boston Pilot.

This new prayer book appears with the approbation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, which is the most ample guarantee that could be desired for the orthodoxy of its contents, and its adaption to the wants of the faithful.—Catholic Mirror.

This is one of the handsomest and most complete Catholic Manuals that we have seen. The engravings are finely executed, and the volume in all its other features does credit to the Baltimore press.—New York Herald.

In this revised edition the form for Baptizing Adults is inserted conformably to the desire of the Holy See, acquiesced in by our Prelates, that it should be used here, as throughout the Church generally, instead of the simple form of Baptizing Children; which has hitherto been used for adults likewise. An interesting Note is inserted, by authority, correcting a mistake which occurred in an official communication regarding the publication of the bans in mixed marriages. This new edition will be required by all the clergy.

THEOLOGIA DOGMATICA, quam concinnavit FRANCISCUS PATRITIUS KENRICK, Archiepiscopus Baltimorensis, Secundis Curis Auctoris. A new revised edition in 3 vols. $6. 8vo. black roan, half calf, $9.

The first edition of the Theologia Dogmatica being exhausted, a revised edition has just been issued from the famous establishment of HANICQ (now Mr. DESSAIN), at Malines, Belgium, in conjunction with MESSRS. MURPHY & CO. The whole work, formerly consisting of four volumes, is now reduced to three, although considerable additions have been made to it; including an Elaborate Defence of the Dogma of the Immaculate Conception, and a Catalogue of the Fathers; and Ecclesiastical Writers, with an accurate discrimination of their genuine works, from others that have passed under their names. The work appears under the especial sanction of the CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF MALINES, who has been pleased to signify a very high estimate of its merits. It is issued in a very neat style, in three volumes, of about 500 page, double column, 8vo., at the very low price of Two Dollars per volume. This edition, though much enlarged, is reduced to Six instead of Ten Dollars—a little more than half the price of the former edition, so as to place it within the reach of Theological Seminaries, Students, &c., to whom a liberal discount will be made when purchased in quantities. MURPHY & CO. PUBLISHERS.

KYRIALE; or, ORDINARY OF MASS. A Complete Liturgical

Manual, with Gregorian Chants. For the use of Catholic Choirs and Congregations. Containing the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, etc., according to the different Feasts and Sundays of the year. With an Appendix, including the Hymns, Psalms, Anthems, Litanies and Prayers, for the Exposition, during the Exposition and the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

¶ The Publishers desire to invite particular attention to this little Work, published at the special request of many of the Rt. Rev. Bishops, and the Rev. Clergy, Superiors of Seminaries, &c.

The Kyriale is intended to provide a complete Liturgical Manual of Gregorian Chants for the Churches, Choirs and Congregations. It contains all the Chants known as the Ordinary of Mass, viz: Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, Agnus Dei, Ite Missa Est, and Benedicamus Domino. An Appendix has been added, including the Hymns, Psalms, Anthems, Litanies, Prayers for the Exposition, during the Exposition, and at the Benediction of the Most B. S. that is to say, all the Liturgical Prayers which are to be sung during these two great parts of the Divine Service, the Holy Sacrifice of Mass, and the Benediction of the B. S. A perusal of the work, and the daily use of it, will give the best idea of the treasures it contains, and of the end for which it was composed. Children in the school will find in it the A B C of the ritual sung and the first principles of Gregorian Notation, and by its aid may be easily trained up to Church singing. Members of the Choirs will be enabled to sing according to the rules the Liturgical prayers of the Mass to the sacred tunes of the Catholic Church, &c. It has also the merit of being the first book in square notation, ever printed or published in this country.

STANDARD SCHOOL BOOKS,

Published by MURPHY & CO. Baltimore.

NEW, IMPROVED and ENLARGED EDITIONS.

A NEW SPELLING BOOK.—The North American Spelling Book, designed for Elementary Instruction in Schools,—being an improvement upon all others.
.....10 cts. ....per doz. 80 cts.

Kerney's Introduction to the Columbian Arithmetic. Thirteenth Revised Edition.....13

Kerney's Columbian Arithmetic. 14th Edition, Revised and Enlarged.....38

Key to Kerney's Columbian Arithmetic, containing the solution of the principal questions.....Just published 31

Mr. Kerney's Arithmetics have already acquired a wide-spread popularity, as attested by the sale of thirteen large editions in a few years. They are books of practical instruction, arranged by a practical teacher of many years experience. The present editions have been carefully revised, and neither pains nor expense will be spared to render them at all times worthy the high reputation already acquired.

The First Class Book of History, designed for pupils commencing the Study of History; with QUESTIONS, adapted to the use of Schools. By M. J. KERNEY, A. M. 12th Revised Edition.....25

A Compendium of Ancient and Modern History, with QUESTIONS, adapted to the use of Schools; also an APPENDIX, containing the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, a Biographical Sketch of Eminent Personages, with a Chronological Table of Remarkable Events, Discoveries, Improvements, etc., from the Creation to the year 1857. By M. J. KERNEY, A. M. 16th Edition, Revised and Enlarged.....12mo. half arabesque 75

The present edition has been carefully Revised and Enlarged by the author. It contains the history of the MEXICAN WAR, together with the IMPORTANT EVENTS in Europe and in our own country, for the last ten years.

A Catechism of Scripture History, compiled by the Sisters of Mercy for the use of Schools. Revised by M. J. Kerney, A. M.....50

In calling attention to Mr. Kerney's Histories, it is deemed unnecessary to enlarge on their respective merits. The author's experience as a teacher for a number of years, enabled him to acquire a practical knowledge of the wants of pupils in pursuing the different branches of learning. The very liberal patronage extended to them, and the favor with which they have been received, especially by many practical Teachers, and their immediate introduction into many of the principal institutions of learning in this country, and even in England, where the Compendium of History has been extensively introduced, are the best evidences of their merits.

An Abridgment of the History of England. By John Lingard, D.D., with a continuation from 1638 to the reign of Queen Victoria, by James Burke, A.B. With Marginal Notes and Questions, adapted to the use of Schools in the United States, by M. J. Kerney, A. M. 3d edition.....1 00

In style without a superior, in truthfulness without an equal, Lingard stands before the Historic student as the Model of what an Historian should be.

An abridgment of Dr. Lingard's great work, adapted to the use of Schools, has been long and anxiously looked for in this country. The publishers take great pleasure in inviting the earnest attention of the conductors of schools, and others interested in the cause of education, to this edition, in which the ipsissima verba of the great Historian have been carefully preserved.

Fredet's Ancient History, from the dispersion of the Sons of Noe to the Battle of Actium, and the change of the Roman Republic into an Empire. 11th edition, Revised and Enlarged—with Questions, adapted to the use of Schools...12mo. 88

Fredet's Modern History, from the coming of Christ and the change of the Roman Republic into an Empire, to the year of our Lord, 1854. 15th edition, Revised and Enlarged—with Questions, adapted to the use of Schools...12mo. 88

The distinguished and wide-spread reputation of the author as an historian and Professor of History in St. Mary's College for twenty years, the universal favor with which these works have been received, and their immediate introduction into many of the principal literary institutions in the United States, and as Text Books in the Irish University, Dublin, preclude the necessity of giving any of the numerous complimentary and flattering testimonials that have been so freely extended to them, both in this country and in England, where they are extensively used.

The present editions have been improved, by the addition of QUESTIONS at the end of each volume; thus adapting them still more to the requirements of the Class Room.

Ruddiman's Rudiments of the Latin Tongue; or a Plain and Easy Introduction to Latin Grammar: wherein the principles of the language are methodically digested, both in the English and Latin. With useful Notes and Observations. The cheapest and best Latin Grammar published.....12mo, half arab. 38

Rudiments of the Greek Language, arranged for the Students of Loyola College, Baltimore,—upon the bases of Wettenhall.....50

This work is intended for the use of beginners, and comprises within a very small space, all that is absolutely necessary for those who wish to study that most perfect of all human languages, as the shortest and readiest way to smooth all their difficulties. It is eminently calculated to lighten the labors of the teacher, and smooth the way of the student.

Murray's English Grammar, adapted to the different classes of learners, with an APPENDIX, containing Rules and Observations for assisting the more advanced students to write with perspicuity and accuracy. By LINDLEY MURRAY. 12mo, half bound .....20

In presenting a new edition of Murray's Grammar, which is universally considered the best extant, we deem it sufficient to state, that the present edition is printed from an entirely new set of plates, and that it has been carefully revised, and free from many of the inaccuracies and blemishes which are to be found in other editions, printed from old stereotype plates. This, together with the very low price affixed to it, are the only claims urged in favor of this edition.

An Abridgment of Murray's English Grammar, with an Appendix, containing Exercises in Orthography, in Parsing, in Syntax, and in Punctuation. Designed for the younger classes of learners.....13

This little Abridgment contains, in a compact and cheap form, a brief outline of the elementary principles of grammar, and is well calculated to impart to children the rules and definitions of the study, without over-burdening their minds.

Kerney's Abridgment of Murray's Grammar.—An Abridgment of Murray's English Grammar and Exercise, designed to Perfect Students in the Knowledge of Grammar, Parsing, and the Principles of Composition. With an APPENDIX, containing Rules for Writing with Perspicuity and Accuracy. By M. J. KERNEY, A. M. 51st Edition, Revised and Improved.....18mo. half bound 13

This Grammar is used in the Public Schools of Baltimore; in the Schools of the Christian Brothers; and in many of the principal Schools and Academies throughout the country.

Murray's English Reader.....new edition 20

Pizarro's Dialogues. Select Original Dialogues, or Spanish and English Conversations; followed by a collection of pieces in prose and verse.....12mo. 75

This new edition of a very popular work, by one of the most distinguished instructors in the country, is greatly improved, and particularly adapted to the present style of teaching and self-improvement. The prior editions have become established as standard in some of the best institutions of the United States, and the present doubles its advantages.

WHAT THE CATHOLIC PRESS SAYS OF IT.

It compares favorably with any prayer-book published in America.
—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

This manual reflects great credit on both the compiler and publisher. It contains over 800 pages of the best selected matter ever put into a prayer-book, while the paper, printing, and binding, are in character with the contents.—N. Y. Tablet.

This is a prayer-book of the largest class, but the cheapest in price, just issued. We observe that those litanies which have been noticed by the most learned of our theologians, have been entirely omitted. This feature will certainly commend it, and we speak for it a liberal share of patronage.—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

From our own experience, we can say there is hardly any work so hard to find as a PRAYER-BOOK, containing the various devotional aids which a Christian requires in daily life. THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM is most satisfactory in this respect. All the principal services of the church, all the ordinary necessities of the Christian, are copiously provided for. The prayers at mass, as well as the preparation for confession and communion, are especially full. The Vespers also form a noteworthy feature of this volume. It includes the proper psalms for every feast in the year, accompanied by its appropriate bar of music, placed neatly and conspicuously over the psalms. In short, THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM is a prayer-book that can be relied upon. It is printed beautifully, carefully, and attractively, is illustrated with well executed and appropriate steel engravings, and is substantially bound in a variety of styles, to suit the means of every Catholic.—N. Y. Truth Teller.

This very excellent compilation includes the gospels and epistles for the year, and various offices, special devotions, and masses, in addition to the usual contents. The book is well printed in large clean type, and will be found a useful companion and guide to the holy temple.

—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

We observe throughout this manual many useful notes and remarks, proofs of the Rev. FATHER JOSLIN's zeal for the interest and welfare of the people entrusted to his care.—Baltimore Metropolitan Magazine.

THE PARADISE OF THE CHRISTIAN SOUL,

Delightful for its Choicest Pleasures of Piety of Every Kind,

BY

JAMES MERLO HORSTIUS,

OF THE CHURCH OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, IN PASCULO PASTORIS, AT COLOGNE.

A new and complete Translation, by lawful authority.

THE PARADISE OF THE CHRISTIAN SOUL, to which access hitherto was only had in the Latin language, is the most complete manual of Catholic devotion, meditation, and instruction, ever published. It contains nearly eleven hundred pages of closely but beautifully printed matter, remarkable for its sweet and fervid piety, and its choice and useful instruction. It is, beyond all other books, a FAMILY PRAYER-BOOK, and a copy of it should be in every Catholic family.

WHAT THE CATHOLIC CLERGY GENERALLY SAY OF THE PARADISE OF THE SOUL.

WHAT THE CATHOLIC PRESS SAYS OF IT.

It contains the most soul-elevating prayers we have ever read.—Catholic Herald.

The principal feature of this book is, that it combines the best characteristics of a prayer and meditation book. We have often seen whole libraries which did not contain so much truth and beauty.—N. Y. Tablet.

THE FLOWERS OF PARADISE.

A most beautiful, complete, and portable prayer-book, compiled from approved sources, and arranged for daily use, with the COLLECTS and GOSPELS for all the Sundays and Festivals throughout the year. By a Sister of Mercy. With the approbation of the Most Rev. J. HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

THE FLOWERS OF PARADISE is a practical prayer-book, well calculated for the constant use of Christians. Scarcely any exercise usually practised by the pious Catholic is omitted, so that although the manual is not large, it contains a great deal. The specimen before us is a beautiful sample of good material and excellent workmanship, in all the branches of industry brought into action in getting it out. Several fine engravings adorn it, and add no little to its general appearance.—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

THE DIAMOND MANUAL.

A beautiful little manual for the pocket, containing all the necessary devotions in the smallest possible space, compiled from approved sources, with the approbation of the Most Rev. J. HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

|                                                                   |           |

We are delighted to see this admirable little life of so exemplary a Catholic of our own times. The subject is one of interest, and the style of the translator is particularly agreeable.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

We have often to commend books with words of praise, since no other would be exactly suitable, although they scarcely merit what the words convey. The present volume is an exception. It is in reality equally interesting and edifying, and forms a most promising commencement of the New Catholic Library commenced by Mr. O'Shea. NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is one of the most delightful little biographies we have ever laid eyes on, and we hope it will find its way into every separate school, and every other Catholic institution in the Province. A life of a Saint of the ancient Coptic Church is a rarity, especially such an extended one as the present. There are two volumes, the one containing 147 pages, and the other 120. It is published by Mr. P. O'Shea, Broadway, New York.—Toronto, Canada, Mirror.

This English version is beautiful and fascinating. It is put forth as a literal one; but while we doubt not that it is an exact reproduction of the original, we can recognize in it none of the dryness or stiffness of style characteristic of proclaimed literal translations. Indeed, we cannot see any noble feature in the English dress of the memoir, that is not to be discerned in the translator's edifying introduction. The artistic and glowing touches of the same evenly guided pen are visible throughout the whole work, and one must be hypercritical to an extreme who fails to observe and appreciate the many charming merits either of the original prefatory remarks of the translator or the translation of the biography itself.

Had we room, we would gladly quote some portions of the work, which seemed to us singularly beautiful and entertaining. However, we are obliged to content ourselves with what we have said in favor of the publication, and again recommending it to the notice of every thoughtful Catholic reader.—N. Y. Truth Teller.

The Rev. Father Walworth, in his Introduction, says:

"Of Meditation Books we know of none which seem to fulfil their purpose, except this work of FATHER CRASSET. * * * We repeat once more, for those who aspire, not simply to read Meditations, but to practice Mental Prayer, this work of FATHER CRASSET is the Book of Books."

NOTICES OF THE PRESS ON CRASSET'S MEDITATIONS.

These Meditations, perhaps the most popular and celebrated of any in Europe, rich in matter and well arranged in form, should be hailed with pleasure by English-speaking Catholics. It is no common book of meditations, and should receive no common welcome. Mrs. Dorsey is esteemed as a translator, and has no doubt done her duty well. Mr. O'Shea has had the book well printed and on good paper.—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

The best of meditation books.—N. Y. Tablet.

Many of the meditation books that are to be found in the book-shops are mere books of spiritual reading, all the points in them being elaborated to such an extent as to leave nothing to the mind of the mediator to work out. Others err in the opposite direction, and are mere bald collections of heads of topics for meditation. Father Crasset's work is free from both of these objections. It is eminently suggestive and practical. For people living in the world it is the best manual of meditation that we know of.—Boston Pilot.

Crasset's Meditations, translated by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey, is an almost necessary book, for no one book of Meditations can supply the varied demand of those who cultivate mental prayer. We have now two solid, excellent works—Challoner's and Crasset's. In spite of our familiarity with the former and our reverence for its sterling worth, we are almost forced to admit that for ordinary meditation Crasset is the book of books. It will bear comparison with the highest standards of piety. We wish it the widest circulation, for it will prove a spiritual treasure wherever its use obtains.—Catholic Mirror.

LOVE OF GOD.

BY

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES.

A NEW TRANSLATION.

1 Vol., large 12mo., over 600 pp., Cloth. Price $1 25.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

We have before us a new translation of that sublime and beautiful treatise on the Love of God by St. Francis de Sales. We have taken some pains to examine into the excellences which should characterize a new translation of such a work, and the ease and beauty of diction, together with the idiomatic correctness of expression throughout, are such as to enable us to give a most favorable notice of the rendering of this beautiful treatise.—Philadelphia Catholic Herald.

To those who have read the "Devout Life" it will be only necessary to say of the style of this treatise, that its beauties are those with which they are already familiar; but there is a depth of thought and of feeling here beyond what we find in any other writings of St. Francis. The translation is very creditable. We hope this work will meet with the circulation which it well merits, and of which the present excellent edition seems to promise assurance.—Baltimore Catholic Mirror.

This handsome volume is a valuable addition to the ascetic literature of the English language. It is a mine of rich thought concerning that virtue which was the distinguishing characteristic of its author. It appears to have been carefully translated, and to give the name of its publisher is equivalent to saying that it is a creditable specimen of book-making.—Boston Pilot.

Of the work itself it would be superfluous to speak—a work which is remarkable alike for its deep philosophy and theology, and its sweet unaffected piety. We are glad to see the work placed within the reach of the English reader, and we hope it will take the place of the light, superficial, sentimental devotional works which have become so fashionable in late years. Its constant study and meditation will render our piety solid and robust as well as tender. St. Francis was in some sort the apostle of Calvinists, and his are the best works extant for Catholics who live in a Calvinistic country like ours.—Brownson's Review.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

This is an excellent story, and well suited to the times.—Brownson's Review.

New Works in Press.

ADDITIONS,

BY REV. J. A. CORCORAN, D. D.

With the recommendation of the Most Rev. J. Hughes, D. D., Archbishop of New York, and of several of the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States.

The undersigned is happy to announce that he has made arrangements to commence at an early period the publication of the above work.

The want of a comprehensive history of the Church in the English language has long been deeply felt. Much of the prejudice which exists against the Church in America, is owing to ignorance of her history, or to such perversions of it as disfigure the non-Catholic literature of the United States. A good History of the Church in English will do much to correct this evil. To supply such a work, no mere translation of any existing history would suffice. It is not enough for Catholics or non-Catholics in the United States to see the Church only through a German or French medium. Consequently the Rev. Dr. CORCORAN, of Charleston, a clergyman distinguished for his profound and varied erudition, has undertaken, not merely to render into English, from the original German, "Alzog's History of the Church," but furthermore, to make such necessary modifications, and to add such original matter as will make this exactly THE HISTORY OF THE CHURCH which is needed to fill up the want that is now felt by Catholics in America, Great Britain and Ireland. In the history of the Church, in these countries especially, much that is new and interesting will be added:

The Publisher has the pleasure of presenting to the Catholic public the following letters of recommendation from the Most Rev. Archbishops of New York and Baltimore, and from the Right Rev. Bishops of Pittsburgh and Newark:

NEW YORK, January 15th, 1859.

DEAR SIR:—Although I have not seen the text of the work which the Rev. Dr. CORCORAN, of Charleston, is preparing, as announced in your Prospectus, still I do not hesitate to recommend it to the Catholic public of my diocese. "Alzog's History of the Church" has been highly praised in Europe by excellent judges. Any work founded on this, passing under the critical and judicious arrangements of the Rev. Dr. Corcoran, cannot but prove a most valuable hand-book of Ecclesiastical History. One great merit will be, that it is by no means voluminous, but rather a compendium, which will bring the substance of Church history within a limited compass. It is fortunate that such a work, so much needed, should have engaged the attention and labors of the learned Dr. Corcoran.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

JOHN, Abp. of New York.

P. O'SHEA, Esq., 739 Broadway.

BALTIMORE, January 15th, 1859.

DEAR SIR:—I am pleased that you are about to publish the History of the Church, prepared by Rev. Dr. Corcoran, on the basis of Alzog. He is eminently qualified for the work. Please place me on your list of subscribers.

Yours respectfully,

FRANCIS PATRICK KENRICK, Abp.

P. O'SHEA, Esq., 739 Broadway, New York.

PITTSBURGH, December 15th, 1858.

SIR:—I know no history of the Church which I think as well suited for general use in this country as that of Alzog. It was recommended to me by many learned persons in France and Germany as the best work of moderate dimensions extant on this subject, and my own examination of it leads me to agree in their opinion. In preparing a translation, however, it would be well to introduce more full details on several points slightly touched or entirely omitted by the author, and in other ways to amend and adapt the work to our wants. I would strongly recommend you to endeavor to induce the Rev. Dr. Corcoran, of Charleston, to undertake the task of preparing a translation amended in the manner I have hinted. As an elegant writer, a profound theologian, and a man of vast erudition, I know few equally competent for the good work. Alzog's History, translated, revised and enlarged by him, will be an addition to the Catholic literature of this country, for the publication of which every member of the Church will owe you a deep debt of gratitude.

Yours in Christ,

M. O'CONNOR, Bishop of Pittsburgh.

P. O'SHEA, 789 Broadway, New York.

NEWARK, October 26th, 1858.

MY DEAR SIR:—I know of no better compendium of Church History than that by Alzog. Valuable as it is however for its brief comprehensiveness, and excellent bibliographical references, it seems to me to need correction on some points. There is no one in the United States more competent to translate it and edit it as it ought to be, than the Rev. Dr. Corcoran, of Charleston, South Carolina.

I remain very truly yours,

JAMES, Bishop of Newark.

P. O'SHEA, Esq., 789 Broadway, New York.

THE LIFE AND MIRACLES OF

Saint Philomene, Virgin and Martyr,

Patroness of the living Rosary, whose sacred body was lately discovered in the Catacombs at Rome, and from thence transferred to Mugnano, in the Kingdom of Naples. Translated from the French.

New Works—Just Published.

The Life of St. Joseph.

The admirable life of the glorious patriarch Saint Joseph, taken from the Cité Mystique; with an Appendix of the life of the venerable Maria of Jesus, of Agreda, (author of the Mystical City of God); and an introduction from the manuscripts of M. OLIER, founder of the Seminaries of St. Sulpice. 16mo. Cloth, extra, 50c.; gilt, 75c.

This extraordinary "Life," which has been carefully extracted from the Cité Mystique (Mystical City of God), as it participates in all the approbations accorded to the great work from which it is derived, by the supreme Pontiffs, during the two last centuries, cannot be too highly recommended to the Catholic reader.

SUPPLEMENT TO "THE FOLLOWING OF CHRIST."

Methodical and Explanatory Table of THE CHAPTERS OF THE FOLLOWING OF CHRIST.

Arranged for every day in the year in the order best calculated to lead to perfection. Compiled from the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius for the purpose of facilitating the way of giving Spiritual Retreats.

24mo. Cloth, extra, .....9 cents, or $6 per hundred.

24mo. Paper .....6 cents, or $4 per hundred.

The Messrs. Sadlier are happy to offer to the Catholic public, A METHODICAL AND EXPLANATORY TABLE OF THE CHAPTERS OF THE FOLLOWING OF CHRIST; a book appreciated not only by the faithful, but also by those separated from the Church.

A certain method in the reading of it will be found to render it still more useful. Hence, a division of chapters suited to the different states of the soul, to the virtues to be acquired, or to the vices to be corrected, it is hoped, will attain that end. This division, by pointing off the chapters, according to the days of the year, facilitates the method of meditation taught by St. Ignatius, whilst it gives in detail his directions, to those who wish to meditate with fruit.

The order thus introduced into this estimable book will, we hope, still more enhance its value.

NEW EDITION.

History of the War in the Peninsula AND IN THE SOUTH OF FRANCE. From the year 1807 to the year 1814. By W. F. P. NAPIER, C. B., Colonel H. P. Forty-third Regiment, Member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Military Sciences.

Royal 8vo. 800 pages. Cloth, extra, $2.50; half mor., $3.00.

"The author's style is exceedingly vigorous and terse. It has a plain and simple vehemence, which is both captivating and imposing. He knows nothing of amplification. He tells his story in the fewest words possible; marches straight to a fact, seizes it, and places it before the reader without any useless preliminaries, takes some fortress of error built up with care and pains by some precedent, interested or partial historian, by a coup de main, and razes it to the ground. His narrative is full of life, motion and impulsiveness; his portraiture of character, bold, striking and impressive. His honest and chivalrous nature enabled him to rise above the then popular British prejudice against the French. While he is careful to guard the military reputation of his own countrymen from injustice, he is equally solicitous to do justice to the prowess of the French army, and the military skill of the great men who commanded it. He pays a proper tribute to the military genius of the great Napoleon, whom he places on the loftiest pedestal in the Pantheon of the great captains of modern times. He loves to paint him as the great champion of equality and the popular principle, contending against the allied forces of privilege and aristocracy."—Tablet.

"On this great work itself, we do not presume to say much. The ablest reviewers in Great Britain, and Ireland, and France, and Germany, have concurred in deciding that it is one of the most valuable histories ever published. The author was a brave soldier, and a gentlemen of the finest talents and training. He fought in the wars he describes. Those wars were the most important of modern centuries. In them figured the greatest military commander that ever lived; the fate of more than one ancient royal house, together with the political condition of two or three great peoples were at stake in them; in their conduct appeared the justice, chicanery and deceit, the valor, and pusillanimity of the prominent diplomatists and captains, and armies of Europe; and in their issue appeared, after the waste of millions of treasure and the loss of tens of thousands of lives, the resettlement of Southern Europe in its thrones and governments, and imperishable honor for the arms of England. Col. Napier has left nothing out belonging to these important facts."—Fitzgerald's City Item.

FIFTH THOUSAND.

FROM THE SECOND REVISED EDITION.

ROME—Its Ruler, and its Institutions.

By JOHN FRANCIS MAGUIRE, M. P.

At the earnest request of several of the clergy and laity, we have concluded to publish this most important work. To the Catholic it is invaluable, and it is just the book for those outside the Church. All will be satisfied with what the Church has done and is doing for the spiritual as well as temporal welfare of man.

It is not necessary to say anything further, when the highest authority in the Church has spoken. We append the following :—

Mr. Maguire has been honored with a letter from his Holiness, of which the following is a translation.

“ Well-beloved Son ; Health and Apostolical Benediction—We have lately received your most dutiful letter, dated the 17th day of November last, in which you have been pleased to present to Us a work composed by you in the English language, and published this year in London, with the title, ‘ Rome, its Ruler, and its Institutions.’ Of this work we have been unable to enjoy the perusal, owing to our extremely imperfect acquaintance with the language in which it is written. Yet, from the statement of persons of the highest character for competency and trustworthiness, who have perused the same work, We learn with peculiar satisfaction that it contains many evidences of your singular devotedness, attachment, and reverence to Us, and towards this Holy See ; a circumstance which could not fail to be most gratifying to Our feelings. Therefore, while bestowing Our heartfelt recommendation on this noble expression of your sentiments to Us, We return you thanks for the gift ; and, as a testimony of Our fatherly love towards you, We impart to you affectionately from Our heart the Apostolic Benediction.

Given at Rome, at St. Peter’s, the 14th day of December, 1857, in the twelfth year of Our Pontificate.”

PIUS IX.

“ MY DEAR SIR :—

LONDON, August 28, 1857.

According to your desire, I have delayed acknowledging the receipt of your ‘ Rome ’ till I had read it through. This I have now done, taking it up at every leisure moment with renewed pleasure, till I had finished it. Having myself had to go over a great part of the ground, whether personally or by the study of documents, I think I am qualified to form a just judgment of the work. It is most truthful, accurate, and unexaggerated picture of the Holy Father, of his great works, and of his most noble and amiable character, drawn with freshness, elegance and vigor—with admiration, and even, if you please, enthusiasm ; but not greater than is shared by every one who has drawn near the person of the Holy Father. There is not a trait in your portrait which I do not fully recognize ; not an action or a speech which I could not easily imagine to have been performed or spoken in my presence—so like are they to what I have myself seen and heard. In estimating what has been done during the late years of quiet rule for the prosperity of the Pontifical States. I think you have prudently kept rather below than gone above what might have been stated. The result will be more manifest in time—to the confusion, one may hope, of those who, dishonestly or ignorantly misrepresent every measure of the Sovereign Pontiff. I feel sure that your work is calculated to do much good wherever it is read ; and I cannot help hoping that the very novelty of daring to speak the bold truth, the abundance of information which is communicated, and the eloquence of the style, will obtain for your book ‘ all the popularity which it deserves. I need not say that by this work you have nailed your colors to the mast, and become the Pope’s champion, in the House as well as out of it ; and I am sure you will not allow him to be vilified by any one, however lofty.

I am ever, my dear sir,

Your affectionate servant in Christ.

John Francis Maguire, Esq., M. P.”

 The Works will also be bound in cloth extra, and issued in ten monthly Volumes, at ONE DOLLAR per volume. Sent free by post to any part of the United States.

In presenting to the American public, a first edition of the Works of Gerald Griffin, the Publishers may remark that it will be found to be the only complete one. Neither in the London nor Dublin editions, could the Publishers include the historical novel of “The Invasion,” and the celebrated tragedy of “Gyssipus.” As we are not subject to any restriction arising from the British copyright, we have included the former with the prose, and the latter with the poetical works of the Author.

We are also indebted to near relatives of Mr. Griffin, residing in this country, for an original contribution to this edition; which will be found gratefully acknowledged in the proper place.

As the life of the Author forms the subject of one entire volume, we need say little here, of the uncommon interest his name continues to excite. Unlike the majority of writers of fiction, his reputation has widely expanded since his death. In 1840, when he was laid in his grave, at the early age of seven and thirty, not one person knew the loss a pure literature had sustained, for fifty who now join veneration for his virtues, to admiration for his various and delightful talents. The goodness of his heart, the purity of his life, the combined humor and pathos of his writings, all promise longevity of reputation to Gerald Griffin.

"He had kept

The whiteness of his soul, and so men o'er him wept."

He united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. His life does not disappoint the reader, who turns from the works to their author; it is, indeed, the most delightful and harmonious of all his works. From his childish sports and stories by the Shannon until his solemn and enviable death beside "the pleasant waters" of the Lee, a golden thread of rectitude runs through all his actions. A literary adventurer in London at nineteen, with a Spanish tragedy for his sole capital, famous at thirty, a religious five years later, a tenant of the Christian Brothers' Cemetery at thirty-seven—the main story of his life is soon told. Over its details, we are confident, many a reader will fondly linger, and often return to contemplate so strange and so beautiful a picture. Out of his secret heart they will find sentiments issuing not unworthy of St. Frances de Sales, while from his brain have sprung creations of character which might have been proudly fathered by Walter Scott.

Canvassers wanted in every part of the United States and Canadas to sell this work.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF GERALD GRIFFIN.—We welcome this new and complete edition of the works of Gerald Griffin, now in the course of publication by the Messrs. Sadlier & Co. We read The Collegians, when it was first published, with a pleasure we have never forgotten, and which we have found increased at every repeated perusal. Ireland has produced many geniuses, but rarely one, upon the whole, superior to Gerald Griffin. When we have his life, and the publication of the edition is completed, we shall endeavor to render our tribute of gratitude to the memory of the gifted author.—[Brownson's Review.

It is not surprising that comparatively little is known in this country, save among the more intelligent American citizens from the "Emerald Isle," of Gerald Griffin, when we consider that he was born in the beginning of the present century, and closed his brief, but really bright and brilliant, career of authorship at the early age of 37. He however achieved a reputation as a writer of no ordinary power, and as has been remarked, united all the simplicity and cordiality of Oliver Goldsmith, to much of the fiery energy and manly zeal of Robert Burns. We have now before us four volumes, the commencement of a complete edition of his works, embracing the "Collegians," and the first series of his "Munster Tales." The nationality of these tales, and the genius of the author in depicting the mingled levity and pathos of Irish character, have rendered them exceedingly popular. The present edition, the first published in America. The style in which the series is produced, is highly creditable to the enterprise of the American publishers, and we are free to say, that the volumes are worthy of being placed in our libraries, public or private, alongside of Irving, Cooper, or Scott.—Hunt's Merchants' Magazine.

Whoever wishes to read one of the most passionate and pathetic novels in English literature will take with him, during the summer vacation, The Collegians, by Gerald Griffin. He was a young Irishman, who died several years since, after writing a series of works—novels and poetry, which gave him little reputation during his life, but since his death have given him fame, as, in our judgment, the best Irish novelist. The picture of Irish character and manners a half century since, in The Collegians, is masterly, and the power with which the fond, impetuous, passionate, thoroughly Celtic nature of Hardress Cregan is drawn, evinces rare genius. Griffin died young, a disappointed man. But this is one story, if nothing else of his, will surely live among the very best novels of the time. It is full of incident, and an absorbing interest allures the reader to the end, and leaves him with a melted heart and moistened eye. It is a very convenient and attractive edition. It will contain all his novels, dramas, and lyrics. The latter have a thoroughly Irish flavor, and will, we sincerely hope, be the means of making the talented young Irishman widely known, and, consequently, admired in this country.—Putnam's Monthly.

The works of the author in question are written in an easy, flowing style, and his sketches of character exhibit a rare knowledge of human nature—Irish human nature especially—while the descriptive portions carry with them a truthfulness and fidelity which are peculiarly charming. Many of his narratives are founded upon real incidents in Irish history which are ingeniously worked up, and rendered thrillingly exciting and absorbingly interesting. They are interspersed with scenes of the deepest pathos, and the most genuine humor—at one moment we are convulsed with laughter, at the next affected to tears—while an atmosphere of sound morality, containing many touches of true philosophy and deep reasoning, surrounds the whole, showing that the author well knew the way to the human heart. While every one who possesses true literary taste will be charmed with Griffin's works, they will be peculiarly fascinating

History of Christianity in China, Tartary, and THIBET, from the Apostleship of St. Thomas to the Establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar Dynasty in China.

2 Volumes, 12mo. Cloth extra, $2 00.
 " " Half morocco, 2 50.

To Abbé Hue we are indebted for most of our accurate knowledge of modern China. He traversed from one end of that great empire to the other; he was honored with special privileges and rank; he was admitted in Pekin. He saw a great deal of the interior as well as the ceremonial life of the Chinese, and his works of travels are as amusing as romances.

The name of the work before us fully indicates what it is—a well-digested, authentic, and explicit history of the difficulties which attended the introduction of the Christian Faith into China and its vicinity, and of the successes which followed. The introduction satirically contrasts our modern missions with those so often leading to martyrdom, which the Church of Rome sent from her bosom, far and wide over the world. Then commences the history, showing how, from the first, with the rest of the Magi, the Chinese ruler felt an interest in the Advent of the expected Messiah, and how rapidly, when the great sacrifice was made, the Christian Faith spread to the remotest parts of Asia—promulgated, it is believed, by St. Thomas, the Apostle, in person. The whole course of tradition is run through, and then the records of fact are given, up to the establishment of the Mantchoo-Tartar dynasty in China, on the downfall of the dynasty of Ming, in the middle of the seventeenth century:—to drive out the Mantchoo-Tartar rulers is the object of the rebellion now raging in China. The narrative, which is admirably translated, is the very romance of history, with all the accuracy of fact, derived as it is from the records of the mission in China.

At any time, such a book as this would be a valuable addition to our store of knowledge. At the present crisis, when more than one of the "outside barbarian" nations are assailing China, it is important as well as interesting.—Philadelphia Press.

M. Huc, has enjoyed opportunities of becoming familiar with the character of the people of the countries named, and also of their institutions, habits, manners, and customs, such as have seldom been bestowed on travelers through the Celestial Empire. These volumes are the result of his missionary experience in the very heart of an empire comparatively unknown, yet comprising a population of nearly one-third of the human family. Aside from its peculiar claims upon the Catholic Church, as exhibiting a self-devotion and untiring zeal in the promulgation of its religious faith, this work is of great value to the statesman, the merchant, and the philanthropist, as containing a vivid portrayal of the character of a country and people, now more than ever engaging the especial attention of the civilized world.—Hunt's Merchant's Magazine.

The Life of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; or, JESUS REVEALED TO YOUTH. By the ABBE F. LAGRANGE. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. SADLIER; with the approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York. Illustrated with 10 plates. 16mo.

Cloth extra, 50 cents; Cloth gilt, 75 cents.

"Suffer little children to come unto me!" said our Lord himself, in the fullness of his love: he wishes, then to draw their innocent hearts to himself, and it is for us to make him known to them, that knowing, they may love him; and loving, they will be sure to serve him all their life long. Let them behold him as he was when, clothed with our frail humanity, he walked amongst men, scattering blessings as he went. This little volume is, I think, well calculated to make Jesus known to the younglings of his flock. It is written in a simple, conversational style, and contains a summary of every thing relating to our divine Saviour that children ought to know. Even those who are already playing their allotted parts as men and women, on the world's stage, may derive both pleasure and profit from perusing this simple work of piety. It will happily lead them back for a time to the green pastures and the silvery waters of life's young spring, far away from the dusty highway and the crowded mart, and all the ceaseless whirl of more recent years. They will be children in heart, at least for the time; and any thing that assimilates us to children must ever be advantageous, since Christ himself tells us that, unless we become as one of these little ones, we shall have no place in his eternal kingdom.

The Popular Library
OF HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, FICTION, and MISCELLANEOUS LITERATURE. A Series of Works by some of the most eminent writers of the day ; Edited by MESSRS. CAPES, NORTHCOTE, and THOMPSON.

The "POPULAR LIBRARY" is intended to supply a desideratum which has long been felt, by providing at a cheap rate a series of instructive and entertaining publications, suited for general use, written expressly for the purpose, and adapted in all respects to the circumstances of the present day. It is intended that the style of the work shall be such as to engage the attention of young and old, and of all classes of readers, while the subjects will be so varied as to render the series equally acceptable for Home use, Educational purposes, or railway reading.

The following are some of the subjects which it is proposed to include in the "Popular Library," though the volumes will not necessarily be issued in the order here given. A large portion of the Series will also be devoted to works of Fiction and Entertaining Literature generally, which will be interspersed with the more solid publications here named.

The Press of Europe and America is unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below :—

"Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognise at once those characteristics which have ever sufficed to identify one illustrious pen."—Dublin Review.

"We rejoice in the publication of 'Fabiola,' as we conceive it the commencement of a new era in Catholic literature."—Telegraph.

"Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature."—C. Standard.

"Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholars and general reader."—Brownson's Review.

"A story of the early days of Christianity, by Cardinal Wiseman, is a sufficient notice to give of this volume, lately published in London, and re-published by the Sadlier's in a very neat and cheap volume."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"As a series of beautifully wrought and instructive tableaux of Christian virtue and Christian heroism in the early ages, it has no equal in the English language."—American Celt.

"We think that all who read 'Fabiola' will consider it entirely successful. . . . We must do the Messrs. Sadlier the justice to say, that the book is beautifully printed and illustrated, and that it is one of the cheapest books we have seen."—Boston Pilot.

"We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them in the perusal of 'Fabiola'; we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story, most exquisitely told."—True Witness (Montreal.)

"It is a beautiful production—the subject is as interesting, as is the ability of the author to treat of it unquestioned—and the tale itself one of the finest specimens of exquisite tenderness, lofty piety, great erudition, and vast and extended knowledge of the men and manners of antiquity, we have ever read."—Montreal Transcript.

"As a faithful picture of domestic life in the olden time of Roman splendor and prosperity, it far exceeds the Last days of Pompeii; and the scenes in the arena, where the blood of so many martyrs fertilized the soil wherein the seed of the Christian faith was fully planted, are highly dramatic, and worthy of any author we have ever read."—New York Citizen.

* * This volume is in process of translation into the French, German, Italian, Flemish and Dutch language.

M. Dupin, President of the French Academy, remarked, when awarding her the prize for virtue:—

"But there remains a difficulty, which has doubtless suggested itself to the mind of each amongst you, how is it possible for Jeanne alone to provide the expenses of so many poor? What shall I reply to you? God is Almighty! Jeanne is indefatigable, Jeanne is eloquent, Jeanne has prayers, Jeanne has tears, Jeanne has strength to work, Jeanne has her basket, which she carries untiringly upon her arm, and which she always takes home filled. Saintly woman, the Academy deposits in this basket the utmost placed at its disposal, decreeing you a prize of 3,000 francs."

"This is another of the Popular Library that the Sadliers are doing such good service by re-publishing in this country. At the earnest advice of a gifted friend, whose opinion has every weight with us, we publish entire the preface to this volume by Aubrey de Vere. It is one of the most interesting and valuable essays that has been given to the world for a long time. For the remaining contents of the book we must refer our readers to its own pages."—*N. Y. "The Tales of this Author are distinguished by a skill in the delineation of character, and life-like pictures of domestic society. The present, though bearing clear marks of the same hand, is more a story of movement and incident. It is in no sense a 'religious' novel and still less a controversial one. But the progress of the story is throughout made to depend upon the practical adoption or reception of certain principles of right and wrong, so that the 'poetical justice' awarded to every body in the end is not a mere chance consequence of circumstances, but the natural result of their character and conduct. This it is which gives their chief value to books of fiction as a means for influencing the reader's mind, and this it is which will make 'The Witch' a volume fit for general circulation to an extent which can be asked for few novels. . . . . The story is worked out with considerable ingenuity and a rapid succession of events, increasing in interest as it proceeds. . . . . 'The Witch' is a very clever story, and will suit the young as well as the old."—Tablet.

"The record of the Martyrdom of the lovely Father Azevedo and his Companions, who suffered most of them in the bloom of their years, is one of the most delightful pictures of Christian heroism that ever came under our eyes.... Few will read the touching narrative of the Massacre of the Carmes without feeling their hearts melt.... We have seldom seen so much information within so short a compass on the state of religious belief in the Chinese Empire as is given in the introductory chapter to the account of the Chinese Martyrs..... We take leave of this most interesting and edifying work, and we recommend it most heartily to the Catholic reader who loves—and who does not?—to contemplate those pictures of heroism which the Church alone has fed and called forth."—Tablet.

Blakes and Flanagans.

A Tale of the Times, Illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. By Mrs. J. SADLIER, Author of "New Lights, or Life in Galway," "Willy Burke," "Alice Riordan," &c. 12mo., 400 pages.

Price.—Cloth, extra, 75 cents.
Gilt edges, $1 12 "

In a recent visit to Montreal, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Charbonnell, preaching on the education of children, paid the following high compliment to our Tale—"THE BLAKES AND FLANAGANS"—which turns mainly on that topic. His Lordship remarked:—

"On coming to town I called at a Bookstore to purchase a number of copies to bring with me to Quebec, but found that it was not yet printed in book-form. It is now being published in the AMERICAN CELT, and I would like to see it circulated by the hundred thousand."

"This compliment coming from the Bishop of Toronto, cannot be but highly valued by the gifted writer, Mrs. Sadlier.

"We cannot forbear assuring the Authoress, contemporaneous with announcement, and thus publicly, that her story has been read with the liveliest interest by our readers, and that it has elicited the most earnest expressions of respect for herself from persons distinguished in every walk of life.

"Before parting with our favorite contributor, let us add the following opinion recently expressed to us by a gifted Western clergyman! 'Mrs. Sadlier's story,' he said, 'has done more to bring home to the hearts of parents the importance of Catholic education, than any other, and all other advocacy combined.' This is extreme praise, but we will say, not undeserved."—American Celt.

"The style is excellent, thoroughly natural and unaffected, the narrative flowing, the conversations full of vivacity, and the characters well sustained. . . . . We cannot but wish it the widest circulation that a book can have."—St. Louis Leader.

The Life and Times of St. Bernard.

Translated from the French of M. L'ABBE RATISBONNE.
With a Preface by HENRY EDWARD MANNING, D. D., and a Portrait. 1 vol., 12mo., 500 pages.

Gilt edges, 1 50.

"St. Bernard was so eminently the saint of his age, that it would be impossible to write his life without surrounding it with an extensive history of the period in which he lived, and over which he may be truly said, to have ruled. The Abbé Ratisbonne has, with this view, very ably and judiciously interwoven with the personal narrative and description of the saint, the chief contemporaneous events and characters of the time.

"There seems to have been in this one mind an inexhaustible abundance, variety, and versatility of gifts. Without ever ceasing to be the holy and mortified religious, St. Bernard appears to be the ruling will of his time. He stands forth as pastor, preacher, mystical writer, controversialist, reformer, pacificator, mediator, arbiter, diplomatist, and statesman. He appears in the schools, at the altar, in the preacher's chair, in councils of the Church, in councils of the State, amid the factions of cities, the negotiations of princes, and the contests of anti-popes. And whence came this wondrous power of dealing with affairs and with men? Not from the training and schooling of this world, but from the instincts, simplicity, and penetration of a mind profoundly immersed in God, and from a will of which the fervour and singleness of aim were supernatural."—Extracts from Preface.

The Life and Victories of the Early Martyrs. By Mrs. HOPE. Written for the Oratorian's Schools of our Lady's Compassion. 1 vol., 12mo., 400 pages.

Gilt edges, 1 12.

"The interesting Tale of 'Fabiola' has made most readers familiar with the sufferings of the Early Martyrs, and desirous to know more of their history, and of the Victories which they achieved over the world. Every age, every clime, has its martyrs, for it is a distinctive mark of the Catholic Church, that the race of martyrs never dies out. And since her earliest times, a single generation has not passed away without some of her children shedding their blood for the name of Jesus. Other religious bodies may have had a few individuals here and there and at distant intervals, who have died for their opinions. But it is in the Catholic Church alone the spirit of martyrdom has ever been alive. Nor is it difficult to account for this, as the Catholic Church is the only true Church, the devil is ever ready to raise up persecutions against her, and as the Lord ever loves his spouse, the Church, he bestows upon her all graces, and among them the grace of martyrdom, with a more lavish hand than on others."—Extract from Introduction.

History of the War in La Vendée, and the Little Chouannerie. By G. J. HILL, M. A. With Two Maps and Seven Engravings, 12mo.

Cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra, gilt edges, $1 12.

This is a number of the popular Catholic Library now in course of publication by Messrs. Burns and Lambert, London, and Messrs. Sadlier & Co., in this city, and is one of the most interesting numbers of that valuable series that has as yet appeared. It is full of romantic incident, and is as exciting as any romance ever written. The author has grouped his incidents with much skill, and told his story with much grace and feeling. The public can hardly fail to appreciate it highly; and the intelligent reader will find it full of instruction as well as interest. The war in La Vendée was the war of the peasants, and a war chiefly for the freedom of religion. For the freedom of religion, the freedom of conscience, the freedom to have their own priests, and to worship God according to their own faith, they took up arms, and they did not lay them down till they had secured it. They were the true French patriots in the time of the Republic; the men who preserved fresh and living the France of St. Louis and the Crusaders, historical and traditional France, and it is not too much to say that they saved France in her darkest days, and prevented the continuity of her life from being broken by the madness and excesses of the revolution. They prove how much religion warms and strengthens patriotism, and that it can make undisciplined peasants able to cope successfully with the best drilled and appointed armies. When fighting for their religion, these half-unarmed peasants were invincible, and almost always victorious. When from a Catholic army they became a Royalist army, and acted under the direction of chiefs, who thought only of restoring fallen monarchy, they melted away before their enemies, as wax at the touch of fire, or were scattered as the morning mist before the rising sun.—Brownson's Review.

The period of the war was from '91 to '97, from the first proclamation of "the Civil Constitution of the Clergy" to the pacification, and consequent restoration of public worship under the Consulate. The scene of the war was the most Celtic region in the west of France, on both banks of the great Celtic river, the Loire. All Bretagne, parts of Maine, Anjou and Poitou, were engaged at various periods of the struggle, the largest number in arms being not less than 100,000 in every quarter of this country, while against them were sent in succession the armies of Generals Kleber, Westerman, and Hoche. On the side of the insurgents, the successive commanders were Cathelineau, D'Elbee, Henri de Larochejacquelein, Charette, and Stofflet; St. Malo, Quiberon, Nantes, Laval, Moulins, Fontenay, Thouars, and Angers, were the towns and cities lost and taken on both sides, but the citadel and nursery of the war was La Vendée.—American Celt.

Callista; A Tale of the Third Century.

By Very Rev. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, D. D., Rector of the Catholic University, Dublin.

12mo., cloth, extra, 75 cents; cloth, extra gilt, $1 12.

The following extract is from a very long notice of the work in the Dublin Tablet:

"The story is partly interwoven with historical facts, but its author professes, at the outset, that as a whole, it is 'a simple fiction from beginning to end.' However that may be, as an instrument of conveying a real and genuine historical knowledge of the days of which it treats, in their aspect towards Christianity, it will probably remain without a rival in the literary world."

Dr. Newman is peculiarly felicitous in portraying the exceeding difficulty an old Roman Pagan had in understanding the principles and motives which governed the Christian. He could not enter into his way of thinking, could not seize his stand-point, and comprehend how a man well to do in the world, intelligent, cultivated, respectable, in the road to wealth, pleasure, distinction, honors, under Paganism, should forego all his advantages, join himself to a proscribed sect, regarded as almost beneath contempt, professing, as it was assumed, a most debasing and disgusting superstition, without intelligence, common sense, and common decency, and that too when to do so was sure persecution, and almost certain death, as a traitor to Cæsar. It was a sore puzzle to the wise heathen, it is a sore puzzle also, to the proud and self-sufficient non-Catholic even to-day, and will remain so to the end of the world. It is hard even for worldly-minded Christians to comprehend how youth and beauty can forego the world, and wed themselves to an unseen Lover, and live and suffer only for an invisible Love. The solution is found only in giving our hearts to God, and living for heaven alone."—Brownson's Review."

Manual of Modern History.

By MATTHEW BRIDGES, Esq. 600 pages.

12mo., cloth, or half roan, $1 00.

This volume, containing, as it does, a large amount of matter, with complete indexes, tables of chronology, &c., &c., will be found equally useful for popular reading, as a Student's Text-book, or as a manual for schools.

"Mr. Bridges' excellent Popular Modern History."—Cardinal Wiseman's late Lecture on Rome.

"The author dates this history from the irruption and settlement of the barbarous nations on the ruins of the Western Empire, and brings it down, noting events as they transpired in the succeeding ages, to the present. The author has carefully compiled the work from such resources as were within his reach, and he considered were of a reliable character."—Pittsburgh Catholic."

Ancient History.

By MATTHEW BRIDGES, Esq.

Price, 75 cents.

This volume, containing, as it does, a large amount of matter, with complete indexes, tables of chronology, &c., &c., will be found equally useful for popular reading, as a Student's Text-book, or as a manual for schools.

"This is intended by the author as a companion to the popular Modern History. The works, however, are both complete in themselves."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

"These two works are what they profess to be, and give more correct views of history than any other popular volumes we are acquainted with."—Brownson's Review.

"The two works are intended to be a Manual of ancient and modern history. The author wishes to give the reader a comprehensive and distinct idea of human events, to form for himself a judicious system of history, without depending upon others, or being obliged to swear by the opinions of other historians.

"Catholicity and heresy have a great bearing on history. Protestant writers, with precious few exceptions, pervert the facts of history according to their own ideas and notions. If you believe the great bulk of Protestant historians, all the evils of the world for the last ten or twelve centuries have originated with the Catholic Church, and of course, they substantiate their charges by making the statements recorded in other histories flow as a natural emanation from Catholic doctrines. This is their system. Take, for instance, Macaulay. See what he says of the Jesuits. He will tell you that the great doings of the society are all hinged on blind obedience. No allowance is made for the zeal, the spirit of mortification and self-denial, the virtuous habits of men who have long and practically studied the spirit of the Cross, and here become heroes of sanctity. No allowance is made for the goodness of the individual, and the holiness of the institute. Matthew Bridges has seen this clearly. Hence he has followed a much better plan, in fact the only plan, which an historian must follow, and consequently he feels 'thoroughly persuaded of the truthfulness of what he has asserted or described, after years of attention to the subject, and a laborious investigation of those matters which have been fairly controverted or intentionally misrepresented.'"—Boston Pilot.

ALICE SHERWIN.

An Historical Tale of the Days of Sir Thomas More. 12mo.

Cloth, extra.....$0 75*Cloth, extra gilt*.....1 12

"ALICE SHERWIN.—This able and interesting historical novel is reprinted from the English, and has been ascribed, we know not whether justly or not, to the distinguished author of Sunday in London—a convert from Anglicanism, who deserves the thanks of every English speaking Catholic for the valuable contributions he has made since his conversion, and is still making, to English Catholic literature. But by whomsoever written, Alice Sherwin is, so far as we know, the most successful attempt at the genuine historical novel by a Catholic author yet made in our language, and gives goodly promise that, in due time, we shall take our proper rank in this department of literature, rendered so popular by the historical romances of Sir Walter Scott. The author has a cultivated mind, a generous and loving spirit, and more than usual knowledge of the play of the passions and the workings of the human heart. He has studied with care and discernment the epoch of Sir Thomas More, or, as we prefer to say, of Henry VIII., and has successfully seized its principal features, its costume and manners, and its general spirit, and paints them in vivid colors, and with a bold and free pencil, though after all with more talent and skill than genius in its highest sense."—Brownson's Review.

The Life of St. Francis de Sales,

Bishop and Prince of Geneva. By ROBERT ORNSBY,
M. A. Price, cloth extra, 63c; gilt, 88c.

From the Preface of this excellent work we make the following extract.

"The Saint whose life is treated of in this volume is perhaps—next, of course, to the Queen of Saints—the 'favorite Saint' of the whole calendar, wherever his writings are known and understood. There appears in the mind of St. Francis of Sales that union of sweetness and strength of manly power and feminine delicacy, of profound knowledge and practical dexterity, which constitute a character formed at once to win and subdue minds of almost every type and age. As the rose among flowers, so is he among Saints. From the thorny, woody fibre of the brier comes forth that blossom which unites all that can make a flower lovely and attractive; and from the hot and vehement nature of the young Savoyard, came a spiritual bloom whose beauty and fragrance were perfect in an extraordinary degree."

"When we say that the author of the work before us has done this, it is to say that he has done all that a human pen can do in portraying such a saintly figure. Human effort must ever be as far below the lustrous reality the gold with which our painters halo the sacred heads that adorn our churches is below the brightness of the divine rays. Mr. Ornsby has done what a writer can do. The pious imagination of his Catholic readers will aid in giving life to his portrait. Selections from the 'Spirit of St. Francis de Sales,' by the Bishop of Belley, are added to the biography. Recommendation of them to the perusal of our readers and their friends is needless.'—New York Tablet.

The Life of St. Elizabeth of Hungary,

Duchess of Thuringia. By the COUNT DE MONTALEMBERT, peer of France. Translated from the French, by MARY HACKETT and MRS. J. SADLIER. 1 Vol. Royal 12mo. Fine paper, with a splendid Portrait after Overbeck, engraved on steel. Price, Cloth extra, $1 and $1.50; English mor., extra, $2.

In the translation of this work, published in Dublin, the introduction, which forms about 150 pages of the original, and nearly one-third of the whole work, was omitted. Our edition contains the entire work.

This is one of the most interesting biographies in any language. We defy even the most lukewarm Catholic to read it without inwardly thanking God that he belongs to a Church that can produce such purity and holiness, and so much humility and self-denial as is exemplified in the life of the "dear St. Elizabeth."

Fundamental Philosophy.

By REV. JAMES BALMES. Translated from the Spanish by HENRY F. BROWNSON, M. A.; with an introduction by O. A. BROWNSON, LL. D. 2 vols. 8vo., 1,100 pp.

"We consider his work the best adapted to meet the wants of the philosophical student at the present time that we are acquainted with. It takes the philosophical world where it now is, and leads it step by step up the highest regions of philosophic thought, and prepares it for the reception of philosophy in its highest, simplest and truest forms. Its style is clear, simple, precise, flowing, and elegant, and contrasts favorably with that of most philosophical writers of ancient or modern times. It is just the work the American public are prepared for, and is just the one needed to give the right direction to philosophic inquiry."—Brownson's Review.

"This book of the illustrious Spaniard was written to determine the boundaries of human science. Like Solomon, like Socrates, like all great souls, the gifted Catalan priest found his heart constantly calling on his intellect to answer, what do I know! what can I know! Of what avail is knowledge, or the pursuit of knowledge!

"If ever he had said to himself, with the wisest Pagan of antiquity, and saddest skeptic of our own times—

—'All that we know is, nothing can be known,' if ever this cheerless and fruitless sentiment found a lodgment in his generous mind, it is certain he got bravely over it, when he attempted such a demonstration of human capacity, as is displayed in these volumes.

"We have followed his course, we have gone over his road, as a Frank of the Carolingian times might have travelled an old Roman causeway. We see that it is; we feel that it is solid; we believe that it is safe; we have a general conviction that it came out from Rome, and leads inevitably thither; but how those difficulties of nature, of time and place, of accident and substance, of extension and will, how they were all overcome, and brought into this ample and direct scheme of human science, we have as yet but feebly and imperfectly comprehended.

"It is no vain desire to stimulate other readers that makes us, thus early, return to the mention of these two volumes. Many of those whom we have the honor to address, made their philosophical studies under scholastic advantages we never enjoyed. Others have picked up for themselves from current literature, some principles that serve them in place of a philosophy. Because the one class are our superior in learning, we have no hope to reach them, and because the other are our equals in ignorance, we do not presume to lecture them. And yet, having the opportunity to address twelve thousand minds, of various conditions, if we should not endeavor to tell them where wisdom may be had, how can we expect to escape censure and remorse!

"The whole work is divided into ten books, of which the first volume contains but three, and the second the remainder, with the notes. Book 1st treats of Certainty; Book 2d of Sensation; Book 3d of Extension and Space; Book 4th of Ideas; Book 5th of the Idea of Being; Book 6th, of Unity and Number; Book 7th, On Time; Book 8th, on The Infinite; Book 9th, On Substance; Book 10th, On Necessity and Causality. From this table alone one may see the sweep of the Catalonian eagle's wing, which followed without being wearied, whenever his eagle eye detected the object of its quest. It is impossible to read such a book in a few days, or to digest its contents in a few months. In some number of our next volume we may venture to discuss its merits. To-day we are only able to give it the usual notice due to new publications."—American Celt.

"Mr. H. Brownson has conferred a substantial service upon the English and American public, by his translation of the great work of the learned Spaniard. For, as it is well observed in the preface, "He who translates well a good book from a foreign language into his own, does a service to his country next to that of writing a good book himself;" and the translator has here given us a good English translation of an excellent book. In its English version, it has been carefully examined by the learned Dr. Brownson, who has also enriched it with a very valuable 'Introduction;' and the highest credit is due to the enterprising publishers for the handsome style in which it has been brought out. With all these advantages the work we hope will meet with an extensive circulation."—Montreal True Witness.

"The name alone of Balmes, one of the best writers and profoundest philosophers of the present century, is a sufficient guarantee of the excellence and solidity of the above-named work."—Boston Pilot.

An Elementary Greek Grammar, based ON THE LATEST GERMAN EDITION OF KÜH-NER. By CHARLES O'LEARY, M. A.

Large 12mo., half arabesque, 75 cents.

The want has been generally felt of an Elementary Greek Grammar, on the modern improved system of German Grammars. This system has been taught for some years at Mount St. Mary's College, both by Professor O'Leary and others, with marked advantage to the student over the old system.

Induced by this consideration, Professor O'Leary has compiled the present treatise. The plan pursued, is that followed in teaching at the above College, which is virtually that adopted in the Grammars of which it professes to be an abridgement.

The Grammar aims at giving in a clear and brief form all the advantages of Kühner's, apart from the incidental disquisitions, numerous details, and special examples of the original.

The student is made acquainted with the laws that govern the interchange of letters, and thus furnished with a key to the forms and changes of declinable words, which in the old Grammars were matters of rote.

The structure of the verb is presented in an entirely new form, whereby it is much simplified. The syntax is an abridgement of Kühner's, by Jelf, brief and simple, so as to accord with the general object of the Grammar.

"The Professor of Greek in Mount St. Mary's College, near Cincinnati, speaks of the order, clearness, and brevity of the new Grammar in the highest terms, and thinks it destined to supersede all others now used in the schools."—Catholic Telegraph.

"The great advantage of this Grammar over the Greek Grammars heretofore in use is, that it renders the rudiments of the language much easier to learn and retain, inasmuch as they are less a multitude of isolated instances fatiguing the memory of the student than the legitimate deductions of the scientific principles of the language. We recommend the book to the examination of teachers. As far as we have had time to examine it ourselves, we have been much pleased with it."—Brownson's Review.

CARDINAL LAMBRUSCHINI'S CELEBRATED

Work on the Immaculate Conception.

A Polemical Treatise on the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, by CARDINAL LAMBRUSCHINI, to which is added, a History of the Doctrine, by FATHER FELIX, S. J. The French portion of the work is translated by Mrs. J. SADLIER, and the Latin extracts from the Holy Fathers, by a Clergyman of the Diocese of Montreal. 12mo., with a fine steel engraving.

Cloth, extra, 50 cents; gilt, 75 cents.

"The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. Like all Mrs. Sadlier's translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The History of the Doctrine, by Father Felix, S. J., also translated by Mrs. Sadlier, greatly enhances the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable work on the Immaculate Conception which has appeared in this country."—Brownson's Review.

ABBE EDONARD BARTHE. Translated from the French, by MRS. J. SADLIER.

This magnificent work of the Abbé Orsini was recommended to me by those whose judgment carries weight in such matters, as the fullest and most compendious Life of the Mother of God, seeing that it does not break off, as most others do, at the close of her mortal life, but follows the course of the universal devotion wherewith the Church has honoured, and does still honour, this Queen of angels and of men. It shows how from age to age that devotion has grown and prospered coequal with Catholicity, and records the shrines and churches erected in every land under her invocation. It embodies the Eastern traditions concerning her, with the conclusive testimony of the Fathers; the little which is related of her in Scripture being but a faint sketch of her life.

There has been an abridgment of the first volume published in Dublin and republished here: but, as all the second volume was left out, the work in question is a small one, and has, consequently, no interference with this. The second volume is, indeed, the most interesting, as it contains the Rise and Progress of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin, and I trust it will be found a valuable acquisition to our Catholic literature. It is a labor of love for a Catholic to celebrate the praises and publish the renown of our most dear Mother, and my only regret is that the translation of this work has not fallen into better hands. Such as it is, however, it is done with the pure intention of honouring the glorious Virgin, who obtains for every one of us so many and so great blessings, and of inspiring the heart of every reader with love and gratitude to her.—Translator's Preface.

This Superb Work is now complete, and is offered to the public at one-third the price of the French Edition. Printed on the finest paper, and illustrated with 16 steel engravings. 740 pages. Imperial 8vo.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“We cordially congratulate the Catholics of the United States on the appearance of a work at once so important and interesting as Father De Ligny's Life of Christ. It is already widely known and appreciated on the continent of Europe, where it has long been prized as one of the most useful of devotional works. Mrs. Sadlier, to whom the Catholics of the United States are already much indebted for her valuable contributions to our Catholic literature, has rendered Father De Ligny's work into our tongue with singular felicity, and a nice regard to the original text. The work is superbly printed, and appears in parts, at the very low price of twenty-five cents per number. The steel engravings are done in the best style of the art, and are after designs by Rubens, Vandyke, De Caisne, Scheffer, and other eminent masters of the old school. We know no Catholic publication of more general utility, and really so cheap. It has already attained a wide circulation in Europe, and we doubt not but that it will be soon found in every Catholic home in the new world."—American Celt.

EXTRACT FROM THE AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

"I respectfully lay this humble volume at the feet of the Venerable Prelates and Clergy of the United States, not as worthy of their patronage, or even of their notice, but as a mark of filial reverence and submission, and of profound and lively gratitude for their kind encouragement, and generous and uniform support of my humble labours in the cause of Catholic truth.

"I would also inscribe it to my Protestant countrymen. They will find in it many reasons why I have ceased to be a Protestant, but none I hope, for believing that I have lost any of my former interest in them, or that their welfare here or hereafter is less dear to me than ever it was. My sympathies with my fellow-men, which, perhaps, are livelier and deeper than some suppose, have been quickened and expanded, not deadened and contracted, by my conversion to Catholicity. I have said nothing in the following pages in wrath; I have spoken only in love.

"Placing this volume, though all unworthy, with devout gratitude and tender love, under the protection of our Blessed Lady, as I do myself and all my interests, I send it forth to the public, hoping that it may contain a fit word fitly spoken for some earnest mind struggling to emancipate itself from error, and to burst into 'the glorious liberty of the children of God.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

“ We know not the author of this new translation of the Imitation, but its merits cannot be doubted, since it has obtained the sanction of the highest authority, not only in ecclesiastical matters, but in scholarship and taste—Cardinal Wiseman.”—Dublin Review.

“ The Sadliers have brought out an edition of Thomas à Kempis' ‘Imitation of Christ,’ which deserves special commendation for the beauty of typography, paper, and binding. We like it better than any English edition of this work we have seen. Let all who have not this text-book of piety and meditation obtain a copy.”—New York Freeman's Journal.

“ This is the finest edition of the ‘Following of Christ’ ever printed on this side of the Atlantic. Every Catholic, whether old or young, should have a copy of this treasure of a book.”—Montreal True Witness.

“ A beautiful copy of the well-known devotional work of Thomas à Kempis, which has so long been regarded with favour by the whole Christian world. This edition is one of the finest specimens of American typography and paper, particularly in a religious work, which we have ever seen.”—Norton's Literary Gazette.

BUTLER'S LIVES OF THE SAINTS.

LIVES OF THE FATHERS, MARTYRS, AND OTHER PRINCIPAL SAINTS. By the REV. ALBAN BUTLER, as originally published by him in twelve, now complete in four volumes, royal octavo, containing upwards of 3,100 pages of letter-press, printed in a clear, bold type, with marginal lines, from entirely new stereotype plates, which for beauty and excellence of finish cannot be excelled.

To this edition is now added the Lives of all the Saints canonized down to 1839, under the pontificate of Pope Gregory XVI., of blessed memory; with a new Historical Index in accordance with the Roman Breviaries; and the celebrated preface written by the Right Rev. Dr. DOYLE, Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin; making this edition the most perfect ever published in Europe or this country, and altogether forming a complete Catholic Library, a copy of which should be in the possession of every Catholic family. This edition also contains 25 fine steel engravings, and four illuminated titles, in various bindings, with the approbation of the Most Rev. Dr. HUGHES, and 29 Archbishops and Bishops of the Catholic Church—printed on the finest paper, super extra morocco, flexible bevelled, in English or French style, gilt edges, $16.

Turkey, super extra, $14.

American Morocco, gilt edges, $12.50.

do. do. marble edges, $10.50.

Embossed Sheep, do. do. $9.

*** The Publishers at the solicitation of several clergymen, being desirous of extending the circulation of this inestimable work, have resolved to issue a cheap edition, to suit the wants of such persons as cannot afford to buy the more expensive copies, but they strongly recommend all those who can purchase their illustrated edition, in all instances to take them in preference to this cheap edition, as from the extraordinary care which they bestow on the printing and binding of the former, they can with the fullest confidence assert that no work published here or elsewhere, will be found cheaper, or give more general satisfaction.

SUPERB NEW EDITIONS OF THE HOLY BIBLE.

From the Versions of Douay and Rheims, translated from the Latin Vulgate, and diligently compared with the Hebrew, Greek, and other editions in various languages. Published with the Approbation of the Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

The Old Testament was first published by the English college at Douay, A. D. 1609; and the New Testament by the English college at Rheims, A. D. 1582. The paper is excellent, the type is large and beautiful, and it is the only new copy of the sacred volume published in this country. The proof sheets of this work have been read several times with the greatest care, and we are happy to inform those interested that a single error has not been detected, either by the Rev. clergy or editors who have examined the work. It is not necessary to enter into detail; suffice it to say, that this edition has the Table of References, Annotations, Historical and Chronological Indexes of the Old and New Testament, Table of Controversial References, comprising the scriptural texts applicable to all the principal controverted points, Table of Epistles and Gospels for all the Sundays and holydays throughout the year, and all the other tables usually contained in the sacred volume. The ILLUSTRATIONS, Twenty-six in number, several of which have been executed in London, are superior to any thing of the kind executed in this country. It has four Family Records, ex-executed expressly for this work ; and as regards the "getting up" of the work, it cannot be surpassed. In order to make this edition more valuable, it has appended to it Ward's Errata, revised and corrected from the last London Edition, to which are added the celebrated Preface by the Rev. Doctor Lingard, in answer to Ryan's Analysis ; and a Vindication by the Right Rev. Dr. Milner in answer to Grier's Reply. This is very valuable to Protestants as well as Catholics, and to all those who wish carefully to examine and compare the Catholic and Protestant editions of the Bible."

Printed on the finest paper, with rules, and bound in Turkey, super extra, with rich ornamental gilding, and emblematical designs expressly executed for this work, also treble gilt clasps, morocco joints and corresponding panels, beautifully embellished after the antique style, altogether a most gorgeous Book, and well suited for a Marriage, Christmas, or Family present.

SADLIERS' EXTRAORDINARY

Cheap Edition of the Holy Bible,

The great demand for the Douay Bible amongst the Catholics of the United States and Canada, has induced the publishers to issue this edition, which for CHEAPNESS and DURABILITY cannot be equalled. It contains 4 Steel Engravings, Family Records, with Historical and Chronological Tables, &c. It also possesses these two advantages over all other Bibles published in the United States : first, that the print is considerably larger, and secondly, that the binding is more durable. Published with the approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

Imitation Morocco, marble edges, $3 25.

* * We invite the particular attention of the Catholic Clergy and Laity to this cheap and beautiful edition of the New Testament. It has been got up with the greatest care, and has now appended to it a Table of Controversies, pointing out to the reader all those texts of Scripture which confirm or explain the doctrines of the Catholic Church. Printed on fine paper, bold type. 16mo.

Religion in Society ;

OR THE SOLUTION OF GREAT PROBLEMS,

placed within the reach of every mind. Translated from the French of the ABBE MARTINET. With an Introduction by the Most Rev. John Hughes, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

One vol. 12mo., cloth extra. $1.00.

"Religion in Society—(Grands Problema.) We rejoice to state that this very interesting work of the Abbé Martinet, in an excellent English translation, is now published and ready. This is a book for every Catholic that reads; and a book for every person that reads Catholic books. We shall hasten to give it a fuller notice."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

Pope and Maguire's Discussion.

Perhaps no discussion ever excited so much attention as this. Rev. Mr. Pope was an itinerant controversialist, who went about challenging the priests to come forth and defend the doctrines of their Church,—the Rev. Mr. Maguire accepted the challenge. Up to that time his name was scarcely known beyond the precincts of his parish, (which was situated in the mountains of Leitrim,) but after the discussion, "Father Maguire" became the most popular Priest in Ireland. Pope retired from the contest conscious of defeat, for he never challenged any more priests.

Pastorini's General History of the Church.

THE GENERAL HISTORY OF THE CHURCH, from her Birth to her final Triumphant State in Heaven. Deduced from the Apocalypse of St. John the Apostle and Evangelist, by SIGNOR PASTORINI, (Bishop Walmsley.) With a portrait of the Author.

Life of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Doyle,

BISHOP OF KILDARE AND LEIGHLIN—With a Portrait.

The life of this Patriot Bishop should be in the house of every Catholic; more especially those of Irish origin. It gives a summary of his examination before the House of Lords, on the Catholic question. It is a work which every Irish father should place in the hands of his children, as his name should be engraved indelibly upon the hearts of Irishmen and their offspring. Cloth extra, 38 cents.

P. 16 cts.

Cobbett's History of the Reformation.

THE HISTORY OF THE REFORMATION IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND; showing how that event has impoverished the main body of the people in those countries. By WILLIAM COBBETT. Two vols. bound in one.

 The second volume contains a list of the Pories, Nunneries, Abbeys, Hospitals, and other religious foundations seized on, or alienated, by the "Protestant Reformation," Sovereigns, and Parliaments; with an Appendix, containing Cobbett's Three Letters to the Pope, the Earl of Roden, and the Clergy of the Church of England, making this valuable book the only complete edition published in this country. Such was the great estimation in which this work was held when first published, that it was translated into five different languages. 18mo., 660 pages of neat and close letter-press, on fine paper, full sheep, or embossed muslin, 75 cents.

P. 8 cts.

Cobbett's Legacies.

Two Volumes in One.

 The first volume consists of six letters addressed to the Church Parsons in general, with a dedication to Bloomfield, Bishop of London. Subject: "Have the Clergy of the Established Church an equitable right to the Tithes, or to any other thing called Church Property, greater than the dissenters have to the same? and ought there, or ought there not, be a separation of the Church from the State?" The second volume is addressed to the working classes, with a dedication to Sir Robert Peel, Bart. Subject: "What is the Right which the Lords, Baronets, and Squires, have to the land?" 18mo., large type, full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 87½ cents.

P. 16 cts.

The End of Controversy.

By the REV. DR. MILNER. To which is added, his Address to the Lord Bishop of St. David's, and his Postscript to the same. 12mo. Illustrated with the Apostolic Tree. 50 cents.

Dr. Milner's work has gone through more editions than any controversial work in the English language; and it has been the means, under God, of bringing back thousands of the English people to the ancient faith. His arguments have never been answered.

Christian Directory,

Post. 24 cents

Guiding men to their eternal salvation ; with many corrections and additions. To this Edition are prefixed the life of the Author, and a method for the use of all, with two tables. By the Rev. ROBERT PARSONS, of the Society of Jesus. The good Christian has, in this estimable book, pointed out to him, the means by which he may obtain the rewards of eternal life ; while, at the same time, he is shown how he can overcome all the obstacles which impede his salvation. 12mo., 600 pages.

St. Augustin's Confessions.

Post. 15 cents.

Translated from the Latin, by a Catholic Clergyman. 18mo. 400 pages. Cloth, extra, 50 cents.

Ward's Cantos ;

Post. 12 cents.

OR, ENGLAND'S REFORMATION. A Poem, in four Cantos, by THOMAS WARD, Esq. To which are added, Publisher's Preface, Life of the Author, Notes to justify the facts related, and several Additions faithfully extracted from the Author's manuscript.

I sing the deeds of great King Harry,
Of Ned, his son, and daughter Mary ;
And of a nine days' inter-reign
Of a mock Queen, high Lady Jane ;
The true religion's alteration,
And Church of England's first foundation."

Introduction to the first Canto.

There is no other work upon so interesting a subject, which combines so much instruction with amusement. It unravels the dark deeds of the Reformation, and in the most biting satire exposes the beastly licentiousness and rapacity of its chief actors. 18mo., fine paper, clear type, full muslin, embossed and lettered, 50 cents.

Doctrinal and Scriptural Catechism.

BY THE REV. PERE COLLOT, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to secure for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices. 12mo. 440 pages, half bound, 38 cents; muslin, 50 cents; to schools and colleges we will put them at $25 per hundred.

"It is an admirable class book for instruction in the Christian doctrine, and equally admirable for parents, who will refresh their own knowledge of their religion, and teach their children their duty to God. We wish it were adopted as a reading book in all our schools."
—Brownson's Review.

Elements of History,

Combined with Geography and Chronology, for younger classes. By JOHN G. SHEA, author of the History and Discovery of the Mississippi. 12mo. Illustrated with 40 engravings and six maps.

Half-bound, cloth sides, 50 cents ; do. paper sides, 38 cents.

The author of this work (Mr. Shea,) has made History his particular study. He has produced a History which Catholics can safely place in the hands of their children without fear of meeting the usual lies against their Religion, which form part of most of the School Histories published.

An Elementary History of the United STATES. By JOHN G. SHEA.

16mo. Half Roan, 25 cents.

Many books of the kind are already before the public, not a few on the same topic as this. It was, however, thought that something might be done to avoid the faults of tone or matter in some and of manner in others.

According to the rule laid down in the best Continental works on Education, the answer is always given in full explicit terms, repeating and never supposing the question. In this way the child learns and retains in its memory complete sentences, comprising each a fact worthy of recollection, and not a detached date or name. In teaching, this should also be insisted upon, and when the class begins to compose, the advantage acquired by learning to speak complete sentences, will be evinced perhaps more strikingly than in any other way.

From the plan thus adopted this little book may be read continuously from first to last, omitting the questions, and will in this way serve as a primary reader.

Perrin's French and English Conversations, with New, Familiar, and easy Dialogues, each preceded by a suitable Vocabulary, French and English. Designed particularly for the use of Schools. Revised and corrected by C. PREUDHOMENE. 18mo., half bound, 25 cents.

Fables Amusantes, (PERRIN'S FABLES.)

Avec une Table Générale et Particulière des Mots et de leur signification en Anglais, selon l'ordre des Fables, pour en rendre la traduction plus facile à l'écolier. Par M. PERRIN. Edition revue et corrigée par un Maître de langue Française.

18mo. Half bound, 25 cents.

The French Companion,

Post. 8 cents.

Consisting of Familiar Conversations on every topic which can be useful to the Continental Traveller, together with Models of Letters, Notes, and Cards occasionally used.

In this work is exhibited the true pronunciation of the French Language, the silent letters being printed in Italic throughout the Work. By M. D. Rouillon. Fourth American from the twelfth London Edition. Revised and Corrected for the use of Schools. By P. MOULS, Professor of Languages. 256 pages, 18mo., half roan, 37½ cents.

Walkingame's Arithmetic;

Post. 8 cents.

Or, THE TUTOR'S ASSISTANT. Being a Compendium of Arithmetic, and Complete Question Book. Published for the use of the Christian Brothers' Schools in Canada and the British Provinces.

This work having been perused by several eminent Mathematicians and Accountants, is recommended as the best compendium hitherto published, for the use of Schools, or for private persons. By FRANCIS WALKINGAME, Writing-Master and Accountant. To which is added, a Compendium of Book-Keeping, by ISAAC FISHER.

Benjamin ; or, The Pupil of the Chris-

TIAN BROTHERS. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. SADLIER. 32mo., 250 pages. Price, 25 cents.

"The selection of this story is additional evidence of the good taste of Mrs. Sadlier, and of her right Catholic feeling. Benjamin is a boy who was thrown upon the world at a very early age, and who finally turned out well. The story is intended to illustrate the ease with which a good child is corrupted by bad companions, the difficulty of winning him from evil courses, and the immense importance of a truly Christian education for the young. The system pursued by the Christian Brothers is fully vindicated in the little book. We recommend it, not only to children, but to the attentive consideration of parents."

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY ARITHMETIC. Designed for the use of the junior pupils of the Brothers of the Christian Schools. By P. ULIC BURKE, M. D. E. 18mo., half-bound. 18 cts.

Approbation.

MONTREAL, March 30, 1858.

SIR.—We have examined the manuscript copy of the Arithmetic which you sent us, and think that it is all we could desire, and in clearness of expression and reasoning excels any that we have yet met with in the United States, and we have not the slightest objection to your stating that we have adopted it for our schools.

In saying that we have adopted it, we have not said sufficient to express our feelings; I should add that we make this engagement most heartily, and with sentiments of gratitude to the author, believing that he has conferred a great benefit on our Catholic Schools.

I am, with profound respect, Sir,

Your very humble and obedient Servant,

F. FACILE.

Dr. P. U. BURKE, Utica.

Provincial of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Extract from the Preface.

Treatises on Arithmetic are so numerous and excellent, that it might seem superfluous to add another to the number; yet it was thought that room might still be found for one, which, discarding, to a great degree, the multitude of complicated rules which, at the present day, encumber this science, and appealing more directly to the reasoning faculties of the pupils, might enable them to solve, if not all, nearly all of the most difficult problems in arithmetic by the aid of the first four fundamental rules; and it is hoped, that the reasoning powers thus applied to the discovery of the relations and analogies found to exist among numbers, would not cease there, but would continue to be applied by the pupils to other pursuits and to other circumstances wholly foreign to calculations, and with results as satisfactory as were the solutions of the problems on which they were first exercised. It will, I am sure, be also considered the very best possible introduction to algebra.

The various properties of numbers present a great variety of simple and easy methods of solving many problems which were, heretofore, considered to belong more properly to the domain of algebra, but which would require considerably more time even to put them into the form of an algebraic equation than it takes to solve them by reason and arithmetical analysis.

THE AMERICAN PRIMARY ARITHMETIC AND THE AMERICAN PRACTICAL ARITHMETIC.—Both these works are the production of P. U. Burke, M. D. E., and both are published by the Sadliers. They are among the very best Arithmetics we have seen. At first we were disposed to condemn the too technical accuracy of the introductory book; but when we consider that the exact sciences demand the utmost exactness, we believe it is best to familiarize the learner as early as possible with precise scientific terms. The book rightly prepared cannot be too technical. The larger work, the Practical Arithmetic, is far more than its modest author claims for it. It is not only an improved treatise on its subject, but an improved introduction to all analytical study.—Catholic Mirror.

Standard CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOKS.

 The following Prayer Books are all printed on fine paper, in clear, bold type, and for beauty of finish and durability of binding, cannot be excelled. They contain all the necessary prayers used by Catholics, with several additions, all carefully revised and issued under the approbation of the Most Rev. John Hughes, D.D. The most particular pains have been taken in the printing and binding of these Prayer Books.

This Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use, various devotions selected from approved Continental works. The Prayers, Litanies, &c., &c., have been collated with the Latin originals, wherever such works were known to exist. The English version of the Psalms here given, has been constructed by a comparison of the authorized Douay text (to which in substance it adheres), with the several other versions which from time to time have been sanctioned for the purpose of devotions. The Indulged Prayers have been literally translated from the Racotta, Bouvier's Treatise on Indulgences, and the last edition of the Celestæ Palmetuni. The particulars connected with the Confraternities, &c., to which Indulgences are attached, have been carefully collected from authorized sources, published with the approbation of His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. The American edition has been enlarged with numerous translations from the French and Italian, and selections of prayers in general use in this country; together with the complete offices of the Blessed Virgin, and Gospels and Collects for every Sunday throughout the year, and explanations of all the Festivals, with a large number of Novenas, Litanies, and a list of the Popes, &c., &c.

The following outline of the Contents, will give some idea of its fulness:—

Table of Feasts, Days of Obligation, &c.—A Complete Calendar—Summary of Christian Faith and Practice—Devotions for the Morning, three different forms—Grace, Angelus, Creed, Pater noster, Memoire, Latin and English—Evening Prayers, two different forms—Family Prayers—Night Prayers—Occasional Prayers.

Explanation of the Sundays and Principal Festivals of the Year—Fifteen Meditations on Christ's Passion—Prayers on the Five Wounds of Our Saviour—Stations of the Cross (three forms of)—Paraphrase on the Litany of Loretto—Rosary of Jesus—Pious Ejaculations, which may be used on various occasions.

Meditations for every Day in the Week—Acts of Faith, Hope, Charity—Universal Prayer—Thirty Days' Prayer to Our Blessed Redeemer, and to the Blessed Virgin Mary—Prayers of St. Bridget—Prayers for a Happy Death—The Psalter of Jesus—The Rosary of the Blessed Virgin [three Methods of saying]—The seven Dolors of the Blessed Virgin.

Instructions and Devotions for obtaining Indulgences.*

The Ordinary and Canon of the Mass, English and Latin—Mass for the Dead—Instructions and Devotions for the Mass—Method of hearing Mass by way of Meditation on the Passion—As an Exercise of Union with the Sacred Heart of Jesus during Mass—Instructions and Devotions for Communion, various forms—Method of hearing Mass for one who intends to communicate—A Mass of Thanksgiving after Communion—Agnus Dei—Quarant Ore—Visits to the Blessed Sacrament.

New and Complete Missal,

IN LATIN AND ENGLISH, with all the New Offices and the Proper of Ireland, Scotland, and the Jesuits. With engravings, and printed throughout in red and black.

This volume is a marvel of typography, and supplies a desideratum which had long been felt, viz.—an edition of the Missal for the use of the laity, with every Office for the whole year in full, clearly arranged, printed in a distinct type, and in the smallest possible compass.—The volume is 6 inches by  $3\frac{1}{2}$  in size, one inch thick, and weighs only 16 ozs. ; by post, 16 cents. Among other characteristics of this edition, for which see the preface, a new and useful arrangement has been adopted with regard to the Epistles and Gospels. Many of these, as is well known, are used for various Masses, and in other Missals have to be sought for in different parts of the book, often causing much trouble and confusion. In the present edition all the lessons are printed together in their proper order in the second part of the volume ; so that where the reference to the Epistle and Gospel is given in the Mass for the day, the reader knows at once to turn for them to the end of the book. The whole body of Scripture contained in the Missal is thus also thrown together under one view, with a table showing the occasion on which each passage is used.

English morocco, gilt edges, $2 00.

English calf, antique edges, $2 50.

Morocco, extra, $3 00.

Beveled, flexible, red and black, $4 00.

With Clasps and Guards, $5 00.

The Way to Heaven.

A SELECT MANUAL OF PRAYERS for Daily Use,
Compiled from approved Sources, with the Approbation of Most Rev. JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This Manual is intended as a companion to the more complete books of devotion already existing, and is compiled upon a plan which, it is hoped, will render it generally acceptable. Such a book as "The Golden Manual," or "Garden of the Soul," comprising forms of Devotions for every occasion, as well as instructions and explanations, is of course, an indispensable companion for the devout Catholic. But, besides this, most persons feel the want of a small compact Manual, containing a selection simply of such devotions as are most frequently required. This and the larger work together, will thus be found to supply all that is generally needed, for the purposes whether of public or private devotion. And each can be used according as circumstances suggest. This Manual, as well as its more complete companion, contains it will be seen, a large number of prayers to which indulgences are attached. Such are, for the sake of convenience, distinguished by an asterisk. A more convenient arrangement has been adopted for the Ordinary of the Holy Mass, Devotions at Mass, Mass for the Dead, and Vespers. New translations of the following Devotions, now published for the first time in English, are also inserted. Way of saying the Rosary with the Beads, four different ways are given. Visits to the Most Holy Sacrament, Mysteries of the Sacred Infancy, Dwellings in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Seven Words of Jesus on the Cross, Little Rosary of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Rosary of the Immaculate Conception, Rosary of the Seven Dolours of our Blessed Lady, Sorrows and Joys of St. Joseph, Devotions to St. Philip Neri, with a number of others.

We send this little book before the public, with the assurance that no expence has been spared to make it, with the exception of the Golden Manual, the most complete Manual published in this country.

Illustrated with nine Steel Engravings after Overbeck and other masters.

NEW AND REVISED EDITIONS.

THE MISSION BOOK ;

A Manual of Instructions and Prayers adapted to preserve the Fruits of the Mission. Drawn chiefly from the works of St. ALPHONSUS LIGUORI. Published under the direction of the Fathers of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, and Missionary Priests of St. Paul the Apostle, and with the Approbation of the Most Reverend JOHN HUGHES, D. D., Archbishop of New York.

This little manual of instruction and devotion, although now entirely remodelled, and enriched with much additional matter, is substantially the same book which, in other countries, particularly in Austria, Bohemia, Belgium, Holland, and France, has been already so greatly blessed. It contains all the most necessary and general devotions: namely, Morning and Night Prayers, Prayers for Holy Mass, for Vespers and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and also very excellent prayers for Confession and Communion. It contains also the particular devotions in most common use among Catholics, and other very useful and animating devotions, such as the Visits to the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar, and to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Besides these, it contains wholesome reflections for daily or frequent meditation, which will prove a powerful means to maintain you in the fear of mortal sin, the desire of a holy life, and the practice of virtue.

In this little book you will find also a short Catechism, by way of questions and answers, which contains all those great truths of your religion which it is most necessary for your salvation to know, and by means of which you will be able to instruct your children and your domestics in the same necessary doctrines. Here also are contained very plain and ample instructions on every part of the Sacrament of Penance, like those you heard in the Mission, and moreover a little treatise on General Confession, with a full and exact Examination of Conscience.

In case of your being taken ill, there is also a Manual for the Sick, which you can make use of with great profit, and where you may learn to assist others in their sickness.

PRINTED ON THE FINEST PAPER FROM NEW AND ELEGANT TYPE, BOUND IN THE STRONGEST MANNER, WITH FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS. 500 PAGES.

This book of prayers presents itself to the Catholic world with the sanction of the highest authority in the Church, and its use confers high privileges, which will make it the vade mecum of every Catholic. The work has been translated by the Rev. Ambrose St. John, of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, in the diocese of Birmingham, England, from the last Roman edition. The translation is entirely new, no use having been made of any existing translation of prayers occurring in the Raccolta, which have appeared in various books of devotion, from time to time. It was advertised for publication several years ago, was already translated, and about to be printed, when the reverend translator was advised to withhold it for a time, as it might be, that, on mature consideration, certain changes might be desirable. When, after a lapse of nine years, the translator read his manuscript again, he concluded to re-translate the work for the most part, and cheerfully recommenced his work. The result of the double labors of Father St. John is now presented to the Catholic world, and will now become, as the gifted translator says, "the Church Prayer Book of Private Devotion," as the Missal and Breviary are her books of public devotion.

Father St. John, having obtained the approbation of Cardinal Wiseman, begged permission to print in English a translation of the "Raccolta," and also, that those who made use of it should obtain all the indulgences attached to the original work, which was granted by Pope Pius, in the following Rescript:

[TRANSLATION.]

MOST BLESSED FATHER:—In order to promote thereby the piety of the faithful in England, Ambrose St. John, Priest of the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, in the diocese of Birmingham, humbly prays for permission to print, in English, a translation of the book entitled Raccolta di Orazioni, &c., alle quali sono annesse le SS. Indulgence, having first obtained the approbation of his Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster; and also, that the faithful, who make use of this translation, may gain all the indulgences annexed to the original.

After an audience of the Holy Father, granted February 3, 1856, our most Holy Lord Pope Pius IX., by Divine Providence Pope, on an application made by me, the undersigned, Secretary of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, has, of his goodness, answered by Rescript, in favor of the grace, according to the terms of the petition, provided the translation be made from the last Roman edition, and it being understood, that the Decree printed at the end of this edition, remains in full force.

Given at Rome, from the House of the same Sacred Congregation, on the day and year aforesaid.

AL BARNABO, Secretary.

We approve of the translation, by virtue of the above Rescript of His Holiness.

✠ N. CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP.

Westminster, Oct. 23, 1857.

We cheerfully unite in approbation of this work, as the same has been approved by his Eminence, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster.

New York, July, 1858.

✠ JOHN, Archbishop of New York.

THE RACCOLTA—This book supplies an absolute want; it fills up an inexplicable, because unnatural vacuum in our English Catholic books of devotion. It comes to us with the highest recommendation, and under the best approval. Every one who wishes a reliable list of the "Indulgences," and the conditions for acquiring them, should obtain this book immediately. It is the only book in the English language, which has proper authority for all the details concerning Indulgences, and the only one which has proper approval of the translation of indulgenced prayers.—Catholic Mirror.

After the numerous complaints which have been made, by prelates and critics, of the unauthorized devotions which abound in our many prayer-books, it is refreshing to see one about which there cannot possibly be any question. The Raccolta delle Indulgenze, of which the present work is a translation, is pre-eminently the Roman manual of private devotion. It is now in its thirteenth edition, and is more generally used in Italy, than any other prayer-book. The use of indulgenced devotions, in preference to any others, cannot be too strongly insisted upon. To say nothing of the benefits resulting therefrom, to the living and the dead, the use of them increases our faith in the Church, and binds us more closely to the Holy Father, to whom the power of granting indulgences alone belongs.

Father St. John's translation has evidently been made with scrupulous care and fidelity; and commands our admiration by the elegant simplicity and directness of its style. The authorization of the Holy Father is prefixed to the work, signed by Cardinal Barnabo, Secretary of the Propaganda, and is followed by the approbation of the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster. The present reprint of the English edition, is made with the approbation of His Grace, the Archbishop of New York. It is printed in a convenient form, on fine paper, in elegant style, and with uncommon typographical correctness. It reflects great credit on its publishers, who will, undoubtedly, reap a rich reward from their enterprise.—Boston Pilot.

WORKS ON IRELAND.

P. 50 cts.

THE HISTORY OF IRELAND, Ancient and Modern.

Taken from the most authentic records, and dedicated to the Irish Brigade, by the ABBE MACGEOGHEGAN. Translated from the French by PATRICK O'KELLY, Esq., with four fine Steel Engravings. This important national history is printed in clear type, on fine paper, with marginal lines, and has been most favorably reviewed by the American and European Press.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Our citizens have now a most favorable opportunity of supplying themselves with the best History of Ireland extant. There are several works devoted to the subject, but some are corrupt, others bigoted, many incomplete and inaccurate. We may say of Keating, Leland, Plowden, Taylor, Moore, Smiles, &c., that their histories are defective or incomplete. Common consent seems to have fixed upon the work of the Abbé MacGeoghegan as the best. The author was chaplain of the illustrious 'Irish Brigade,' a patriotic son of Ireland, and an accomplished scholar of polished and unusual acquirements. He had the best opportunities and full leisure in the French capital for the formation of his history. It is considered a work most faithful and honest, accurate in detail, liberal, patriotic, and high-toned in sentiment, and more complete than any other History of Ireland that we possess."—Freeman's Journal.

The late lamented Thomas Davis, in an Essay on Irish History, speaks of this work as follows:—

"Well, as to this National History—L'Abbé MacGeoghegan published a history of Ireland in French, in 8 vols., quarto, dedicated to the Irish Brigade. Writing in France, he was free from English censorship—writing for 'The Brigade,' he avoided the impudence of Huguenot historians. The sneers of the Deist, Voltaire, and the lies of the Catholic Cambrensis, receive a sharp chastisement in his preface, and a full answer in his text. He was a man of the most varied acquirements, and an elegant writer. For the student of Irish History it is the best book in the world. He is graphic, easy, and Irish. He is not a bigot, but apparently a genuine Catholic. His information as to the number of troops and other facts of our Irish Battles, is superior to any other general Historian, and they who know it well need not blush, as most Irishmen must now, at their ignorance of Irish History."

The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation.

THE RISE AND FALL OF THE IRISH NATION, by Sir JONAH BARRINGTON, one of his Majesty's counsel at law, judge of the high court of admiralty of Ireland, and member of the late Irish parliament for the cities of Tuam and Clogher. The work contains much valuable information and interesting matter never before published, sketches of the leading members of both sides who figured so conspicuously during that memorable epoch of Irish history. It also contains the red and black list, showing the bribery and corruption by which the Union was carried. The work is a handsome royal 12mo. volume of 472 pages, beautifully printed on fine paper, with portraits of the Author, Fitzgerald, Curran, Grattan, and other distinguished personages on both sides, in all 29 miniature portraits on Steel.

The above work is admitted by competent judges, to be one of the most beautiful productions of the day. It was sold in Dublin, when first published, at $10. Such is its intrinsic merits, that it has been admitted by the Superintendants of Public Schools, into the District School Libraries of the various States. No Irishman, who is desirous of becoming acquainted with that epoch of his country's history—the rise of the volunteers—the declaration of rights—and the debates connected with that tyrannous act, the Legislative Union; should fail to possess a copy of this admirable work.

Imitation Morocco, embossed, comb edges, full gilt back, $1.50.

Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, $1.

Sheep, lettered, $1.

" 'The Rise and Fall of the Irish Nation,' is one of the most picturesque and eloquent books in the whole range of our language. Its sketches of political scenes and characters, are, without comparison, the most life-like we know. It is a treasure of a book; one we would not exchange for any ten National books we have."—American Celt.

Valentine McClutchy.

VALENTINE McCLUTCHY, the Irish Agent; the Chronicles of Castle Cumber; together with the Pious Aspirations, Permissions, and other Sanctified Privileges of Solomon McSlime, a Religious Attorney. By WILLIAM CARLETON.

In this work Mr. Carleton has depicted the wrongs and sufferings of his countrymen—their patience and forbearance under their sufferings. And in the character of Valentine McClutchy, he shows the villany practised by the agents of absentee landlords, upon those tenants who are so unfortunate as to hold lands from them.

And as a specimen of a religious Attorney, we would challenge creation to produce a more correct picture than that drawn by Carleton of Solomon McSlime. We venture to say that there is not an Irishman, who would read ten pages of the work, that would be without it for ten times the cost.—Full muslin, embossed, gilt back, 75 cents.

Half roan, embossed, 50 cents.

Missale Romanum.

Ex decreto Sacrosancti Concilii Tridentini restitum, Sancti Pii. V. Pontificus Maximi, jussu editum, Clementis VIII. et Urbani VIII. auctoritate recognitum. Editio novissima, in qua omnia accurate suis locis disposita sunt, et missæ novissimæ sanctorum adjectæ.

“ “ gilt edges, - 4 50.

Turkey, super extra, - 5 50.

This edition of the Missal is printed from good bold type. It has been carefully read by a competent clergyman, appointed for the purpose. It is 8vo. size, therefore admirably calculated for the use of clergymen on the Missions.

A supplement containing all the new Masses for the United States, including the Mass of the Immaculate Conception, and St. Titus, has just been added to this edition, which renders it the best and most complete of its size now to be had. With the approbation of the Rt. Rev. CORNELIUS DENVER, D. D., Bishop of Down and Connor.

Breviarium Romanum, 4 vols. 12mo. Printed on good paper. Half bound, strong, only $4 00.

Extracts from the Prospectus.

At the present time, when the progress of Catholicity demands the utmost expansion of literature to repel the erroneous statements of adversaries jealous of such progress, it becomes the duty of Catholics to unite, and avail themselves of every means at disposal, to advance Catholic Literature to the greatest possible extent.

The possession of the valuable copyrights of many of the most important current works, such as "Dr. Lingard's History of England," several of Cardinal Wiseman's most celebrated productions, and numerous other valuable books, many of which are stereotyped, and of which the sale, already considerable in the colonies, as well as in this country, is capable of being greatly extended, renders it certain that a large profit can be realised on the existing property; whilst, by increased capital, the publication of many other works important to Catholic Literature will be secured. By calculations based on experience, it is certain that a return of from 10 to 15 per cent. may be obtained on the capital employed.

In bringing the objects of the Company before the notice of the public, no extraordinary efforts or any great show of names have been made in order to attract attention; yet the Directors are able to announce that the Shareholders already number seven hundred, holding from a single share up to one hundred, amongst whom are several prelates and dignitaries of the Church, and many of the clergy and influential laymen, and that the list is being daily increased.

While calling upon Catholics generally to make known the claims of the Company for support, the Directors desire to impress upon them that it will become the means of giving additional strength to the Catholic religion in these countries, by causing a great increase of proper, useful, and truthful literature, and by the publication of works which few, if any, individual Catholic publishers would undertake. It also presents to those who wish to invest their money, a safe mode of doing so, there being every certainty of a secure and profitable return.

It will be seen, from the following extract from the Memorandum of the Association, that the Company desire to aid existing bookselling establishments to the best of their ability, and that restriction or monopoly forms no part of their plans:—"The objects for which the Company is established are the publication and sale of Works connected with Catholic Literature in all its departments, and the general business of bookselling and bookselling agency, and the sale and agency of Pictures, Prints, and such other articles as are incidental thereto or connected therewith."

Application for Shares to be made to the Secretary, Mr. WILLIAM MARSHALL, at the Offices of the Company, No. 61, New Bond Street, and 22 Paternoster Row, London, or to

JOHN MURPHY & CO., Agents for the U. States, 182 Baltimore Street, Baltimore.

☞ The attention of the Rt. Rev. Bishops, the Rev. Clergy, and Laity of the U. S. is respectfully solicited to the aim and objects of this Company—Parties desirous of encouraging this enterprise, will have the double advantage of securing a good stock, likely to pay an annual dividend of from 10 to 15 per cent. and at the same time aiding in the dissemination of Catholic truth.

☞ Several of the Rt. Rev. Bishops, of the U. S. have already subscribed liberally to this stock.

☞ Parties in the U. States, who may desire to secure annual payments to friends in England, Ireland, or Scotland, will find this stock well suited to that purpose.

☞ MURPHY & Co. will keep the Company's Publications regularly on sale at low rates

The Catholic Publishing Company of London.

The Second Annual Ordinary General Meeting of the Company was held on the 26th May, 1859, at the Hanover-square Rooms, 4, Hanover-square, London: WM. B. TURNBULL, Esq., in the chair.

BRIEF EXTRACTS FROM THE LAST REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

"The Directors of the Catholic Publishing and Bookselling Company, Limited, in presenting this, their third Report, have much gratification in stating that the hopes they entertained in the formation of the Company, as expressed in the original prospectus, have been amply sustained, and their desire to popularize sound Catholic literature, has met a warm public response, in evidence of which, the Directors are able to state, that from the date of the last Report to the present day, the capital stock of the Company has been increased by the extension of 10,873 shares issued in the United Kingdom and other parts of the world, and the demand continues of a steady and increasing character: thus making the total number of shares disposed of up to this date about 23,000."

"The Directors therefore, feel justified in congratulating the shareholders on the continued prosperity of the Company, which is now commencing the third year of its operations. The financial report shows that the Company is rapidly consolidating its strength in a commercial point of view, and therefore the Directors are again enabled to recommend that a dividend be declared at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum. This gratifying fact proves that in undertaking the duty of endeavoring to disseminate Catholic literature, by agencies not hitherto in action, the Company has entered on a path not only honorable in itself, as aiding in the spread of religious truths far and wide, but also conducive to the prosperity of the shareholders, who derive a larger and steadier profit than they would from many of the numerous projects which on all sides invite investment. It is most cheering thus to find that the battle against error in error's own boasted stronghold, the press, is linked with results which bring substantial advantages to those whose capital is the weapon wielded in the honorable conflict."

"From India, as before, there comes a most cheering voice of encouragement. The progress of the Company in India has been marked by circumstances of the most gratifying character. In other distant countries the work of the Company progresses well."

The American agent reports that a considerable number of shares have been sold, and great interest manifested in the extension of the Company in the United States."

"The Directors being anxious to provide for the young as well as for those of more advanced years, have entered into arrangements with a FRENCH ASSOCIATION FOR THE PUBLICATION OF LARGE CATHOLIC ENGRAVINGS, to issue a series of these, with the text in English. The object of this Association is to give, at a very low price, large well-executed illustrations of the principal subjects of the Catholic religion. Upwards of 120,000 copies of the first engravings have been sold in France. These, indeed, are books also, since they contain a text which is explanatory, with evidences of the truth represented by the picture, so that the text and design are mutually descriptive. There is nothing in the religious picture-trade of the present day that approaches in its kind to these large Catholic Engravings. The work of a missionary of the Society of Jesus, they are striking in design, accurate also in exposition of doctrine and morals, and are in every respect worthy of the object for which they are intended. The Directors entertain no doubt that the diffusion of these beautiful prints will be a most important auxiliary in Catholic education."

The attention of the Catholics of the United States is respectfully invited to the foregoing extracts, as a gratifying evidence of the prosperous condition and success of this Company. They have already issued several very valuable Books, and have announced some very important works for early publication. The undersigned is prepared to supply ORDERS for the STOCK, PAY DIVIDENDS, and to give all necessary information to such as may desire to invest in the Stock of this Company.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

OUR MUSICAL FRIEND has reached its thirty-first number, and its continued and increasing excellence show that it is meeting with the prosperity it deserves. The best Composers of the country—among whom are M. Strakosch, M. Maretzek, Wm. Mason, Charles Fradel, Arthur Napoleon, S. B. Mills, A. W. Berg, Robert Stoepel, B. Beer, George Leach—write for it. The selections from the European masters are made with discrimination and knowledge, of the popular taste. A better collection of Music, vocal and instrumental, could not be obtained for any sum; and it is gratifying to know, that at the almost nominal price of ten cents a number, it is a remunerative enterprise. OUR MUSICAL FRIEND is published weekly, by C. B. Seymour & Co., 107 Nassau street.—Harpers' Weekly, July 9, 1859.

No family should be without it, and purchasers should bear in mind the necessity of asking for the FRIEND, published by Seymour & Co., another musical work of a similar appearance having lately been started.—N. Y. Day Book, July 29.

There seems to be no flagging in the enterprise, either in the regularity of its issue or the care bestowed in selecting its contents. Beauty and simplicity seem to be the characteristics of its selections. If any doubt of the permanent value of this music, a glance of the first volume bound (by the publishers for 50@60 cents) will convince one that in no manner can 204 pages of the choicest music be obtained bound for anything like the price here charged, viz: $2.40. Next to cheap reading cheap music is highly desirable, and we conceive by thus endeavoring to draw especial attention to this enterprise we are doing the cause of good music in the United States an actual service, i. e., if some of our readers should chance to take our advice and send for a year's issue—and the better way would be to get the first three volumes bound and then to take the numbers weekly, either from a newspaper agency or from the publishers through the mail. There need be no fear concerning it that it may fail. An edition of many thousands, daily increasing, renders its future continuance no longer problematical. Try it ye millions of young and old musicians.

The HERALD is one of the oldest Catholic papers published in this country, being the third on the list of its contemporaries.

The great object of its Proprietor is now, as it always has been, to give to its readers the earliest and most reliable RELIGIOUS and SECULAR INTELLIGENCE from the OLD COUNTRIES, and at the same time to present to them all the INTERESTING CHURCH NEWS that may transpire in the now numerous Dioceses happily established in this land of their birth or adoption.

In addition to this duty, it will at all times, and on all proper occasions, endeavor to defend, with its best ability, the TRUTH and PURITY of the CATHOLIC FAITH, against the ignorant or malicious misrepresentations of its enemies.

At the same time, a portion of the paper is devoted especially to LITERARY SUBJECTS, consistent with the moral teachings of our Holy Church, and to such matters of AMUSEMENT as will be found interesting and instructive in the Family Circle.

The HERALD and VISITOR is furnished to single subscribers at $2.50 per annum, invariably in advance. Any subscriber, procuring another, and sending to the office $4 in advance, shall receive two copies for one year—sent separately. Any person procuring two subscribers, and sending us $6 in advance, shall receive three copies—sent separately. Five copies will be sent to one address for $8 a year. Ten copies will be sent to one address for $15. When the names of subscribers are written on wrappers, and the papers distributed by the postmaster, instead of the head of the club, twenty-five cents extra will be charged to each subscriber.

Metropolitan Record,

Official Organ of the Most Rev. Abp. of N. York.

JOHN MULLALY, Editor and Proprietor.

It is the object of this Journal to supply the Catholics of the United States with all the important and interesting news of the Catholic world, and particularly with information in regard to events and occurrences connected with the Church in this country.

It is designed to make THE RECORD a good and desirable Family Journal, and it, therefore, contains a great variety of USEFUL, INTERESTING and INSTRUCTIVE READING MATTER. Its readers are also duly informed of the progress of events in the SECULAR as well as the RELIGIOUS world.

The progress of Catholic Educational Institutions meet with that attention to which they are entitled by their importance. CHURCH DEDICATIONS occurring in and about the City of New York are fully and accurately reported.

THE MISCELLANEOUS READING is both entertaining and instructive.

The EDITORIAL COLUMNS are devoted to the discussion of the prominent topics of the day, and all other subjects that properly come within the scope of such a Journal. No part is taken in political controversy, nor in the disputes between partizan politicians.

In conclusion, the Editor refers with pride and pleasure to the following letter of approval from the MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK:

NEW YORK, November 3, 1858.

“DEAR SIR: I have read carefully your plan of a Catholic paper, and approve of the same in all its parts. Its scope is new and comprehensive, and will fill up a chasm without necessarily interfering with other papers already established. You have my sanction to proceed with as little delay as possible, and you shall have my approbation and support. Yours, faithfully, in Christ,

† JOHN, Archbishop of New York.”

This Journal is published WEEKLY at No. 371 Broadway, and delivered to City and Mail Subscribers on the following terms;

Price per Year served by Carrier .....$3 00

Price per Year served by Mail..... 2 50

Price per Year, for six Copies or more ..... 2 00

To Canadian subscribers THE RECORD will be served for $3 per year, as there is an advance of fifty cents in the postage; while to subscribers in Ireland it will be $3 50, for the same reason.

 Subscriptions invariably in advance.

 All Orders and Communications should be addressed to the Editor,
No. 371 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

We welcome with pleasure the first appearance of this weekly journal. *** The METROPOLITAN RECORD is Catholic in its views, and the venerable Archbishop Hughes writes a letter to the Editor approving of the enterprise. It will be found, if we may judge from the tone of the articles, and the character of the Editor, free from any of that rancor and asperity which too frequently disfigure the pages of professed religious journals.—New York Daily News.

The METROPOLITAN RECORD is the largest Catholic newspaper in the U. States, being printed on sixteen pages. The style of the articles and literary reviews are of an order that give promise of this journal becoming a most valuable addition to the Catholic press in America.—Cal. Monitor.

It is printed in the form of a very neat sheet of sixteen pages, of four columns each—its typography and paper beautiful, and the leading matter of the genuine Catholic brand.—N. Y. Herald.

Grand and Square Piano-Fortes.

WM. KNABE & CO.

Would respectfully invite the attention of the public, and especially those in want of a FIRST CLASS PIANO, to their well assorted stock of instruments, which, for power and sweetness of tone, easy and agreeable touch, and beauty of finish, have by the best of judges, been pronounced unrivaled by any in the country.

As to the relative merits of our PIANOS, we would refer to the

CERTIFICATES OF EXCELLENCE IN OUR POSSESSION, FROM

THALBERG, STRAKOSCH, G. SATTER, AND H. VIEUXTEMPS,

I cannot but congratulate you upon the immense progress and improvements which you continually make on your Pianos, which in my opinion, rank among the very best in the country.

M. STRAKOSCH.

Among the great qualities which distinguish your Pianos, is the evenness of tone, agreeable and easy touch, and volume of tone.

S. THALBERG.

I found that the Piano was, in every particular, an excellent one, and your name has, since that time, been fresh in my memory.

G. SATTER.

I was delighted on hearing the clear and full tone of your really First Class Pianos, and I congratulate you on the progress you have made in this branch of art. H. VIEUXTEMPS. As also from some of the most distinguished Professors and Amateurs in the country; also, to the following HIGHEST PREMIUMS, received within the last four years: GOLD MEDALS at the Maryland Institute, 1855, 1856, 1857, 1858. SILVER MEDALS at the Metropolitan Institute, Washington, 1857; also, MEDAL at the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, 1856; FIRST PREMIUM at Mechanics' Institute, Richmond, 1855, 1856, 1858. GOLD MEDALS at State Fair, Montgomery, Ala., 1857, 1858. SILVER MEDAL at Ohio State Fair, 1859. All instruments of our manufacture have the full iron frame, and are guaranteed for five years.

Particular attention paid to the selection of instruments for distant orders, and a privilege of exchange granted at any time within 6 months, if the instrument should not prove entirely satisfactory. A liberal discount to Clergymen, Teachers and Schools. Terms liberal. Wholesale dealers will find it to their advantage to give us a call, as by greatly increased facilities, we are enabled to fill all orders with despatch.

Constantly on hand, a large assortment of MELODEONS, from the best Factories.

SECOND HAND PIANOS at Great Bargains, at prices from $30 to $150. Pianos Exchanged, Hired, and Tuned. A call is respectfully solicited.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

New Pictorial Edition, 1,500 Pictorial Illustrations.

9,000 to 10,000 New Words in the Vocabulary. Table of Synonyms, by Prof. GOODRICH. Table giving Pronunciation of names of 8,000 distinguished persons of modern times. With other new features, together with all the matter of previous editions. In one volume of 1,750 pages. Price $6 50.

C. & G. MERRIAM, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

"A work that was already indispensable to every English scholar. The new additions are in the right direction."—N. York Freeman's Journal, July 30, 1859.

"We have, in this now universally recognized work, a standard Dictionary of our own, which leaves the great standards of the mother country in the shade."
New York Tablet, Sept. 24, 1859.

"The definitions are full, clear and unambiguous, and the different meanings of each word are impressed on the mind and memory by apt quotations from the works of standard authors. Johnson allowed his bitter party feeling to influence his definitions on more than one occasion. In Webster there is no indication of any unfair bias, and we willingly bear testimony to the accuracy of his definitions on Catholic subjects."
Metropolitan Record, June 28, 1859.

"In my opinion, it may be justly regarded as a standard work of English orthography, pronunciation and definition."
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8, 1859. M. J. SPALDING, Bp. of Louisville.

NEWARK, N. J., October 10th.
"Your Pictorial Edition needs no praise from me, it is as near perfection as we can reasonably expect such a work to be brought."
† J. ROOSEVELT BAYLEY, Bp. of Newark.

[From Most Rev. Peter Richard Kenrick D. D., Archbishop of St. Louis.]
"The most complete edition of what, without hesitation, may be pronounced the best English Dictionary."
St. Louis, October 10th, 1859. † PETER RICHARD, Abp.

"We understand that in the revision of the work, a Catholic clergyman had the supervision of the definition of words expressing points of Catholic dogmas, discipline, or ceremonial; and had we been told nothing of it, the extreme accuracy of these definitions would have led us to suspect it. Webster's orthography is good enough for us. His definitions—the substantial matter of a Dictionary—establish beyond question, his immense superiority as a lexicographer over any other of the English language. We are glad to see his work being universally adopted by Catholic Schools."
Catholic Telegraph.

[From Right Rev. James Duggan, D. D., Bishop of Chicago.]

CHICAGO, October 18th, 1859.
"Webster's Dictionary has been for years the only authority I have consulted on the language. I shall take every opportunity of testifying to its unrivalled excellence, and by so doing I shall regard myself as serving the cause of Letters."
† JAMES DUGGAN, Bp. of Chicago.

GET THE BEST.

REASONS FOR BUYING WORCESTER'S QUARTO DICTIONARY,

IN ONE VOLUME OF 1,800 PAGES.

1. Because it is a new and fresh work, every one of the words and subjects contained in it having been independently and carefully re-examined.

2. Because it is the most complete and elaborate Dictionary of the English Language ever published.

3. Because it contains nearly twenty thousand words and meanings not to be found in any other single Dictionary.

4. Because it gives the correct mode of spelling and of pronouncing words, and presents, in cases of dispute or of doubt, the different methods and opinions of all those who have given special attention to these subjects.

5. Because, in the Origin and Derivation of Words, it is more accurate than any other English Dictionary, presenting, in cases of uncertainty, the opinions of all eminent philologists and scholars.

6. Because the grammatical forms and inflexions of words are given more fully than in any other English Dictionary.

7. Because its definitions are complete, accurate, and concise, and amply supported by citations from the best authors, both ancient and modern; not only aptly illustrating the significations, but also constituting a rich collection of the maxims and gems of the language.

8. Because it contains more than eleven hundred separate articles on Synonyms, in which the distinctions between more than five thousand synonymous words are accurately and concisely stated, and illustrated by short and well-chosen examples.

9. Because it is illustrated by about fifteen hundred admirably executed woodcuts, drawn expressly for the work, and inserted in their proper places in the pages.

10. Because in Natural History, Science and Art, it not only includes accurate descriptions and definitions of objects, words, and terms before known or used, but also of those recently discovered, invented, or introduced.

11. Because, in words of old English, in local and provincial words and expressions, both English and American, in phrases, in modern words and significations, in technical and commercial words and terms, it is far more complete than any similar work.

12. Because there are numerous notes scattered throughout the volume, containing rare, valuable, and interesting information on various important subjects; as well as critical remarks on the orthography, the pronunciation, the etymology, the grammatical form and construction, and on the peculiar technical, local, provincial, and American uses of words.

13. Because it contains copious pronouncing vocabularies of Geographical and Proper Names, a full collection of Phrases and Quotations from Foreign Languages, a Key to the Pronunciation of Classical and Scripture Proper Names, and a complete list of Abbreviations used in writing and printing.

14. Because it contains elaborate, intelligible, and practical treatises on the Origin, Formation, and Etymology of the English Language, on Orthography, Pronunciation, English Grammar, and other important subjects.

15. Because all the subjects included in its various departments are treated with good faith, and strict impartiality towards all men and all sects.

To those engaged in mercantile pursuits, any invention that will facilitate their labors is highly worthy of notice, as well as of extensive patronage. One of the most important inventions of the present age, is that of a Pen, that possesses the necessary qualities of fineness in mark, and durability in use. Præeminently such are those of JOHN FOLEY, MANUFACTURER OF FINE GOLD PENS AND PENCILS. Their superior value is tested by the long time he has been engaged in our city in their manufacture.

We, the subscribers, who know the value of these Pens, from constant use of them for a number of years, cheerfully recommend them to those who wish for the best and most perfect Pen ever made.

Approbation of the Mt. Rev. the Archbishop of Baltimore.

ST. VINCENT'S MANUAL, revised by a Very Reverend Clergyman, Examiner of Books, is approved by me, and recommended to the faithful of my charge.

Given under my hand at Baltimore, this 9th day of November, 1859.

† FRANCIS PATRICK,
Archbishop of Baltimore.

Just published, in an elegant and attractive volume of nearly 1000 pages, from entirely new stereotype plates, in two different sizes, in 18o and 24o, and embellished with New and Beautiful Engravings, in the finest style of the art; in various bindings, new and beautiful styles, from 75 cts. to $10 per copy.

A New, Revised and Enlarged Edition of

Saint Vincent's Manual,

Originally Prepared for the use of the Sisters of Charity in the United States.

The Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's having desired to introduce such alterations and improvements as would adapt this Popular Prayer Book, which is the Ordinary Manual, not only of their community, but of thousands of Pious Catholics throughout the United States, Canada &c., have introduced into this Edition, fuller instructions on the Sacraments, New Devotions for Mass, the Way of the Cross, the Vesper Hymns of the Year, with Instructions on the various Scapulars, the Forty Hours' Devotion, a Treatise on Indulgences, &c., and the translation of the Indulged Prayers, to conform to the authorized English version of the Racolta.

The Publishers, encouraged by the strong Recommendations and liberal encouragement extended not only by the Pastors of the Church and the Laity, to the former edition, of which upwards of 50,000 copies were sold in a few years, have spared no expense to render it still more deserving of their approval. The present Edition has been Stereotyped anew, in the best possible style, availing themselves of all the latest improvements to adapt it to the convenience of the reader. The Devotions in constant use, such as Morning and Evening Prayers, Devotions for Mass, &c., are printed from beautiful large type, and throughout the entire Book, the greatest care has been observed, in the selection of a clear, bold and distinct type, easily read, and not fatiguing to the eye.

The Publishers believe that they can safely recommend this, as the handsomest and most complete Prayer Book ever issued in this country.

They refer with pleasure to the approbation of the Most Rev. the Archbishop of Baltimore, and to the following recommendations to the former edition.

Early orders from the Trade, Religious Communities, and others, respectfully solicited.

A STANDARD CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK.

RECOMMENDED FOR GENERAL USE, BY THE Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, and the Right Rev. Bishops of the U. S.

Who composed the Seventh Provincial Council, held in Baltimore in May, 1849, and the National Council in May, 1852, as being the most COMPLETE, COMPREHENSIVE, and ACCURATE CATHOLIC PRAYER BOOK published in the United States.

SAINT VINCENT'S MANUAL:

A SELECTION OF PRAYERS and DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES, originally prepared for the use of the Sisters of Charity in the United States, with the approbation of Superiors.

Revised, Enlarged, and Adapted to General Use.

APPROBATION OF THE MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE, AND THE RIGHT REV. BISHOPS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Considering St. Vincent's Manual as one of the most comprehensive and judiciously compiled Prayer Books, I take great pleasure in recommending it to the Faithful.

Baltimore, April 17, 1848.

† SAMUEL, Abp. of Baltimore.

I cheerfully concur in the foregoing approbation of the Mt. Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Pittsburg, April 24, 1848.

† MICHAEL, Bp. of Pittsburg.

I have examined St. Vincent's Manual with some attention, and find it not only more comprehensive than any Prayer Book now in use, but also better adapted to the wants of the Catholic community at large, to whom I take great pleasure in recommending it.

† RICHARD PIUS, Bp. of Nashville.

St. Vincent's Manual is an Encyclopedia of Devotional Exercises, more complete, we think, than any Prayer Book in any language.

† JOHN BAPTIST, Bp. of Cincinnati.

I fully concur with the Most Rev. Archbishop, and other prelates above mentioned, in approving and recommending St. Vincent's Manual.

† IG. ALOYSIUS REYNOLDS, Bp. of Charleston.

We concur in the foregoing approbations and recommend the work in our RESPECTIVE DIOCESES.

† MICHAEL, Bp. of Mobile.

† ANTHONY, Bp. of New Orleans.

† JAMES OLIVER, Bp. of Chicago.

† JOHN LAMY, Vicar-Apostolic of New Mexico.

† JOSEPH, Bp. of St. Paul.

† JOS. S. ALEMANY, Bp. of Monterey.

† F. N. BLANCHET, Abp. of Oregon City.

† AUG. M. M. BLANCHET, Bp. of Nesqueley.

I most cheerfully concur in the foregoing recommendations, and earnestly recommend the use of St. Vincent's Manual to the Faithful of my Diocese.

Toronto, 6th January, 1851.

† ARMANDUS FR. MY., Bishop of Toronto.

We approve St. Vincent's Manual, and recommend it to the Faithful of our diocese, as a book well adapted to nourish their piety. We have added to the table which exhibits the days of fast, of abstinence, and of obligation in the United States, that which is observed in the diocese of Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 11, 1850.

BRIEF EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Without exception this is by far the best Catholic Prayer Book in our language. It was originally prepared for the use of the Sisters of Charity; and in adapting it for general use, such additions as the WAY OF THE CROSS, the prayers of BONA MORIS, MEDITATIONS FOR EVERY DAY IN THE MONTH, the SCAPULAR, LIVING ROSARY, MONTH OF MARY, &c., give it that standard value that will make this the most popular of all our excellent prayer books."

Pittsburg Catholic.

"The work is neatly executed; and for intrinsic merit, as a manual and collection of devotions, we would give it the preference over any other that we know in English. Our reasons are, its greater variety of exercises, and especially its large number of LITANIES."

Freeman's Journal.

"The excellence of this prayer book consists in the accuracy which characterizes its various parts, and in the numerous prayers and instructions which have been introduced into it. It contains full explanations of all the principal observances of Catholic piety, and of several devotions which have never been published in any other English prayer book, for instance; the MONTH OF MARY, the LIVING ROSARY, the ARCH-CONFRATERNITY FOR THE CONVERSION OF SINNERS, RULE OF LIFE FOR A PIOUS CHRISTIAN, &c. The Prayers before and after Communion and Confession are very copious, and the Litanies are numerous. One of the most useful additions to the work is the Burial Service in Latin and English for children and adults, which will enable those who assist at that ceremony to follow the officiating clergyman. The Psalms and other devotions for the evening service of the church are arranged to suit the different festivals that occur during the year. In short, this Manual may truly be said to be the most comprehensive book of the kind that has ever been issued from the press in this country. It is very handsomely executed, and is embellished with several fine Engravings. Let all purchase this book who wish to be provided with a complete manual of Catholic piety."

U. S. Catholic Magazine.

"Mr. Murphy, of Baltimore, has just issued a new Catholic Prayer Book, which we pronounce, with out fear of contradiction, to be the best which has yet come within our knowledge. It is beautifully got up—printed with new type, on excellent paper—illustrated with several fine engravings, and illuminated title—presentation plates, &c. and can be had in any kind of binding."

Truth Teller.

"The publisher has placed the Catholics of the United States under an obligation in issuing this truly elegant and useful volume, which, it is to be hoped, they will repay by a liberal patronage for their mutual benefit."

BRIEF EXTRACTS FROM NOTICES, &c.

The following extract from a letter of a distinguished clergyman, ordering 50 copies, expresses the spirit of many similar letters, which we are constantly receiving: "Your Magazine is the best thing which could be started at present; it has and hope will always have my most cordial approbation, and I will not be satisfied until I see it in the hands of every youth under my charge."

The Dublin Review says:—Every parent and teacher will rejoice to have the advantage of so cheap and so well got up a work as the "Catholic Youth's Magazine."

The Catholic Herald says:—We know of no similar work so well adapted to the minds and tastes of Catholic youth. Let parents look to their interest and duty, and subscribe for the YOUTH'S MAGAZINE.

The New York Citizen says:—It is excellently suited to the roving fancies of youth. The stories are neither long nor pedantic; but contain instruction both of a religious and historical character, combined with amusement. The paper is very good, and the print is very excellent—being large type, clear and distinct. There are many engravings in this little gem.

The Catholic Library Magazine says:—It is filled with choice and diversified matter and neatly illustrated. We are glad to learn that it is succeeding well. The price is only fifty cents a year. What boy or girl cannot afford a cent a week?

The Catholic Mirror says:—The twelve monthly numbers of the year, bound together, make a handsome volume, as well as a very instructive and entertaining book. The very variety contained in it makes its perusal pleasant, there being specimens of almost every kind of reading that could interest or instruct. Happy would it be if every Catholic family in the United States had this little periodical coming every month to do good to all the household, but especially to the children. Whoever induces even one father of a family to introduce this monthly among those entrusted to his charge, will do a good work and shall not lose his reward.

The Visitation Manual,

A NEW and COMPLETE PRAYER BOOK,

Containing the most Suitable and Appropriate Instructions and Devotions for all stated times and occasions that may arise in the life of a Christian.

This Book, compiled according to the Spiritual Directory and Spirit of Saint Francis de Sales, contains copious extracts from his writings, referring to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Spiritual Direction, Holy Communion, the Sanctification of the Week, and other Subjects comprising much that has never before appeared in English.

The publishers deem it unnecessary to enter into details, or to enlarge on its peculiar merits. The distinguishing feature of this New Book of Devotion is that its forms of Prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction and approval of the Church; which is more than abundantly vouched for, by the following Approval and Recommendation of the Most Rev. ARCHBISHOP of BALTIMORE, whose exactness in such matters is universally known.

THE New Prayer Book called "THE VISITATION MANUAL," compiled by some ladies of the Convent of the Visitation in this city, and revised by two learned Clergymen, Examiners of books of this Diocese, and now published by Messrs. JOHN MURPHY & Co., is approved of by me, and recommended to the faithful of my charge.

Given under my hand at Baltimore, this 14th day of November, 1857.

† FRANCIS PATRICK,

The publishers respectfully solicit attention to the style in which this book is issued. It is printed in a superior manner on substantial paper of a fine texture;—the Prayers at Mass, and other Devotions most generally used, are printed from a large, clear, and bold type, and throughout the entire work great care has been taken in the selection of the type, with the view of rendering it pleasing and agreeable to the eye. These features, combined with its general arrangement and contents, they trust will render this book a favorite with the Catholics of this country.

✠ The Catholic Miscellany, in noticing this New Manual, says:—"The Visitation Manual seems to us one of the best Prayer Books issued for a long time. It contains everything needed for Catholic devotion; suitable prayers for morning and evening, for Mass and the Holy Sacraments, in a word for all stated times, or casual circumstances that may arise in the life of a Christian. That it contains no arbitrary forms of prayer, introduced without the sanction of the Church or in opposition to her liturgical forms, is more than abundantly vouched for by the approval and recommendation with which it has been honored by the learned and venerable Archbishop of Baltimore. A feature of the book has pleased us in an especial manner, viz: the liturgical distribution, if we may so call it, of the devotions, which it contains for the chief mysteries of Our Lord, and His Holy Mother, for the festivals of the principal Saints. The Messrs. Murphy have brought out this handsome book in a most creditable style. They have issued copies in every variety of binding; and we know of no book more suitable for a holiday present."

✠ The New Orleans Catholic Standard says:—"The distinguishing feature of this new book of devotion is that its forms of prayer are exclusively confined to those that have received the sanction of the Church. It appears to offer to the faithful everything needed for Catholic devotion."

✠ The Boston Pilot says:—"We are glad to see that the suggestions made in a late article of Brownson's Review have been followed in the compilation of this book. The book is printed in an elegant style, and the clear, large type, must offer great inducement to old people, and weak eyes. We would respectfully suggest to directors of sodalities and confraternities to introduce this Manual among the fraternities. It is the very thing for them."

✠ Early orders from the Trade, Religious Institutions, the Rev. Clergy, and others, (to whom the usual discount will be made, when purchased in quantities,) are respectfully solicited.

Booksellers, Publishers, Printers, and Stationers,

Have the pleasure of announcing to their friends and the public, that they have removed from their old stand, 178, to the new and spacious five story Marble Building 182 Baltimore street, second house West of their former stand, where they are constantly enlarging their stock and variety of BOOKS, PAPER, BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY, and FOREIGN BOOKS, and continue the PRINTING, PUBLISHING and BOOK-BINDING departments of their business on a more extensive scale.

In returning thanks for the liberal encouragement extended for the last eighteen years at their old stand, they trust that their enlarged stock and increased facilities will meet with that liberal support which they hope to merit by the most rigid regard to the interests of all who may favor them with their custom in the various departments of their business.

In connection with the foregoing announcement, they beg to invite attention to their Enlarged Stock, comprising a very extensive and varied assortment of BOOKS in GENERAL LITERATURE, in every variety of plain and superb Bindings, to which constant additions are being made of all new works of merit, as soon as published.

Their stock of CATHOLIC BOOKS embraces, in addition to their own, all the American Publications, together with a large stock of English, Irish, French, and Belgian Editions, of the most approved works, to which constant additions are being made by direct Importation.

FOREIGN BOOKS, RELIGIOUS ARTICLES, &c. Their stock in this line comprises a very large assortment of MISSALS, BREVIAIRES and LITURGICAL BOOKS,—also, THEOLOGICAL and ASCETIC WORKS, generally, together with an extensive stock of FRENCH WORKS, in the various departments of Literature, including a great variety of Prayer and Devotional Books, in every variety of plain and elegant Bindings, to which constant additions are regularly made by direct Importation.

RELIGIOUS PICTURES, PRAYER BEADS, CRUCIFIXES, MEDALS, MEDALLIONS, STATUETTES, &c., &c. Their stock in this line is extensive, embracing a great variety of styles and prices—and being imported direct, they are enabled to sell very low.

SCHOOL and CLASSICAL BOOKS, PAPER and STATIONERY. Their stock in this line comprises everything requisite for Colleges, Schools, &c., &c.

BLANK BOOKS, PAPER, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC STATIONERY, COMMERCIAL and LAW BLANKS, &c., &c. Their stock in this line embraces every requisite for Counting-Houses, Banks, Rail Road Companies, Public Offices, &c.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, BOOK BINDING, &c.—Having united with their Bookstore, in the same building, an extensive Printing Office and Bookbindery, well supplied with the most approved materials, and experienced workmen, enable them to offer superior advantages and inducements for the prompt, careful and correct execution of every description of Book and Job Printing, Ruling and Book-binding, well worthy the attention of all who may require anything in this line.

☞ They take pleasure in announcing to their friends and the public, that they have completed their arrangements, by which they are now enabled to keep constantly on hand a large and choice assortment of almost every thing required in connection with the Catholic Book Business. They deem it unnecessary to enlarge on the advantages, convenience, and saving of time and expense, which this combination and concentration of stock affords to Bookbuyers, Booksellers, Colleges, Academies, Religious Institutions, Libraries, &c. &c., in being able to purchase every thing at one place, at the very Lowest Rates, Wholesale and Retail.

FOREIGN BOOKS. Large Invoices of English, Irish, French and Belgian Editions of NEW and STANDARD WORKS, have been recently received, most of which have been purchased at such rates as enable us to offer them at greatly reduced prices.

BOOKS SUITABLE FOR PREMIUMS.—Their stock is extensive and well worthy the attention of all who may require Good and Appropriate Books, at LOW PRICES.

Recommendation of the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore.

Messrs. Murphy & Co. having undertaken the publication of the Metropolitan Catholic Almanac, at the instance of the late Provincial Council of Baltimore, I recommend the undertaking to the favor of the Prelates of the United States and of the Clergy and faithful, that the necessary information may be furnished them in due time, and that the work may meet with patronage.

† FRANCIS PATRICK,

BALTIMORE, July 15, 1859.

Archbishop of Baltimore.
